Robert Hooke,1705 Revelation Rob Dalrymple,2024-06-27 Could the cry Come out of her My people Rev 18 4 not be needed more today than it was when John penned the Apocalypse The book of Revelation begins and ends with the affirmation that God is the world s true Lord not Caesar In telling this story John lays out for us the fact that Christ s kingdom is not like the kingdoms of the world The kingdoms of the world rule by force and at the expense of the masses and for the benefit of those in power Jesus s kingdom however comes through love In Christ s kingdom power is demonstrated by laying down one s life for one s enemies Jesus of course demonstrated this kind of love on the cross and he calls us to do the same We have nothing to fear After all Jesus was dead and now he is alive and he has the keys to Death and Hades Unfortunately many interpreters have come to believe that the devastation and destruction depicted in the book of Revelation in particular in the accounts of the Seven Seals and the Seven Bowls are God s end times wrath But have we ever stopped to consider that this portrait of God is fundamentally at odds with the gospel And with Jesus s call for us to love one another even as he loved us The book of Revelation tells a different story The Hidden Unity of the Bible Pieter J. Lane, 2019-05-01 We are surrounded by a world that talks but we don't listen We are part of a community engaged in a vast conversation but we deny our role in it In the face of climate change species loss and vast environmental destruction the ability to stand in the flow of the great conversation of all creatures and the earth can feel utterly lost to the human race But Belden C Lane suggests that it can and must be recovered not only for the sake of endangered species and the well being of at risk communities but for the survival of the world itself The Great Conversation is Lane's multi faceted treatise on a spiritually centered environmentalism At the core is a belief in the power of the natural world to act as teacher In a series of personal anecdotes Lane pairs his own experiences in the wild with the writings of saints and sages from a wide range of religious traditions A night in a Missourian cave brings to mind the Spiritual Exercises of Ignatius of Loyola the canyons of southern Utah elicit a response from the Chinese philosopher Laozi 500 000 migrating sandhill cranes rest in Nebraska and evoke the Sufi poet Farid ud Din Attar With each chapter the humility of spiritual masters through the ages melds with the author's encounters with natural teachers to offer guidance for entering once more into a conversation with the world

Gaia's Gift Anne Primavesi, 2004-03-01 Gaia's Gift the second of Anne Primavesi's explorations of human relationships with the earth asks that we complete the ideological revolution set in motion by Copernicus and Darwin concerning human importancene They challenged the notion of our God given centrality within the universe and within earth's evolutionary history Yet as our continuing exploitation of earth's resources and species demonstrates we remain wedded to the theological assumption that these are there for our sole use and benefit Now James Lovelock's scientific understanding of the existential reality of Gaia's gift of life again raises the question of our proper place within the universe It turns us decisively towards an understanding of ourselves as dependent on rather than in control of the whole earth community Shared Stories, Rival Tellings Robert C.
