Raise The Red Lantern Three Novellas:

Raise the Red Lantern Tong Su, 1993 This collection of three novellas includes Nineteen Thirty Four Escapes Opium Family and Raise the Red Lantern upon which the Academy Award nominated film was based Raise the Red Lantern Su Tong, 2004-07-06 The brutal realities of the dark places Su Tong depicts in this collection of novellas set in 1930s provincial China worlds of prostitution poverty and drug addiction belie his prose of stunning and simple beauty The title novella Raise the Red Lantern which became a critically acclaimed film tells the story of Lotus a young woman whose father's suicide forces her to become the concubine of a wealthy merchant Crushed by loneliness despair and cruel treatment Lotus finds her descent into insanity both a weapon and a refuge Nineteen Thirty Four Escapes is an account of a family's struggles during one momentous year plagued by disease death and the shady promise of life in a larger town the family slowly disintegrates Finally Opium Family details the last years of a landowning clan whose demise is brought about by corruption lust and treachery fruits of the insidious crop they harvest Cultural Representations of the Second Wife Jo Parnell, 2023-12-11

Cultural Representation of the Second Wife Literature Stage and Screen is a multifaceted interdisciplinary cross cultural work that provides insights into the realities of second wives the world over This book allows the reader a three dimensional view of the second wife experience It asks What does it mean and what does it feel like to be a second wife in a polygamous union or in a monogamous partnership Is there a difference Together the writers in this book cleverly create an in depth study of the subject through the productions referred to in the title to offer a different approach to the popularly held views of the second wife The book addresses the intricacies customs practices and lifestyles of the various Eastern and Western cultures and demonstrates the abilities of the Humanities to connect and interrelate with other disciplines as well as with the reader's own world Visions of Dystopia in China's New Historical Novels Jeffrey C. Kinkley, 2014-11-04

The depiction of personal and collective suffering in modern Chinese novels differs significantly from standard Communist accounts and most Eastern and Western historical narratives Writers such as Yu Hua Su Tong Wang Anyi Mo Yan Han Shaogong Ge Fei Li Rui and Zhang Wei scramble common conceptions of China's modern development deploying avant garde narrative techniques from Latin American and Euro American modernism to project a surprisingly un-Chinese dystopian vision and critical view of human culture and ethics The epic narratives of modern Chinese fiction make rich use of magical realism surrealism and unusual treatments of historical time Also featuring graphic depictions of sex and violence and dark raunchy comedy these novels deeply reflect China's turbulent recent history re-presenting the overthrow of the monarchy in the early twentieth century and the resulting chaos of revolution and war the recurring miseries perpetrated by class warfare during the dictatorship of Mao Zedong and the social dislocations caused by China's industrialization and rise as a global power This book casts China's highbrow historical novels from the 1990s to the mid 2000s as a distinctively Chinese contribution to the form of the global dystopian novel and consequently to global thinking about the interrelations of utopia and dystopia

