Food, Environment, and Climate Change Erinn Gilson,Sarah Kenehan,2018-10-18 This volume takes up the pressing issues of justice and responsibility that arise at the intersection of food and agricultural systems environmental degradation and global climate change The diverse contributions examine both the various ways that food and agricultural practices contribute to environmental degradation especially climate change and the impact that climate change is having and will have on food and agricultural practices Central questions include How can the connections between food and agriculture environmental issues and climate change best be understood What are the ethical and political responsibilities of various parties in relation to this nexus of problems Whose knowledge concerns and voices are and should be valued in making global climate policy and agricultural and food policy What are the limitations of existing policies practices and theoretical frameworks for understanding and responding to these complex problems

Safe and Healthy School Environments Howard Frumkin,2006 Publisher Description Latin America and the Caribbean Regional Overview of Food Security and Nutrition 2024 Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations,IFAD,PAHO,UNICEF,WFP,2025-01-27 Latin America and the Caribbean have seen a decline in hunger and food insecurity for two years driven by social protection programs and post COVID recovery However disparities persist especially among women rural populations and vulnerable groups The region is unlikely to meet most nutrition targets and healthy diets remain expensive Climate variability is increasing in the region affecting food security across availability access utilization and stability This climate impact reduces agricultural productivity disrupts food supply chains and raises food prices Vulnerable populations are most affected with changing diets further exacerbating the situation Climate change is worsening food security and the causes of malnutrition

Sustainable and Resilient Food Systems in Times of Crises Tarek Ben Hassen,Bassel Daher,Stefan Burkart,Hamid El Bilali,2025-08-18 The global food system is facing multiple and multifaceted challenges and crises increasing population climate change pandemics conflicts economic shocks and natural disasters These challenges have highlighted the fragility of the current food system and the need for a transition toward sustainable and resilient food production distribution and consumption practices Sustainable food systems aim to provide healthy and nutritious food for all while minimizing environmental impacts ensuring social equity and economic viability and enhancing resilience to shocks and stresses In times of crisis such as the COVID 19 pandemic and the ongoing war in Ukraine a sustainable and resilient food system can be crucial in ensuring food and nutrition security reducing food waste and supporting sustainable local production

Assessment of retail food environments and green spaces for healthy cities Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations,Global Alliance for Improved Nutrition,World Obesity Foundation,2022-06-22 Developing and maintaining healthy retail food environments and green spaces is of the utmost and pressing importance in urban centres To this end it is crucial to provide cities with tools to assess the availability accessibility and use of food outlets and green spaces that facilitate healthy eating and living for urban dwellers Existing tools to assess food and green environments have been developed and used mainly in high income countries This study shows that these tools can and should be adapted to low and middle income country settings This study shows that small neighbourhood food shops are important for household food security in particular for low to middle income households At the same time the study shows that consumers are disproportionately exposed to ultra processed foods UPFs in these shops The policy implication of this finding is that small neighbourhood shops must be incentivized to stock and sell greater amounts of fresh and minimally processed foods to make it easier for low to middle income households to adopt healthy diets

The African Food

Environments Amos Laar,Kaleab Baye,Anna Lartey,Francis Zotor,Gershim Asiki,2023-09-05 In many respects the continent of Africa is in transition Prominent among them currently is the nutrition transition One consequence of the nutrition transition is the increase in prevalence of nutrition related non communicable diseases NCDs such as obesity type 2 diabetes cardiovascular diseases and certain cancers Although NCDs are a global public health problem the rate of increase in NCDs morbidity and mortality in some African countries is staggering This surge has been linked to modifiable environmental factors factors that facilitate the consumption of obesogenic energy dense nutrient poor foods rather than unrefined cereals fruits and vegetables It has long been recognized that the physical and social environments in which people live work and eat are critical determinants of their health More recently there has been a greater focus on the food environment as a key determinant of health Available evidence shows that unhealthy food environments drive unhealthy diets and unhealthy diet is one of four main risk factors for NCDs

