Photography and the USA Mick Gidley, 2010-11-15 From Ansel Adams to Carleton Watkins Diane Arbus to Weegee Richard Avedon to James VanDerZee American photographers have recorded their vast multicultural nation in images that for more than a hundred years have come to define the USA In Photography and the USA Mick Gidley explores not only the medium of photography and the efforts to capture key events and moments through photographs but also the many ways in which the medium has played a formative role in American culture Photography and the USA encompasses the major movements figures and works that are crucial to understanding American photography but also pays attention to more obscure aspects of photography's history Focusing on works that reveal many different facets of America its landscapes and its people Gidley explores the ambiguities of American history and culture We encounter images that range from an anti lynching demo in 1934 to Dorothea Lange's poster All races serve the crops in California an early photographic view of Niagara Falls against the painstaking detail of Edward Weston's Pepper No 30 a fireman's fight in the San Francisco earthquake of 1906 to the Ground Zero images of 2001 by Joel Meyerowitz an 1890s Wanted image to Elliot Erwitt's shot of the Nixon Krushchev Kitchen Debate Organizing his narrative around the themes of history technology the document and the emblem Mick Gidley not only presents a history of photography but also reveals the complexities inherent in reading photographs themselves A concise yet comprehensive overview of photography in the United States this book is an excellent introduction to the subject for American Studies or visual arts students or for anyone interested in US history or culture

Paul Strand, 1997 Aspects of Modernism Andreas Fischer, Martin Heusser, Thomas Herrmann, 1997 Paul Strand Anne M. Lyden, Weston J. Naef, J. Paul Getty Museum, 2005 Paul Strand 1890-1976 defined twentieth century American photography in a prolific career that spanned more than sixty years His photographs explore the abstract and dynamic qualities found in the natural world search for humanity in portraits of people and places and document the experience of life itself Highlighting the development of the photographer's aesthetic from his early encounters with Cubism to his humanistic depictions of people throughout the world this book presents nearly forty years of Strand's wide ranging and powerful work In Focus Paul Strand is published to coincide with an exhibition of the photographer's work at the Getty Museum in Los Angeles from May 10 through September 4 2005 Commentaries on the pictures along with an introduction and chronology of Strand's life are provided by Anne Lyden associate curator of photographs at the Getty Museum The book also includes an edited transcript of a colloquium on Strand's work that incorporates Lyden's contributions along with those of five other participants David Featherstone a freelance writer and editor Weston Naef curator of photographs at the Getty Museum Naomi Rosenblum independent scholar Mark Ruwedel photographer and professor of photography at California State University Long Beach and Alan Trachtenberg Neil Gray Jr Professor Emeritus of English and American Studies at Yale University

