Asian American Poets Guiyou Huang, 2002-05-30 Even though Asian American literature is enjoying an impressive critical popularity attention has focused primarily on longer narrative forms such as the novel And despite the proliferation of a large number of poets of Asian descent in the 20th century Asian American poetry remains a neglected area of study Poetry as an elite genre has not reached the level of popularity of the novel or short story partly due to the difficulties of reading and interpreting poetic texts The lack of criticism on Asian American poetry speaks to the urgent need for scholarship in this area since perhaps more than any other genre poetry most forcefully captures the intense feelings and emotions that Asian Americans have experienced about themselves and their world This reference book overviews the tremendous cultural contributions of Asian American poets Included are alphabetically arranged entries on 48 American poets of Asian descent most of whom have been active during the latter half of the 20th century Each entry begins with a short biography which sometimes includes information drawn from personal interviews The entries then discuss the poet's major works and themes including such concerns as family racism sexism identity language and politics A survey of the poet's critical reception follows In many cases the existing criticism is scant and the entries offer new readings of neglected works The entries conclude with bibliographies of primary and secondary texts and the volume closes with a selected general bibliography

Gray Pete Wentz, James Montgomery, 2013-02-19 A fascinating and stunning novel from Pete Wentz the founder and bassist of punk sensation Fall Out Boy that reveals the dark side of rock and roll Sometimes late at night in the hotel room after the lights have gone out and the mistakes have already been made when it is heavy and silent and still I lie awake and listen to my pulse on the pillow Imagine you are on a tour bus the miles whistling away beneath you as you sleep Tomorrow you will wake up in downtown Somewhere It doesn t matter All the skylines look the same Time is only marked by events The world is on a first name basis with you But you you barely even know yourself There are those who give in completely to the idea of what it means to be famous And those who can t ever seem to leave the past behind Life is a deep and contemplative story stuck on repeat love loss self destruction self discovery If you could go back to the way things were before you made it would everything still be gray
