Subcommittee on Domestic and International Scientific Planning, Analysis, and Cooperation, 1977 New Challenges and Future Perspectives in Nutrition and Sustainable Diets in Africa Hettie Carina Schönfeldt, Gloria Essilfie, Yunyun Gong, 2024-05-06 Africa is confronted with the triple burden of malnutrition it is also faced with the triple challenges of poverty inequality and unemployment In many African countries large proportions of the population rely on agriculture not only for their food but also for their livelihoods A transformed agricultural and food system is thus a necessary condition for addressing this double triple challenge Additionally post

harvest and food waste and losses reduce the availability of sufficient quantities of safe edible and preferable foods At least one third of food produced at farm level is lost due to inappropriate storage infrastructure and agro processing technologies in developing countries and one third of food purchased is wasted at household and retail level Gender, Nutrition, and the Human Right to Adequate Food Anne C. Bellows, Flavio L.S. Valente, Stefanie Lemke, María Daniela Núñez Burbano de Lara, 2015-12-07 This book introduces the human right to adequate food and nutrition as evolving concept and identifies two structural disconnects fueling food insecurity for a billion people and disproportionately affecting women children and rural food producers the separation of women s rights from their right to adequate food and nutrition and the fragmented attention to food as commodity and the medicalization of nutritional health Three conditions arising from these disconnects are discussed structural violence and discrimination frustrating the realization of women s human rights as well as their private and public contributions to food and nutrition security for all many women s experience of their and their children s simultaneously independent and intertwined subjectivities during pregnancy and breastfeeding being poorly understood in human rights law and abused by poorly regulated food and nutrition industry marketing practices and the neoliberal economic system s interference both with the autonomy and self determination of women and their communities and with the strengthening of sustainable diets based on democratically governed local food systems The book calls for a social movement led reconceptualization of the right to adequate food toward incorporating gender women s rights and nutrition based on the food sovereignty framework Maternal Nutrition and Child Health Kirsten Uthheim Toverud, Geneviève Stearns, 1950
