representing a different era Content includes fascinating information such as that beginning in 1619 through 1654 every man in Virginia was required to plant a number of mulberry trees to support the silk industry in England what is known about the clothing of enslaved African Americans and that there were regulations placed on clothing design during World War II The set also includes color inserts that better communicate the visual impact of clothing and fashion across eras World

Clothing and Fashion Mary Ellen Snodgrass, 2015-03-17 Taking a global multicultural social and economic perspective this work explores the diverse and colourful history of human attire From prehistoric times to the age of globalization articles cover the evolution of clothing utility style production and commerce including accessories shoes hats gloves handbags and jewellery for men women and children Dress for different climates occupations recreational activities religious observances rites of passages and other human needs and purposes from hunting and warfare to sports and space exploration are examined in depth and detail Fashion and design trends in diverse historical periods regions and countries and social and ethnic groups constitute a major area of coverage as does the evolution of materials from animal fur to textiles to synthetic fabrics and production methods from sewing and weaving to industrial manufacturing and computer aided design Dress as a reflection of social status intellectual and artistic trends economic conditions cultural exchange and modern media marketing are recurring themes Influential figures and institutions in fashion design industry and manufacturing retail sales production technologies and related fields are also covered Commercial Intimacy Richard Popp, Brenton Malin, Wendy A.

Woloson, 2025-06-03 Explores how marketers have leveraged feelings of personal familiarity in modern consumer capitalism Our wired world connects us with corporations in ways that just a generation ago would have been hard to imagine Marketers track users habits down to the swipe and scroll brand influencers reach out to followers in ever more personal ways Yet however much we may feel individually recognized or targeted by today s marketers the connections they make are in truth fleeting and tactical They are also nothing new Marketplace transactions have long been mediated by interactions that blur the line between the putatively public and rational world of commerce and the supposedly private and emotional realm of personal relations That there is an affective tenor to every sales scenario has never been a secret to talented marketers How exactly marketers have tried to set those moods by endowing commercial relationships with an aura of personal affinity is the subject of Commercial Intimacy Its chapters explore the broad theme of commercial intimacy that is market based feelings of spatial and emotional closeness in US consumer culture from the mid nineteenth century to the late twentieth century They show how experiences of intimacy have been orchestrated by marketers operating at a variety of distances from the face to face solicitations made by retail clerks and direct sales agents to the long distance appeals made by mail order merchants print and TV advertisers telemarketers and e commerce platforms The volume pays especially close attention to how these revenue minded acts of ingratiation worked how they were shaped by the technologies behind them and how they capitalized on contemporary dynamics of gender and sexuality At the heart of this volume then is the question of how our understanding of business history changes when we take the emotional sensational and affective dynamics of intimacy to be foundational elements of commercial persuasion Contributors Samuel Backer Jennifer M Black Donna J Drucker Isabelle Marina Held Julie A Johnson Lindsay Mitchell Keiter Stephanie Kolberg Brenton J Malin Cynthia B Meyers Richard K Popp Nicole E Weber Wendy A Woloson The Globalization of Space John Miller, 2015-10-06 The work of Michel Foucault has been influential in the analysis of space in a variety of disciplines most notably in geography and politics This collection of essays is the first to focus on what Foucault termed heterotopias spaces that exhibit multiple layers of meaning and reveal tensions within society Lycra Kaori O'Connor, 2011-04-06 The Anthropology of Stuff is part of a new Series dedicated to innovative unconventional ways to connect undergraduate students and their lived concerns about our social world to the power of social science ideas and evidence Our goal with the project is to help spark social science imaginations and in doing so new avenues for meaningful thought and action Each Stuff title is a short 100 page mini text illuminating for students the network of people and activities that create their material world Lycra describes the development of a specific fabric but in the process provides students with rare insights into U S corporate history the changing image of women in America and how a seemingly doomed product came to occupy a position never imagined by its inventors and contained in the wardrobe of virtually every American And it will generate lively discussion of the story of the relationship between technology science and society over the past half a century Made to Break Giles Slade, 2009-06-30 Made to Break is a history of twentieth century technology as seen through the prism of obsolescence Giles Slade explains how disposability was a necessary condition for America's rejection of tradition and our acceptance of change and impermanence This book gives us a detailed and harrowing picture of how by choosing to support ever shorter product lives we may well be shortening the future of our way of life as well Inside the Westminster Menswear Archive Andrew Groves, Danielle Sprecher, 2024-04-18 Inside the Westminster Menswear Archive is a unique guide to the role of garment archives as an industry resource for designers to research and examine both historical garments and the work of their peers With exclusive access to over 120 key garments from the Westminster Menswear Archive spanning the last 275 years each piece is brilliantly photographed in close up detail and annotated with curator commentary to inspire new generations of designers Highlights include garments from A COLD WALL Ahluwalia Aitor Throup Studio Alexander McQueen Belstaff Bernhard Willhelm Burberry Casely Hayford C P Company Carol Christian Poell Comme des Garçons Craig Green Dior Men Fred Perry Helmut Lang Hussein Chalayan Jean Paul Gaultier Junya Watanabe Louis Vuitton Martine Rose Meadham Kirchhoff Nigel Cabourn Paul Smith Prada Stone Island Umbro Undercover Vexed Generation and Vollebak Glamour Professor Carol Dyhouse, 2013-04-04 How do we understand glamour Has it empowered women or turned them into objects Once associated with modernity and the cutting edge is it entirely bound up with nostalgia and tradition This unique and fascinating book tells the story of glamour It explores the changing meanings of the word its relationship to femininity and fashion and its place in twentieth century social history Using a rich variety of sources from women s magazines and film to social surveys and life histories Carol Dyhouse examines with wit and insight the history and meaning of costume cosmetics perfume and fur Dyhouse disentangles some of the arguments surrounding femininity appearance and power directly addressing feminist concerns The book explores historical contexts in which glamour served as an expression of desire in women and an assertion of entitlement to the pleasures of affluence finally arguing that glamour can t simply be dismissed as oppressive or as male fantasy but can carry celebratory meanings for women

An Introduction to Design and Culture Penny Sparke,2013 This third edition of An Introduction to Design and Culture has been revised and updated throughout to include issues of globalization sustainability and digital interactive design New for this edition is a chapter which covers key changes in design culture Design culture has changed dramatically in the 21st century the designer hero is now much less in evidence and design has become much more interdisciplinary Drawing on a wealth of mass produced artefacts images and environments including sewing machines cars televisions clothes electronic and branded goods and exhibitions author Penny Sparke shows how design has helped to shape and reflect our social and cultural development This introduction to the development of modern and postmodern design is ideal for undergraduate students

The Aesthetics of Nostalgia TV Alex Bevan,2019-02-07 The Aesthetics of Nostalgia TV explores the aesthetic politics of nostalgia for 1950s and 60s America on contemporary television Specifically it looks at how nostalgic TV production design shapes and is shaped by larger historical discourses on gender and technological change and America s perceived decline as a global power Alex Bevan argues that the aesthetics of nostalgic TV tell stories of their own about historical decline and progress and the place of the baby boomer television suburb in American national memory She contests theories on nostalgia that see it as stagnating regressive or a reversion to outdated gender and racial politics and the technophobic longing for a bygone era and instead argues nostalgia is an important form of historical memory and vehicle for negotiating periods of historical transition The book addresses how and why the shows construct the boomer era as a placeholder for gender racial technological and declensionist discourses of the present The book uses Mad Men AMC 2007 2015 Ugly Betty ABC 2006 2010 Desperate Housewives ABC 2004 2012 and film remakes of 1950s and 60s family sitcoms as primary case studies
