Ragas Of Longing The Poetry Of Michael Ondaatje:

Ragas of Longing Sam Solecki,2003-01-01 Solecki suggests that Ondaatje s poetry can be seen as constituting a relatively unified personal canon that has evolved with each book building on its predecessor while simultaneously preparing the groundwork for the following volume Michael Ondaatje Lee Spinks,2013-07-19 Michael Ondaatje is the first comprehensive and fully up to date study of Ondaatje s entire oeuvre Starting from Ondaatje s beginnings as a poet this volume offers an intensive account of each of his major publications including The Collected Works of Billy the Kid Coming Through Slaughter In The Skin of a Lion and The English Patient drawing attention to the various contexts and intertexts that have informed his work The book contains a broad overview of Ondaatje s career for students and readers coming to his work for the first time It also offers an original reading of his writing which significantly revises conventional accounts of Ondaatje as a postmodern or postcolonial writer As the fullest account of Ondaatje s work to date Spinks s approach draws on a range of postcolonial theory and as well as being a landmark in Ondaatje scholarship makes a distinctive contribution to debates about postcolonial literature and the poetics of postmodernism Making and Seeing Modern Texts Jonathan Locke

Hart,2018-07-04 Making and Seeing Modern Texts explores the poetics of texts through a close reading and analysis across the genres of poetry drama fiction non fiction travel literature and theory This volume demonstrates that prose as much as poetry share the making and seeing of language literary practice and theory Genre then is presented as a guide that crosses multiple boundaries This volume selects different ways to examine texts discussing Michael Ondaatje s early poetry and examining narrative in Philip Roth s The Human Stain The book examines images in poetry narrative in fiction prefaces in non fiction metatheatre in drama and attempts to see the modern and postmodern in theory all of which show us the complexities of modernity or later modernity One of the innovations is that the author a literary critic theorist poet and historian takes his training in practice and theory and shows through examples of each how language operates across genres

Between Homelands in Michael Ondaatje's Fiction Julie Mehta,Harish Mehta,2024-09-13 Between Homelands in Michael Ondaatje s Fiction is a comprehensive study of the novels of the Sri Lankan Canadian author and poet Michael Ondaatje This survey of the Booker Prize winning novelist s works locates him as a powerful voice that urges globalization and multiculturalism in a world that is closing its borders It reconnoitres Ondaatje s search for a homeland by cracking open the core of his evocative inventive and innovative concepts that undergird his art of storytelling The contributors in this volume examine themes such as literary cosmopolitanism Sri Lankan identity diasporic identity race and racism home and belonging trauma in the Sri Lankan civil war war games and uncertainty theory An important contribution to Ondaatje studies the book is an indispensable resource for students and researchers of Sri Lankan literature diasporic and world literatures South Asian and Canadian studies cultural studies postcolonial fiction and history Michael Ondaatje: Haptic Aesthetics and Micropolitical Writing Milena Marinkova,2011-07-14 This study of selected literary and cinematic works by Michael Ondaatje investigates the political potential of the Canadian author's aesthetics. Contributing to current debates about affect and representation ideology critique and the artwork trauma and testimony, this book uses the concept of the haptic to demonstrate how Ondaatje's multisensory fluid and historically inflected writing can forge an enabling relationship between audience, author, and text. This is where Ondaatje's micropolitics, often misconstrued as ideologically suspect aestheticism, emerges a praxis that intimates how one can write and read politically with a difference.

Do You Want to Be Happy and Write? Robert Lecker, 2023-09-01 Michael Ondaatje has achieved international prominence and recognition in a way that few other writers have let alone Canadian writers. This popularity is most pronounced for works of historical fiction such as The English Patient, winner of the Golden Man Booker Prize, and In the Skin of a Lion, set in 1930s Toronto, shortlisted for the Governor General's Award and winner of the Canada Reads competition in 2002. But Ondaatje has been writing for over fifty years, and his innovative works include some of the most accomplished poetry in the English-speaking world. Taking its title from a question in his poem Tin Roof, Do You Want to Be Happy and Write reassesses Ondaatje's writing and the role of the poet from his troubled explorations of the self-reflexive artist to his most recent novels. Comprehensive in both approach and coverage, this new collection offers groundbreaking analysis informed by an understanding of Ondaatje's entire oeuvre, placing early poetry collections like The Collected Works of Billy the Kid and There's a Trick with a Knife I'm Learning to Do alongside the full range of his novels and his extensive work as a literary editor. The book highlights the transnational, postcolonial, and diasporic issues that have become increasingly apparent in Ondaatje's work. Contributors explore key interests that have reappeared and been rethought across his fiction and poetry: the construction of identity, the nature of memory and its relation to family origins and history, the human body as a site of contestation and struggle, the contrast between Eastern and Western values and the Southeast Asian diaspora, the writer's responsibility in depictions of war, psychic trauma, and genocide, and an ongoing fascination with the visual and the media of photography and film. An eclectic celebration of an iconic author, Do You Want to Be Happy and Write offers an authoritative reference point for scholars and students of literature and reveals new facets of a major author to his readers around the world.

Not Needing All the Words Annick Hillger, 2006-05-26 Reading selected texts by Michael Ondaatje, including the novels In the Skin of a Lion and The English Patient and the poem Birch Bark, Annick Hillger demonstrates how his writing both answers and challenges attempts to delineate the idea of a Canadian national self. She sets Ondaatje's work within the context of theoretical and philosophical ideas, developing the notion of a literature of silence concerned with finding a ground for self beyond the realm of language.

