Mexican Architects A Contemporary Vision:

Arquitectos Mexicanos Fernando de Haro Lebrija, Omar Fuentes, 2004 A home implies an active combination and interaction of many elements This is a passionate challenge for any architect one that requires the use of his or her entire craft and professional resources to achieve an objective But it even goes beyond that it also involves a deep personal and emotional investment with the design theme and the incredible responsibility associated with it With this perspective in mind it is highly rewarding to analyze how each architect reached the different design solutions presented on the following pages One discovery is that of a common denominator that diversity is what drives and characterizes contemporary architecture as an expression of the times we live in , Sveranda Il Cielo in Una Stanza , Case Di Campagna N.114 , Vision, Technology, and Subjectivity in Mexican Cyberpunk Literature Stephen C. Tobin, 2023-07-06 Vision Technology and Subjectivity in Mexican Cyberpunk Literature interrogates an array of cyberpunk and post cyberpunk science fiction novels and short stories from Mexico whose themes engage directly with visual technologies and the subjectivities they help produce all published during and influenced by the country s neoliberal era This book argues that television computers and smartphones and the literary narratives that treat them all correspond to separate yet overlapping scopic regimes within the country today Amidst the shifts occurring in the country s field of vision during this period the authors of these cyberpunk and post cyberpunk narratives imagine how these devices contribute to producing specular subjects or subjects who are constituted in large measure by their use and interaction with visual technologies In doing so they repeatedly recur to the posthuman figure of the cyborg in order to articulate these changes Stephen C Tobin therefore contends that the literary cyborg becomes a discursive site for working through the problematics of sight in Mexico during the globalized era In all these specular fictions represent an exceptional tendency within literary expression especially within the cyberpunk genre that grapples with themes and issues regarding the nature of vision being increasingly mediated by technology
