Matters of the Heart Rebekah Lanah Shashape, 2015-12-23. True love is hard to find, but finding a heart that will forgive you at your worst and an arm that will hold you at your weakest is finding true love. To have someone to love you is not a gift; it's a choice made by God. To have someone to love you back is a divine gift. Cherish and treasure it with all your heart. Some opportunities come only once. Live so that when you die, you will have lived. Without love, there is no living, for we will never know the true enjoyment of life unless all things we do are done with love. In our hearts and minds, it's hard to forget someone who gave you so much to remember. Appreciate what you have before it's gone, and don't let yourself realize what you have when it's gone. Love and let love lead. Love and let love rule things that love makes you do.

Among the Pigeons John L. Read, 2019-05-06. During the last century, global domestic cat numbers rocketed past 200 million, along with a surge in cat diseases and numbers of feral cats and sick injured and malnourished cats Cat shelters are overflowing Hundreds of thousands of cats are euthanised every year by despondent animal welfare workers Misplaced sentimentality sometimes promoted by corporate greed of cat food companies has exacerbated this situation through promoting irresponsible feeding of strays Ecologist and author John Read has travelled the world consulting cat experts and collating the most recent science In Among the Pigeons he balances the allure of indoor cats with the animal welfare human health and conservation issues they create when allowed to roam But he also presents solutions from breeding ideal indoor pet cats to development of humane and targeted tools to control feral cats In striking parallel to the repercussions of human induced climate change warnings about the damage wrought by free ranging cats have been largely denied or overlooked But we ignore these issues at our peril For our own mental health and endangered wildlife worldwide time is running out Nannu - No longer by my side..... but forever in my heart.....