The Metaphor of Celebrity Joel Deshayé, 2013-01-01 The Metaphor of Celebrity is an exploration of the significance of literary celebrity in Canadian poetry. It focuses on the lives and writing of four widely recognized authors who wrote about stardom: Leonard Cohen, Michael Ondaatje, Irving Layton, and Gwendolyn MacEwen, and the specific moments in Canadian history that affected the ways in which they were received by the broader public. Joel Deshayé elucidates the relationship between literary celebrity and metaphor in the identity crises of celebrities who must try to balance their public and private selves in the face of considerable publicity He also examines the ways in which celebrity in Canadian poetry developed in a unique way in light of the significant cultural events of the decades between 1950 and 1980 including the Massey Commission the flourishing of Canadian publishing and the considerable interest in poetry in the 1960s and 1970s which was followed by a rapid fall from public grace as poetry was overwhelmed by greater popular interest in Canadian novels Publisher website Canadian Literature in English W. writing privileging an Indian Ocean imaginary that is transnational and cross oceanic in its orientation and pointing to networks of connections that transcend the nation state which is often the origin of trauma in the first place Filling a gap in Indian Ocean studies in its close readings of trauma and resilience the book also broadens perspectives on postcolonial life writing since little attention has been paid so far to Indian Ocean autobiographical literary products By the same token the volume also enriches the field of Indian Ocean literary studies by incorporating life writing as an aesthetic strategy which helps to configure Indian Ocean subjectivities

Analog Fictions for the Digital Age Julia Breitbach, 2012 Shows how current photographic discourse can illuminate the analysis of recent literary realism and proposes a truly original photographic hermeneutics for literary study Both realist post postmodernist aesthetics in the twenty first century and the legacy of analog photography in its recent digital incarnation depend on an aesthetics of trust and a sense of contingent referentiality Julia Breitbach's innovative study demonstrates how current photographic discourse may be used as an illuminating critical idiom for the analysis of recent forms of literary realism thus proposing a photographic hermeneutics for the study of literature Along with a thorough critical investigation of both fields Breitbach offers a pioneering theoretical exploration of analog and digital photography based on recent thing theory which she then applies to in depth analyses of realist aesthetics in selected post millennial novels by Don DeLillo Michael Ondaatje and Ali Smith yielding fresh perspectives on the remediation between photography and literature in the twenty first century An original contribution to the study of contemporary Anglophone literatures with an interdisciplinary appeal this study will be of interest especially to scholars and students in Anglophone literary studies comparative literature cultural studies and media studies Julia Breitbach is Assistant Professor in the Department of American Studies at the University of Konstanz Germany

History of Literature in Canada Reingard M. Nischik, 2008 The development of literature in Canada with an eye to its multicultural multiethnic multilingual nature From modest colonial beginnings literature in Canada has arrived at the center stage of world literature Works by English Canadian writers both established writers such as Margaret Atwood and new talents such as Yann Martel make regular appearances on international bestseller lists French Canadian literature has also found its own voice in the North American and francophone worlds CanLit has likewise developed into a staple of academic interest pursued in Canadian Studies programs in Canada and around the world This volume draws on the expertise of scholars from Canada Germany Austria and France tracing Canadian literature from the indigenous oral tradition to the development of English Canadian and French Canadian literature since colonial times. Conceiving of Canada as a single but multifaceted culture, it accounts for specific characteristics of English and French Canadian literatures such as the vital role of the short story in English Canada or that of the chanson in French Canada. Yet special attention is also paid to Aboriginal literature and to the pronounced transcultural ethnically diverse character of much contemporary Canadian literature, thus moving clearly beyond the traditions of the two founding nations.

A Truffaut Notebook Sam Solecki, 2015-11-01

François Truffaut (1932-1984) ranks among the greatest film directors and has had a worldwide impact on filmmaking as a screenwriter, producer, film critic, and founding member of the French New Wave. His most celebrated films include The 400 Blows, Shoot the Piano Player, Jules and Jim, Day for Night, and The Last Metro. A Truffaut Notebook is a lively and eclectic introduction to the life and work of this major cinematic figure. In entries as brief as a page as well as in full-length essays, it examines topics such as Truffaut's mentors, the autobiographical nature of his films, his place in the film tradition, his film criticism, his reputation, his relationships with other directors, and the formal and thematic coherence of his body of work. Sam Solecki also argues for Truffaut's continuing appeal and relevance by examining his influence on filmmakers like Woody Allen, Noah Baumbach, Alexander Payne, Patrice Leconte, and Jean-Pierre Jeunet, and on writers such as Julian Barnes, Ann Beattie, and Salman Rushdie. Because the book returns regularly to the author's shifting responses to Truffaut's work over the last fifty years, it also offers an autobiographical meditation on his own lifelong fascination with film. Consisting of over eighty short entries and essays, as well as provocative lists, dreams, and quizzes, A Truffaut Notebook is an original and exciting text and a model of passionate engagement with cinema.

Autobiographies of Others Lucia Boldrini, 2012-08-21

In this volume, Boldrini examines heterobiography, the first-person fictional account of a historic life. Boldrini shows that this mode is widely employed to reflect critically on the historical and philosophical understanding of the human individual, identity, and on the power relationships that define the subject. In such texts, the grammatical first person becomes the site of an encounter, a stage where the relationships between historical, fictional, and authorial subjectivities are played out and explored. In the double I of author and narrating historical character, of fictional narrator and historical person, Boldrini considers the ethical implications of assuming another's first-person voice and the fraught issue of authorial responsibility. Constructions of the body are examined in relation to the material evidence of the subject's existence. Texts studied include Malouf's An Imaginary Life, Carey's True History of the Kelly Gang, Ondaatje's The Collected Works of Billy the Kid, and Adair's The Death of the Author.
