Lupoff,1974 on diverse conflicts in the world today Journalism: Critical Issues Allan, Stuart, 2005-01-01 Over the years it has been frequently remarked that journalism is at a crossroads indeed so often that it risks sounding somewhat cliched yet there is every indication that its very forms practices and institutions are being decisively transformed with startling implications Accordingly the principal aim of this book is to help provide the basis for new dialogues to emerge regarding journalism today as well as about where it may be heading tomorrow Journalism Critical Issues poses a series of important questions afresh questions deserving of much greater attention than they have typically received to date Each of the contributors seeks to challenge conventional ways of thinking about the critical issue at stake in their respective chapter In so doing it is their intention to further our understanding but also to encourage future explorations with the potential to revitalise journalism studies In adopting this approach it is hoped that the book will make for a lively argumentative in the best sense of the word and engaging intervention New Earth Histories Alison Bashford, Emily M.
