Greenfield, 2005-01-05 This is an anthology giving glimpses into 300 years of magical spirituality from 1700 to 2000 with suggestions for the future The Authentic Magical Tradition is difficult to pin down but the author has come closer than perhaps anyone in identifying the authentic tradition in the essential roots of magical spirituality today and for tomorrow 20 years of research and 40 years of experience in this area identifies the author as a major historian of the magical authentic tradition Catalogue Bernard Quaritch (Firm), 1922

Colonial Masculinity Mrinalini Sinha, 1995 A revision of a doctoral thesis at the State U of New York at Stony Brook It argues that the emerging dynamics between colonial and nationalist politics in the 1880s and 1890s in India is best captured in the logic of colonial masculinity and it traces the impact of colonial masculinity in four controversies the white mutiny against the Ilbert Bill in 1883 the official government response to the Native Volunteer movement in 1885 the recommendations of the Public Service Commission of 1886 and the Indian opposition to the Age of Consent Bill in 1891 Distributed by St Martin's Press Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature, 1892 Men, Machines, and War Ronald Haycock, Keith Neilson, 2006-01-01 Using examples from the last two centuries this collection of essays discusses the close links between technology and war In the opening essay distinguished historian William H McNeill demonstrates the extent to which military technology has often led to differentiations among people both within and between societies The other studies examine various aspects of weapons technology drawing on the history of the armed forces of Britain Prussia and Australia among others Some of these illustrate how the adoption of new weaponry frequently depended as much on national pride and party politics as it did on the purely technical merits of the weapons involved that financial considerations became increasingly primary in technological developments in British army after World War I and that decisions made prior to 1939 about the aviation technology to be developed for military purposes largely determined what kind of the RAF was able to fight The chapter by Dr G R Lindsay the Chief of the Operational Research and Analysis Establishment at the Department of National Defence Headquarters in Ottawa makes the case that with nuclear weapons added to the scene the impact of technology on international security has never been as great as at present and that the competition of nations seeking the technological edge in weaponry threatens to destabilize the precarious balance that has existed since 1945 The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature, 1900 Southern Masculinity Craig Thompson Friend, 2010-01-25 The follow up to the critically acclaimed collection Southern Manhood Perspectives on Masculinity in the Old South Georgia 2004 Southern Masculinity explores the contours of southern male identity from Reconstruction to the present Twelve case studies document the changing definitions of southern masculine identity as understood in conjunction with identities based on race gender age sexuality and geography After the Civil War southern men crafted notions of manhood in opposition to northern ideals of masculinity and as counterpoint to southern womanhood At the same time manliness in the South as understood by individuals and within communities retained and transformed antebellum conceptions of honor and mastery This collection examines masculinity with respect to Reconstruction the New South racism southern womanhood the Sunbelt gay rights and the rise of the Christian Right Familiar figures such as Arthur Ashe are investigated from fresh angles while other essays plumb new areas such as the womanless wedding and Cherokee masculinity Book Dealers' Weekly ,1925
