A Regional History of the Railways of Great Britain

David St. John Thomas,1990 Spirit of Northern Rails David Goodyear,2024-04-30 This book endeavours to capture the very essence of the railways in the northern UK exploring in photographs their imprint upon the landscape Railways are illustrated as they traverse the bleak fells pass by traditional cotton mills and industrial heritage stride over iconic viaducts crossing vast windswept valleys and coastal estuaries and as they share the grandeur of iconic cathedrals of both religious and railway station designs while not forgetting the intricate network of canals intertwining with the rails that eventually carried the very traffic that kept these waterways in use Here is a personal selection which I trust helps explore all that characterises and reveals the moods and atmosphere which conjure the heart and Spirit of railways traversing our northern climes Locomotives train designs and liveries past and present will help recall the rails of the 1980 s and 90 s and offer an interesting contrast to the more modern images of the present millennium With a mix of traction and train fleets both in use on passenger and freight consists this selection of images reveals their participation in capturing the heart of railways in the north Readers are invited to share this fascinating adventure and indeed the inherent Northern Spirit which permeates throughout such a journey

I Hate the Lake District Charlie Gere,2019-10-08 An alternative view of the North West of England that delves into its stranger past I Hate the Lake District offers a different vision of the rural environment from those found in much contemporary nature writing Based on the author's trips around North West England the book engages with nuclear power and nuclear war slavery imperialism ghosts love God cockroaches and the sheer violence and contingency of nature itself of which the human presence is merely a part Each chapter starts with an account of a visit to a place in this remote part of England the deep north but digresses and wanders through multifarious themes and subjects Among the sites Gere visits are the defunct nuclear power station at Sellafield home of all British nuclear waste Lake Coniston where Donald Campbell died trying to break the water speed record Hadrian's Wall furthestmost reach of the Roman Empire the mysterious and deathly Morecambe Bay sites of slavery in the North West places where UFOs have been sighted avant garde artists created work and Islamic terrorists trained shantytowns where the navvies who built the railways lived with their families and even the remains of Blobbyland in Morecambe In I Hate the Lake District Gere challenges the bourgeois pastoralism of popular nature writing and reveals the landscape of North West England as profoundly unnatural and strange

My Real Children Jo Walton, 2014-05-20 It's 2015 and Patricia Cowan is very old Confused today read the notes clipped to the end of her bed She forgets things she should know what year it is major events in the lives of her children But she remembers things that don't seem possible She remembers marrying Mark and having four children And she remembers not marrying Mark and raising three children with Bee instead She remembers the bomb that killed President Kennedy in 1963 and she remembers Kennedy in 1964 declining to run again after the nuclear exchange that took out Miami and Kiev Her childhood her years at Oxford during the Second World War those were solid things But after that did she marry Mark or not Did her friends all call her Trish or Pat Had she been a housewife who escaped a terrible marriage after her children were grown or a successful travel writer with homes in Britain and Italy And the moon outside her window does it host a benign research station or a command post bristling with nuclear missiles Two lives two worlds two versions of modern history each with their loves and losses their sorrows and triumphs Jo Walton's My Real Children is the tale of both of Patricia Cowan's lives and of how every life means the entire world At the Publisher's request this title is being sold without Digital Rights Management Software DRM applied

Signal Boxes and Semaphores Gordon D. Webster, 2016-11-15 Explores the decline of mechanical signalling in the UK Britain's Railways Through the Seasons David Goodyear, 2023-01-31 The four seasons pass by like a gliding ship each signalled by a transformation of changing colors and hues of light thus providing a form of marker to these passages of time Living in the temperate zone we experience four distinct seasons The railway scene reflects such in its own special character cold winter air enhances the bountiful steam escaping from the hissing steam locomotive impatiently awaiting its departure while autumn enchants with trees that exude a variety of hues which embellish any image of even the most mundane suburban train Springtime blossom and wild flowers bestow railway cuttings with a bounty of generous bright colors while coastal railways often look most inviting on warm sunny days as they pass alongside azure seas and golden beaches The seasons each add their own dimension for the photographer to encapsulate and railways passing through the ever changing landscape provide their own tribute to this inspirational tapestry As readers travel through each season so they are invited to share this awe and constant source of inspiration from nature s kaleidoscope of color Photographs are provided with captions and reflective commentary to enlighten the knowledgeable rail enthusiast alongside those who equally enjoy such a portrait of landscape and scenery through the seasons The range of photographs ranges from the mid 1980 s to the present with the majority from the last two decades
