Nuestro Madrid:

Nuestro tiempo, 1911      The Cinema of Víctor Erice Linda C. Ehrlich, 2007-02-01 To coincide with the recent DVD release of The Spirit of the Beehive this paperback collection of essays focuses on the work of acclaimed Spanish director Víctor Erice. Originally published in hardcover under the title An Open Window this expanded edition draws on original essays, reprints and new translations from an international group of writers. New to this edition are four essays from noted film scholars including editor Linda C. Ehrlich as well as three added essays from the filmmaker himself. Both the original and new material provide a deeper appreciation of Erice's three feature length films: The Spirit of the Beehive (1973), El Sur (1982) and Dream of Light aka The Quince Tree Sun (1992) as well as his shorter works including his most recent accomplishment La morte rouge (2006). This anthology examines the aesthetic, historical and sociological forces at work in Erice's films and includes an extensive interview with the director. This broad array of writings provides insight into not only three unforgettable films but also into twentieth century Spanish society as well as world cinema. The Cinema of Víctor Erice: An Open Window will serve as an important resource to measure the career of this director who, along with Buñuel, Saura and Almodóvar, has helped show the world the creative range of Spanish cinema. With additional essays, translations and illustrations, this paperback edition explores new avenues of expression pursued by one of the most poetic of modern filmmakers.

Nuestro mundo, 1927      La Transición contada a nuestros padres Juan Carlos Monedero, 2021-01-14 Sexta edición actualizada. Unos pueblos tienen la toma de la Bastilla, el asalto al Palacio de Invierno, la Revolución de los Claveles o la caída del Muro de Berlín. España a la Transición. Italia tiene Novecento. España a la vaquilla. Al himno español se le perdió la letra. Francia tiene La Marsellesa. Y un salario mínimo que dobla al de España. Esta mirada generacional no discute tanto con lo que se hizo como con el relato de la Inmaculada Transición. Un relato lleno de mentiras, exageraciones y silencios donde la gente que se comportó heroicamente ha desaparecido del cuadro y los oportunistas posan sonrientes ocupando todo el retrato. Mientras la España oficial insiste en las bondades de la Transición, la democracia sigue vaciándose. Dónde están nuestros premios Nobel, nuestras universidades de prestigio, nuestras empresas punteras, nuestros sindicatos ejemplares, nuestros medios de comunicación de referencia. De esa ausencia de alternativas nació el 15-M. La quiebra del bipartidismo fue su efecto político más evidente. Del armario de las viejas recetas salió de nuevo otra Transición. Una segunda Transición hecha con las mismas armas melladas. Que conducir a sin duda a los mismos callejones sin salida. Sin memoria no hay democracia. Hay alguna lección política compartida entre Fernando VII y Felipe VI. Por qué cuesta tanto en España que un político dimita. Se parecen en algo la España de Rajoy y la de Cárdenas del Castillo. Juan Carlos Monedero ajusta los cuentos de la Transición y pide una mirada más real de aquella época que nos permita alumbrar un futuro menos tenebroso marcado por el auge de los Trump de la extrema derecha y de las grandes, pequeñas y mediocres coaliciones.

Surveying the Avant-Garde Lori Cole,2018-06-04 Surveying the Avant Garde examines the art and literature of the Americas in the early twentieth century through the lens of the questionnaire a genre as central as the manifesto to the history of the avant garde Questions such as How do you imagine Latin America and What should American art be issued by avant garde magazines like Imagen a Latin American periodical based in Paris and Cuba's Revista de Avance demonstrate how editors writers and readers all grappled with the concept of America particularly in relationship to Europe and how the questionnaire became a structuring device for reflecting on their national and aesthetic identities in print Through an analysis of these questionnaires and their responses Lori Cole reveals how ideas like American art as well as modernism and avant garde were debated at the very moment of their development and consolidation Unlike a manifesto whose signatories align with a single polemical text the questionnaire produces a patchwork of responses providing a composite and sometimes fractured portrait of a community Such responses yield a self reflexive history of the era as told by its protagonists which include figures such as Gertrude Stein Alfred Stieglitz Jean Toomer F T Marinetti Diego Rivera and Jorge Luis Borges The book traces a genealogy of the genre from the Renaissance paragone or comparison of the arts through the rise of enquetes in the late nineteenth century up to the contemporary questionnaire which proliferates in art magazines today By analyzing a selection of surveys issued across the Atlantic Cole indicates how they helped shape artists and writers understanding of themselves and their place in the world Based on extensive archival research this book reorients our understanding of modernism as both hemispheric and transatlantic by narrating how the artists and writers of the period engaged in aesthetic debates that informed and propelled print communities in Europe the United States and

Latin America Scholars of modernism and the avant garde will welcome Cole's original and compellingly crafted work
