Black Space Adilifu Nama,2010-01-01 Winner Rollins Book Award Southwest Texas Popular Culture Association

American Culture Association 2008 Science fiction film offers its viewers many pleasures not least of which is the possibility of imagining other worlds in which very different forms of society exist Not surprisingly however these alternative worlds often become spaces in which filmmakers and film audiences can explore issues of concern in our own society Through an analysis of over thirty canonic science fiction SF films including Logan s Run Star Wars Blade Runner Back to the Future Gattaca and Minority Report Black Space offers a thorough going investigation of how SF film since the 1950s has dealt with the issue of race and specifically with the representation of blackness Setting his study against the backdrop of America s ongoing racial struggles and complex socioeconomic histories Adilifu Nama pursues a number of themes in Black Space They include the structured absence token presence of blacks in SF film racial contamination and racial paranoia the traumatized black body as the ultimate signifier of difference alienness and otherness the use of class and economic issues to subsume race as an issue the racially subversive pleasures and allegories encoded in some mainstream SF films and the ways in which independent and extra filmic productions are subverting the SF genre of Hollywood filmmaking The first book length study of African American representation in science fiction film Black Space demonstrates that SF cinema has become an important field of racial analysis a site where definitions of race can be contested and post civil rights race relations re imagined

Nazarewycz, 2019 From the opera house and movie palace to the modern multiplex the big screen in Delaware is more than a century old Hollywood legend Cary Grant visited the Playhouse Theater in 1955 fondly recalling his days on its stage as a child actor Clint Eastwood came to Wilmington for a secret test screening of his film The Gauntlet at the Branmar Cinema The groundbreaking history of Star Wars includes a Delaware theater that was one of only forty five in the country to open the film Author Michael J Nazarewycz recounts the cinematic history of Delaware s movie theaters Gary D. Rhodes, Robert Singer, 2024-09-16 Contributions by Vlad Dima Laura Hatry Alicia Kozma Lynette Kuliyeva Madhuja Mukherjee Frank Percaccio Gary D Rhodes Courtney Ruffner Grieneisen Marlisa Santos Michael L Shuman and Robert Singer Movie posters regardless of their country of origin have become indelibly linked with the films they represent often assuming a status as visual encapsulations of films within collective memory Long after their initial role in promotion is complete these posters endure as iconic images etched into film history and cultural consciousness One can hardly hear mention of Steven Spielberg's landmark production Jaws for example without immediately picturing the evocative poster art of Roger Kastel Film by Design The Art of the Movie Poster is a groundbreaking and comprehensive exploration of the international and Hollywood movie poster as a dynamic artistic and cultural formation Drawing inspiration from such prominent genres as horror science fiction and noir the twelve essays in this collection provide insightful analyses of the movie poster as a vital component of the cinematic landscape from the silent era to the contemporary period Crucially this anthology rejects the notion of movie posters as mere historical artifacts or advertising tools and instead examines them as integral parts of a broader aesthetic framework interwoven into their respective film narratives Each chapter whether focusing on controversies close ups or Cuba is accessible to scholars students and fans alike Through its intervention in film studies Film by Design reveals the movie poster to be an ever evolving medium firmly grounded in both theory and practice while serving as an essential and enduring element within the realm of film art
