Our Vision And Values Women Shaping The 21st Century:

Our Vision and Values Frances Cornwall Hutner, 1994 This book covers issues critical to women issues of women's participation in the economy in business management in politics and government and in the community's spiritual life It discusses how women can evaluate and control the various risks that confront them and their families it investigates sexism in language and gender issues in literature it shows how feminist psychotherapy has been developing and its future role and promise and it discusses women's sexuality and how women can define and accept their sexual identity The unique feature of this book is that it clearly shows women live in a world whose every aspect has been defined by men The writers help women understand what the present situation of women is how it became that way and how they can take control of their lives in the future The authors of this collection of essays all of them important participants in shaping the feminist history of the past few decades have a vision of the 21st century that recognizes women's contributions and is concerned about women's values

Making Sense of Women's Lives , Lauri Umansky, Michele Plott, 2000-08-01 Making Sense of Women's Lives presents a wide range of writings about women's lives in the United States Michele Plott and Lauri Umansky have drawn on their experiences as both students and professors to assemble the collection Seeking to provide as full a sampling from a diverse and intellectually vibrant field as one volume permits the editors have also chosen writing that makes an enjoyable read A few of the selections here represent the undisputed classics of the field More of them constitute simply the works drawn from academic and nonacademic sources alike that could make a difference in understanding what it means to be female in America Making Sense of Women's Lives is intended as the primary text in Women's Studies courses With that usage in mind Plott and Umansky have provided brief introductions to each article to help students understand the author's perspectives Thought and discussion questions follow each selection The book contains as well numerous Flash Exercises suggestions for class exercises and activities The editors have used these activities in their courses over the past decade in conjunction with readings in this volume and have found that the full complement of materials coalesces into an intellectually powerful introduction to Women's Studies A Collegiate Press book

When Women Lead Cindy Simon Rosenthal, 1998-08-27 Until recently the study of legislative leadership has been the study of men Scholars have taught students that legislative leadership is transactional a kind of competitive bargaining procedure to broker particular interests When Women Lead Integrative Leadership in State Legislatures brings to light the important contributions that women as legislative leaders make to the institutions in which they operate Cindy Simon Rosenthal shows us how and where women are integrating the ranks of the legislative hierarchy a forum in which they have been all but absent She also argues that women are doing leadership in an innovative inclusive style that subtly redefines both the appearance and meaning of political leadership Contradicting the assumption that legislative leadership is inherently transactional Rosenthal posits an integrative style emphasizing collaboration shared problem solving and consensus Further she argues that women committee chairs come to their roles from different life experiences and so employ motivations tactics and visions of leadership that differ in important ways from their male counterparts Her findings suggest that women tend to see political leadership as something more than the act of satisfying particular interests This study of women who chair state legislative committees examines one of America's largest cohorts of women in institutional leadership roles thus making an important contribution to our understanding of gender organizational leadership and state legislatures Rosenthal ably demonstrates that legislatures are not gender neutral and that legislative leadership must be understood within a gendered context Numbers and power therefore constitute critical variables throughout this study While stereotyping has not disappeared in some states women across the country as illustrated in When Women Lead are effectively redefining the framework and the assumptions central to political leadership in other locales Cahiers de la Femme ,1978 Collections ,2009 Life and Death Under High Technology Medicine Ian Robinson,1994 The proceedings of a colloquium at Brunel the University of West London at which British American Canadian and Australian scholars and practitioners of specialized fields reflect on how developments at the frontiers of medicine are challenging conventional ideas about when life begins and ends and about the possibilities between The 16 papers go beyond the ethical dilemmas for individuals to consider how high technology medicine is changing our understanding of the nature of kinship social life and cultural identity through such practices as the new genetics and organ transplants Distributed by St Martin's Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR Feminists Who Changed America, 1963-1975 Barbara J.