The Focal Encyclopedia of Photography Michael R. Peres, 2013-05-29 This volume is a complete revision of the 1996 third edition shares the ever changing breadth of photographic topics with a special emphasis on digital imaging and contemporary issues Produced by an international team of photographic and imaging experts with collaboration from the George Eastman House the world s oldest photography museum this fourth edition contains essays and photographic reproductions sharing information where photography and imaging serve a primary role ranging from the atomic to the cosmic Paul Strand Robert Adams,1990 Bundel opstellen over de Amerikaanse fotograaf 1890 1976 Full Bloom Hunter Drohojowska-Philp,2011-10-03 The definitive life of O Keeffe Hilton Kramer Los Angeles Times Georgia O Keeffe 1887 1986 was one of the most successful American artists of the twentieth century her arresting paintings of enormous intimately rendered flowers desert landscapes and stark white cow skulls are seminal works of modern art But behind O Keeffe s bold work and celebrity was a woman misunderstood by even her most ardent admirers This large finely balanced biography offers an astonishingly honest portrayal of a life shrouded in myth Real Fantasies Patricia Johnston,2023-11-15 During the 1920s and 1930s Edward Steichen was the most successful photographer in the advertising industry Although much has been said about Steichen s fine art photography his commercial work which appeared regularly in Vanity Fair Vogue Ladies Home Journal and almost every other popular magazine published in the United States has not received the attention it deserves At a time when photography was just beginning to replace drawings as the favored medium for advertising Steichen helped transform the producers of such products as Welch s grape juice and Jergens lotion from small family businesses to national household names In this book Patricia Johnston uses Steichen s work as a case study of the history of advertising and the American economy between the wars She traces the development of Steichen s work from an early naturalistic style through increasingly calculated attempts to construct consumer fantasies By the 1930s alluring images of romance and class developed in collaboration with agency staff and packaged in overtly manipulative and persuasive photographs became Steichen s stock in trade He was most frequently chosen by agencies for products targeted toward women his images depicted vivacious singles earnest new mothers and other stereotypically female life stages that reveal a great deal about the industry s perceptions of and pitches to this particular audience Johnston presents an intriguing inside view of advertising agencies drawing on an array of internal documents to reconstruct the team process that involved clients art directors account executives copywriters and photographers Her book is a telling chronicle of the role of mass media imagery in reflecting shaping and challenging social values in American culture During the 1920s and 1930s Edward Steichen was the most successful photographer in the advertising industry Although much has been said about Steichen s fine art photography his commercial work which appeared regularly in Vanity Fair Vogue Ladies Ho Manly Arts David A Gerstner,2006-03-06 *DIV*Examines the anxieties of class and race and the conflicts between New and Old Worlds that attend the elevation of masculinity as a defining characteristic of early American cinema and visual culture div Visions from America Whitney Museum of American Art,Sylvia Wolf,Andy Grundberg,2002 From the street photographs of the 1950s and 1960s to the postmodern imagery of the 1980s from photography that addressed identity politics in the early 1990s to the new imaging technologies of the last decade photography has been at the forefront of artistic innovation in America As this volume demonstrates its capacity for personal expression for telling stories and for documenting facts makes it a medium of eloquence relevance and lasting power The Whitney Museum of American Art which possesses the single most comprehensive collection of twentieth and twenty first century American art has in recent years concentrated on expanding its photography collection Representing the work of more than forty artists this volume of over 160 photographs highlights the Whitney s collection and provides photographic visions made by artists living and working in the United States from 1940 to 2000 Accompanying a major exhibition at the Whitney this catalogue offers portraits landscapes streetscapes and genre subjects from both emerging and well known photographers including Diane Arbus Harry Callahan William Eggleston Lee Friedlander Nana Golding Mary Ellen Mark Joel Meyerowitz Cindy Sherman Joel Sternfeld Brett Weston and Garry Winogrand Italian Neorealist

Photography Antonella Russo,2021-12-30 This book offers an analysis of the socio historical conditions of the rise of postwar Italian photography considers its practices and outlines its destiny Antonella Russo provides an incisive examination of Neorealist photography delineates its periodization traces its instances and its progressive popularization and subsequent co optation that occurred with the advent of the industrialization of photographic magazines This volume examines the ethnographic missions of Ernesto De Martino in the deep South of Italy the key role played by the Neorealist writer and painter Carlo Levi as ambassador of international photography and the journeys of David Seymour Henry Cartier Bresson and Paul Strand in Neorealist Italy The text includes an account the formation and proliferation of Italian photographic associations and their role in institutionalizing and promoting Italian photography their link to British and other European photographic societies and the subsequent decline of Neorealism It also considers the inception of non objective photography that thrived soon after the war in concurrence with the circulation of Neorealism thus debunking the myth identifying all Italian postwar photography with the Neorealist image This book will be particularly useful for scholars and students in the history and theory of photography and Italian history The New Vision Maria Morris Hambourg,Christopher Phillips,1989

A broad historical study of the provocative innovations of European and American photography between the World Wars Presents more than 160 images from the Ford Motor Company Collection of photographs Ansel Adams Mary Street Alinder,2014-11-04 Traces the life and career of Ansel Adams including his childhood in San Francisco his marriage and affairs his relationship with the Native Americans of Yosemite and the influences on his photography and painting of western landscapes
