New and expanding venues around the city are providing more opportunities not only to get outside and exercise but also to appreciate the labor and industry that built the city. In Five Star Trails Birmingham local author Thomas Spencer leads readers to some of the best hikes around the city. Within a short drive from Birmingham you can find yourself on an Appalachian mountain peak or on the banks of the Cahaba River as it broadens to snake through the Coastal Plain. You can visit old growth forest in the Sipsey Wilderness or hike down into the Grand Canyon of the East at Little River Canyon. And that's only the start. Across this landscape you'll find a level of diversity of plant and animal species some rare and endangered that rivals anywhere in the North America. Footprints in Stone Ronald J. Buta, David C.