Global Food Systems, Diets, and Nutrition Jessica Fanzo,Claire Davis,2021-06-05

Ensuring optimal diets and nutrition for the global population is a grand challenge fraught with many contentious issues To achieve food security for all and protect health we need functional equitable and sustainable food systems Food systems are highly complex networks of individuals and institutions that depend on governance and policy leadership This book explains how interconnected food systems and policies affect diets and nutrition in high middle and low income countries In tandem with food policy food systems determine the availability affordability and nutritional quality of the food supply which influences the diets that people are willing and able to consume Readers will become familiar with both domestic and international food policy processes and actors and they will be able to critically analyze and debate how policy and science affect diet and nutrition outcomes

Food Systems Evaluation Methods and Sustainability Assessment Bradley George Ridoutt,Aida Turrini,2024-03-08 The food system is responsible for some of society s most pressing sustainability challenges Diets are currently unsustainable in many countries as evidenced by the growing burden of malnutrition degradation of natural resources contributions to climate change and unaffordability of healthy diets There is an urgent need to address the gaps in understanding of what a sustainable food system means across varying populations and geographies and how we can better measure these systems while identifying how dietary choices impact on human health and the environment However decision makers and experts are questioning whether it is possible to meet environmental social and economic goals simultaneously or whether trade offs are necessary Thus the development of better measurements and indicators to clearly understand the benefits and considerations for healthy and sustainable food systems is needed

Environmental & Economic Impact on Sustainable Development J.L. Miralles i Garcia,2016-12-28 Delegates to the 3rd International Conference on Environmental and Economic Impact on Sustainable Development contributed the peer reviewed papers contained in this book The papers discuss the most serious problems affecting sustainable development They consider the impact of economic constraints on the environment taking into account the social aspects as well as the over use of natural resources Uncontrolled development can also result in damage to the environment in terms of the release of toxic substances and hazardous waste Thus attention is paid to issues related to whether some forms of development are compatible with environmental protection particularly in cases of possible serious contamination and toxicity The focus in the book is on more constructive and progressive approaches to the problems discussed to ensure sustainability The hope is that through the shared experiences of experts we can learn from past failure to avoid repeating similar mistakes while attempting to prevent emerging threats to the environmental and ecological systems Fundamental to these concepts are an analysis of the inherent risks and the development of appropriate strategies The papers in this book cover such topics as Environmental assessments Environmental policies and planning Water resources management Natural resources management Legislation and regulations Development issues Economic impact

Regional Overview of Food Security and Nutrition in the Near East and North Africa 2019 Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, World Food Programme, International Fund for Agriculture Development, World Health Organization, United Nations International Children's Emergency Fund, 2020-05-01 The past few decades have seen dramatic improvements in the region in access to food reduction in stunting rates in premature death and disability caused by communicable maternal neonatal and nutritional diseases However the gains in the fight against hunger and malnutrition have reversed in the wake of conflicts and violence that have spread in many parts of the region in the last decade Today nearly 55 million people in the Arab States 13.2 percent of the population are hungry and the situation is particularly worrying in countries affected by conflicts and violence Iraq Libya Somalia Syria Sudan and Yemen Displacements and forced migration are widespread in the region especially among the growing youth population segment Many countries carry a double burden of malnutrition including overweight and obesity and undernutrition A high or very high prevalence of stunting in children under the age of five persists in nearly half of the Arab States while anaemia is a severe public health issue in certain countries The trends of overweight and obesity continue to worsen for children and adults Beyond these numbers the report explores food systems in the Arab States and the policies that support them It also explores how the latter have contributed to poor nutritional outcomes by failing to make safe and diversified healthy diets available to all While there has been significant progress in policies designed to reduce caloric deficiencies in the population the policy reaction to address existing malnutrition problems particularly in relation to overweight and obesity

The Top Books of the Year Nutrition Food The Environment The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels enthralling the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the engaging narratives that have captivated audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Nutrition Food The Environment : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and gripping novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
