Interstate Commerce Commission, 1977 Southern Idaho Ghost Towns Wayne C. Sparling, 1974 Distributed by the University of Nebraska Press for Caxton Press When mineral riches were found in southern Idaho boomtowns arose across this rugged land When the mining activity ceased these towns were quickly abandoned yet they still stand a testimony to the vagaries of life in the frontier in pursuit of gold and silver The Credit Monthly , 1927 Rail's End Nick Wright, 2015-12-23 When the American Civil War broke out fifteen year old Lucas Boone ran away from his home in Saline County Arkansas and eventually became a valued member of General N Bedford Forrests renowned Escort Company In the spring of 1863 before the battle at Brices Crossroads in eastern Mississippi General Forrest ordered Boone on a mission with his most talented and trusted scout Lieutenant Jubal Hazzard Neither man ever discovered why Forrest selected Boone to accompany Hazzard who preferred to work alone Attempting to return to Forrests headquarters with indispensable information a Union patrol discovered them Hazzard ordered Boone to return with their report he stayed to cover Boones escape Boone made it back Hazzard disappeared Following the war Boone returned home fueled by his dream to marry Sarah Ruth Panman and his desire to reconcile with his father and reconnect with his family He wanted nothing more than to live the remainder of his life as uncomplicated as the war years had been demanding It was not to be so simple When he arrived home he was nineteen years old highly skilled with most weapons an able horseman but all he knew was combat And he had to amend his long cherished plans And there was the nagging issue of Jubal Hazzard What happened to him Was he alive or dead In their short time together Boone felt a kinship with Hazzard a sense of emerging friendship if there had been an opportunity for one to develop He vowed to do all he could to discover what happened to the scout who sacrificed so much for Boones escape Interstate Commerce Commission Reports , 1965-11 The Ways of War: Idealism, Hope and Truth Tom Kettle, Mary Sheehy Kettle, 2021-04-01 The Ways of War is Kettle's autobiographical work which is based on the letters he was sending from the battlefield to his wife Mary Kettle was one of the most brilliant figures both in the Young Ireland and Young Europe of his time Tom Kettle an Irish economist journalist barrister writer war poet soldier and Home Rule politician joined the Irish Volunteers in 1913 With the outbreak of World War I in 1914 Tom was enlisted for service in the British Army with which he was killed in action on the Western Front in the Autumn of 1916 The opening chapters of the book reveal him as a Nationalist concerned about the liberty not only of Ireland but of every nation small and great After the chapters describing the inevitable sympathy of an Irishman with Serbia and Belgium little nations attacked by two Imperial bullies comes an account of the tragic scenes Kettle himself witnessed in Belgium where he served as a war correspondent in the early days of the war The book closes with Trade or Honour an appeal to the Allies to preserve high and disinterested motives in ending the war as in beginning it and to turn a deaf ear to those political hucksters to whom gain means more than freedom Thus The Ways of War is a book not only of patriotism but of international idealism Above all it is a passionate human document the apologia pro vita sua of a soldier who died for freedom Thunder and White Lightning Grace Hawthorne,2018-06-05 The Scots Irish who settled in the North Georgia mountains were as Margaret Mitchell would say people with gumption In Thunder and White Lightning readers meet two families and a host of real life characters who face the world head on with a quirky sense of humor and a hankering for adventure They find that red clay is only good for two things corn which they turn into moonshine to support their families and pay their taxes and dirt tracks which are perfect for racing hopped up whiskey cars stock cars and eventually for NASCAR The characters real and fictional are independent patriotic fractious funny and unpredictable but they are never boring They outrun revenueurs go to jail build new stills laugh and fall in love fight in WWII learn that prosperity isn't always easy bet their future on a second hand Plymouth and finally take the checkered flag with red dust flying In other words it's the Downton Abbey of North Georgia Whitaker's Cumulative Book List ,1964 The National Dream Pierre Berton,2011-06-22 In 1871 a tiny nation just four years old it's population well below the 4 million mark determined that it would build the world's longest railroad across empty country much of it unexplored This decision bold to the point of recklessness was to change the lives of every man woman and child in Canada and alter the shape of the nation Using primary sources diaries letters unpublished manuscripts public documents and newspapers Pierre Berton has reconstructed the incredible decade of the 1870s when Canadians of every stripe contractors politicians financiers surveyors workingmen journalists and entrepreneurs fought for the railway or against it The National Dream is above all else the story of people It is the story of