Citizenship, Law and Literature Caroline Koegler, Jesper Reddig, Klaus Stierstorfer, 2021-10-25 This edited volume is the first to focus on how concepts of citizenship diversify and stimulate the long-standing field of law and literature and vice versa. Building on existing research in law and literature as well as literature and citizenship studies the collection approaches the triangular relationship between citizenship, law and literature from a variety of disciplinary, conceptual and political perspectives with particular emphasis on the performative aspect inherent in any type of social expression and cultural artefact. The sixteen chapters in this volume present literature as carrying multifarious at times opposing energies and impulses in relation to citizenship. These range from providing discursive arenas for consolidating, challenging and re-negotiating citizenship to directly interfering with or inspiring processes of law making and governance. The volume opens up new possibilities for the scholarly understanding of citizenship along two axes: Citizenship as Literature, Enacting Citizenship and Citizenship in Literature, Conceptualising Citizenship. Runaway, Homeless, and Missing Children United States.
