Todd Bolender, Janet Reed, and the Making of American Ballet Martha Ullman West, 2021-05-18 Martha Ullman West illustrates how American ballet developed over the course of the twentieth century from an aesthetic originating in the courts of Europe into a stylistically diverse expression of a democratic culture. West places at center stage two artists who were instrumental to this story Todd Bolender and Janet Reed Lifelong friends Bolender 1914-2006 and Reed 1916-2000 were part of a generation of dancers who navigated the Great Depression, World War II and the vibrant cultural scene of postwar New York City. They danced in the works of choreographers Lew and Willam Christensen, Eugene Loring, Agnes de Mille, Catherine Littlefield, Ruthanna Boris and others who West argues were just as responsible for the direction of American ballet as the legendary George Balanchine and Jerome Robbins. The stories of Bolender and Reed and their contemporaries also demonstrate that the flowering of American ballet was not simply a New York phenomenon West includes little known details about how Bolender and Reed laid the foundations for Seattle's Pacific Northwest Ballet in the 1970s and how Bolender transformed the Kansas City Ballet into a highly respected professional company soon after. Passionate in their desire to dance and create dances, Bolender and Reed committed their lives to passing along their hard-won knowledge, training and work. This book celebrates two unsung trailblazers who were pivotal to the establishment of ballet in America from one coast to the other.

National Union Catalog, 1973 Includes entries for maps and atlases    The Book Buyer's Guide, 1969    The Royal Ballet: 75 Years Zoë Anderson, 2011-02-17 This book is a perceptive and critical account of the first 75 years of The Royal Ballet, tracing the company's growth and its great cultural importance; an indispensable book for all lovers of ballet. In 1931 Ninette de Valois started a ballet company with just six dancers. Within twenty years The Royal Ballet as it became was established as one of the world's great companies. It has produced celebrated dancers from Margot Fonteyn to Darcey Bussell and one of the richest repertoires in ballet. The company danced through the Blitz, won an international reputation in a single New York performance and added to the glamour of London's Swinging Sixties. It has established a distinctive English school of ballet, a pure classical style that could do justice to the 19th century repertory and to new British classics. Leading dance critic Zo Anderson vividly portrays the extraordinary personalities who created the company and the dancers who made such an impact on their audiences. She looks at the bad times as well as the good, examining the controversial directorships of Norman Morrice and Ross Stretton and the criticism fired at the company as the Royal Opera House closed for redevelopment.    Professional Journal of the United States Army, 1943    The National union catalog, 1968-1972, 1973    The National Union Catalogs, 1963-, 1964    Opera Canada, 1977    Ballet in Australia Edward H.
