The Unsettling of Europe Peter Gatrell,2019-08-27 An acclaimed historian examines postwar migration s fundamental role in shaping modern Europe Migration is perhaps the most pressing issue of our time and it has completely decentered European politics in recent years But as we consider the current refugee crisis acclaimed historian Peter Gatrell reminds us that the history of Europe has always been one of people on the move The end of World War II left Europe in a state of confusion with many Europeans virtually stateless Later as former colonial states gained national independence colonists and their supporters migrated to often unwelcoming metropolises The collapse of communism in 1989 marked another fundamental turning point Gatrell places migration at the center of post war European history and the aspirations of migrants themselves at the center of the story of migration This is an urgent history that will reshape our understanding of modern Europe

The Vortex Frank Uekötter, 2024-04-18 Environmental challenges are defining the twenty first century To fully understand ongoing debates about our current crises climate change loss of biological diversity pollution extinction resource woes means revisiting their origins in all their complexity With this ambitious highly original contribution to the environmental history of global modernity Frank Uekötter considers the many ways humans have had an impact on their physical environment throughout history Ours is not a one way trajectory to sudden collapse he argues but rather death by a thousand cuts The many paths we've forged to arrive in our current predicament from agriculture to industry to infrastructure must be considered collectively if we are to stay afloat in what Uekötter describes as a vortex a powerful metaphor for the flow of history capturing the momentum and the many crosscurrents that swept people and environments along His book invites us to look at environmental challenges from multiple perspectives including all the twists and turns that have helped to create the mess we find ourselves in Uekötter has written a world history for an age where things are falling apart where we know what lies ahead and are equipped with the right tools technological and otherwise and plenty of experience to deal with environmental challenges but somehow fail to get our affairs in order

Of Beasts and Beauty

Michael Edward Stanfield, 2013-08-15 All societies around the world and through time value beauty highly Tracing the evolutions of the Colombian standards of beauty since 1845 Michael Edward Stanfield explores their significance to and symbiotic relationship with violence and inequality in the country Arguing that beauty holds not only social power but also economic and political power he positions it as a pacific and inclusive influence in a country ripped apart by violence private armies seizures of land and abuse of governmental authority one hoping that female beauty could save it from the ravages of the male beast One specific means of obscuring those harsh realities is the beauty pageant of which Colombia has over 300 per year Stanfield investigates the ways in which these pageants reveal the effects of European modernity and notions of ethnicity on Colombian women and how beauty for Colombians has become an external representation of order and morality that can counter the pathological effects of violence inequality and exclusion in their country
