Falvo,2005 A comprehensive text that provides easy to understand explanations of medical aspects of common chronic illnesses and disabilities Coaching Psychology for Mental Health Martin O'Connor,Hugh O'Donovan,2021-09-21 Traditionally coaching psychologists have worked with people who aren t experiencing significant mental distress or have diagnosed mental illness This book describes an innovative and challenging project of bringing coaching psychology to the lived experience of individuals with a diagnosed mental illness Borderline Personality Disorder BPD The authors present a case for why coaching psychology needs to be constructively challenged to broaden its base and be more inclusive and of service to people experiencing BPD in particular. The book describes a coaching interaction involving coaching psychologists and a number of individuals with BPD who had completed a behavioural skills programme. Dialectical Behaviour Therapy (DBT) It explores the epistemological and practice tensions involving the dominance of clinical recovery/elimination of symptoms in mental health services and personal or psychological recovery originating in the narratives of people with a diagnosis of mental illness who yearn to live a life worth living. This book, written amidst the Covid 19 pandemic, makes a compelling case for coaching psychologists to engage with the philosophy and practice implications of personal recovery at both professional and personal levels. It will be vital reading for those engaged in coaching psychology and for the education, training and continuous professional development of coaches and coaching psychologists.