George McMullen the brash young promoter who tried to blackmail the Prime Minister of Marcus Smith the crusty surveyor so suspicious of authority he thought the Governor General was speculating in railway lands of Sanford Fleming the great engineer who invented Standard Time but who couldn't make up his mind about the best route for the railway All these figures and dozens more including the political leaders of the era come to life with all their human ambitions and failings A Collection of Columns Rick T. Rae,2022-11-02 Book contains columns and observations published in various newspapers managed by Rick Rae during the course of his half century career in the business Book Review by Alice Queen of rockdalenewtoncitizen.com Rick Rae loves his family and loves his cars That much is clear from a reading of his second book A Collection of Columns a series of personal and observational essays the native of Canada whose newspaper management career spanned some 45 years has curated from a life well lived I've been writing columns here and there mostly internet stuff and a couple of folks noted that I've been writing them a long time and they're right I think I started back in 1974 said Rae 84 from his home in Loganville where he lives with Penny his wife of 62 years Several people suggested I package the best of them and put them in book form So I went ahead and did it Many of the pieces in Rae's new book detail his automotive obsession he bought the first of his 75 cars when he was 14 years old and a number of vacations taken by his family But the former publisher of the Rockdale Citizen Newton Citizen and Gwinnett Daily Post also delves into a host of other subjects including some inside baseball insights on the newspaper industry his thoughts on music and other significant and not so significant life moments Published by Indiana based AuthorHouse A Collection of Columns is Rae's follow up to his 2011 memoir Not Extinct Yet in which he details his many decades in newspapers Rae said he worried that the subject matter of some of the columns might seem a bit antiquated but he moved ahead with the project Unfortunately I've been at this so long that some of the columns are rather dated he said I love writing about personal experiences and the more I can get down on paper the better I'll like it although I'm getting kind of old I guess for personal experiences Two chapters particularly amusing to Rae were written in recent years for a Canadian publication for which he once worked One concerns teaming up with a co worker who was a successful pool shark and the other involved meeting a young singer who became one of country music's most beloved stars I wrote two recollection columns for a former employer in Canada they were about getting in a pool tournament and making more money than I had selling newspaper ads and also my meeting with Harold Jenkins who would later change his name to Conway Twitty he said I love to do that kind of stuff I've got a few of those in my background The book's final chapter was a column published in the Rockdale Citizen which by then had a companion paper in Newton County and the Gwinnett Daily Post on June 28 2006 the day he retired When asked if he had plans for any more books Rae said he's got something on the back burner that he might want to release One of my buddies in Canada who I grew up with is an author and makes a lot of money ghostwriting for Canadian politicians it seems like everybody in Canada wants to have a book out he said He suggested that I combine my love of cars and my love of music and do some kind of book about cars and songs I've been thinking that might be a way to go It's been in the back of my mind One story that may well wind up in another book takes place during the time Rae managed a newspaper in the suburbs of Detroit and saw an up and coming performer that left an impression that remains today I've never written about my times with Bob Seger when I worked in Pontiac Mich he said When I worked there every Friday we'd go across the road to a bowling alley that had a lounge and the guy playing there was Bob Seger We'd listen to him until they shut the bar down at 2 in the morning the whole newspaper used to come over and hear him perform Canadian Pacific Ships Ian Collard,2022-05-12 In 1873 a company was formed to construct the first railway across Canada It soon branched out into shipping chartering ships from the Cunard Line for service between Vancouver Yokohama Shanghai and Hong Kong In 1889 Canadian Pacific would be awarded the mail contract for the service across the Pacific and by 1903 they would purchase Elder Dempster Company and begin sailing from Liverpool to Quebec and Montreal They obtained control of the Atlantic rail and Pacific routes and later interest in the Canadian Australasian Line becoming the world s greatest transportation system bridging two oceans and linking four continents Canada s largest operator of Atlantic and Pacific steamships until after the Second World War CP Ships boasted such names as Empress of Britain Empress of Ireland and Empress of Canada This new history of the shipping side of Canadian Pacific includes a wealth of illustrations and a detailed fleet list that will enthral maritime enthusiasts General Catalogue of Printed Books British Museum.
