The Office of Cancer Communications, National Cancer Institute, is pleased to reprint this book which was written by members of the Yale New Haven Medical Center. Marion E. Morra, Communications Director; Nancy Suski, dietitian; and Bonny L. Johnson, Oncology Nurse. The book was written to help cancer patients, their families and friends find ways to eat well and to enjoy eating, particularly at those times when cancer treatment or the disease itself causes problems. The book is based on interviews with 99 cancer patients who live in the New Haven, Connecticut area. The authors report that despite the different kinds of cancers and the different treatments, eating problems experienced by these 99 patients fell into five general categories: nausea and vomiting, loss of appetite, mouth soreness and dryness, tired feeling and intestinal upset. The information, advice and helpful hints for dealing with these problems were culled from discussions with these patients and their families. There are also some suggestions from members of the Yale School of Nursing and the Connecticut Division of the American Cancer Society. The recipes included have been chosen to help solve the problems discussed. All of them are easy to prepare Many are old favorites which have been changed adding extra protein or other nutrients All recipes have been taste tested with the help of the Regional Visiting Nurses Agency that serves the New Haven area of Connecticut