Bluebeard Casie Hermansson, 2009 Bluebeard is the main character in one of the grisliest and most enduring fairy tales A serial wife murderer he keeps a horror chamber in which remains of all his previous matrimonial victims are secreted from his latest bride She is given all the keys but forbidden to open one door of the castle This is a major study of the tale and its many variants in English from the 18th and 19th century chapbooks children s toybooks pantomimes melodramas and circus spectaculars to the 20th century in music literature art film and theatre Fictional Authors, Imaginary Audiences Bonnie S. McDougall, 2003 The authors and audiences for 20th century Chinese literature especially fiction are examined in a fresh light While modern Chinese fictions are imaginary in that they do not constitute reliable portraits of Chinese life they offer insights into the writers themselves and their implied audiences Secrets Beyond the Door Maria Tatar, 2006-10-03 Maria Tatar analyses the many forms the tale of Bluebeard s wife has taken over time showing how artists have taken the Bluebeard theme and revived it with their own signature twists Madwoman On The Bridge And Other Stories Su Tong, 2009-09-15 Set during the fall out of the Cultural Revolution these bizarre and delicate stories capture the collision of the old China of vanished dynasties with communism and today s tiger economy The mad woman on the bridge wears a historical gown which she refuses to take off In the height of summer she stands madly on the bridge Until a young female doctor bewitched by the beauty of the mad woman s dress plots to take it from her with tragic consequences Chinese Femininities/Chinese Masculinities Susan Brownell, Jeffrey N. Wasserstrom, 2002-01-07 Chinese Literature Lydia H Liu Adapted for the Screen Hsiu-Chuang Deppman, 2010-04-30 Contemporary Chinese films are popular with audiences worldwide but a key reason for their success has gone unnoticed many of the films are adapted from brilliant literary works This book is the first to put these landmark films in the context of their literary origins and explore how the best Chinese directors adapt fictional narratives and styles for film Hsiu Chuang Deppman unites aesthetics with history in her argument that the rise of cinema in China Hong Kong and Taiwan in the late 1980s was partly fueled by burgeoning literary movements Fifth Generation director Zhang Yimou s highly acclaimed films Red Sorghum Raise the Red Lantern and To Live are built on the experimental works of Mo Yan Su Tong and Yu Hua respectively Hong Kong new wave s Ann Hui and Stanley Kwan capitalized on the irresistible visual metaphors of Eileen Chang s postrealism Hou Xiaoxian s new Taiwan cinema turned to fiction by Huang Chunming and Zhu Tianwen for fine grained perspectives on class and gender relations Delving equally into the individual approaches of directors and writers Deppman initiates readers into the exciting possibilities emanating from the world of Chinese cinema The seven in depth studies include a diverse array of forms cinematic adaptation of literature literary adaptation of film auto adaptation and non narrative adaptation and a variety of genres martial arts melodrama romance autobiography documentary drama Complementing this formal diversity is a geographical range that far exceeds the cultural linguistic and physical boundaries of China The directors represented here also work in the U S and Europe and reflect the growing international resources of Chinese language cinema With her sophisticated blend of stylistic and historical analyses Deppman brings much needed nuance to current conversations about the politics of gender class and race in the work of the most celebrated Chinese writers and directors Her pioneering study will appeal to all readers general and academic who have an interest in Chinese literature cinema and culture Translating Chinese Fiction Tan

Yesheng,2024-06-28 Drawing on the cognitive translational paradigm this book introduces a situation embedded cognitive construction model of translation and explores the thinking portfolios of British and American sinologists cum translators to re examine their multiple voices and cognition in translating Chinese fiction By placing sinologists cum translators in the same discourse space the study transcends the limitations of previous case studies and offers a comprehensive cognitive panorama of how Chinese novels are rendered The author explores the challenges and difficulties of translating Chinese fiction from the insider perspectives of British and American sinologists and cross validates their multiple voices by aligning them with cross cultural communication scenarios Based on the cognitive construction model of translation the book provides a systematic review of the translation thoughts and ideas of the community of sinologists in terms of linguistic conventions narrative styles contextual and cultural frames readership categories and metaphorical models of translation It envisions a new research path to enhance empirical research on translators cognition in a dynamic translation ecosystem The title will be an essential read for students and scholars of translation studies and Chinese studies It will also appeal to translators and researchers interested in cognitive stylistics literary studies and intercultural communication studies Modern Chinese Literature ,1998

Contemporary Chinese Novels in Translation since 1978 Yun Wu,2024-10-14 This book aims to complement the traditional focus of translation studies which has primarily centered on translating English into other languages It presents a comprehensive analysis of the reverse translation trajectory exploring the movement of Chinese literature into the core English literary domain The book aims to explore the ideological and sociological dynamics that underlie the translation of contemporary Chinese novels This is achieved through an examination of the translation selection process translation paratexts and the roles of translation agents Case studies are employed to illustrate specific linguistic literary and cultural challenges within translation It dissects the cultural and literary implications of translating genres such as women s writing science fiction and Internet literature The argument presented is that the translation of peripheral literature is indispensable in shaping global literature Beyond its literary implications the book identifies the political significance inherent in such reverse translation endeavors It suggests that the translation of Chinese literature holds notable political interest for the Chinese government which aims to reshape China s image and bolster the nation s soft power through literary translation This work will be an essential read to students and scholars of translation studies comparative literature and Chinese studies Contemporary Chinese Fiction Writers Laifong Leung,2016-07-28 In the years since the death of Mao Zedong interest in Chinese writers and Chinese literature has risen significantly in the West In 2000 Gao Xingjian became the first Chinese writer to receive the Nobel Prize for Literature followed by Mo Yan in 2012 and writers such as Ha Jin and Da Sijie have also become well known in the West. Despite this progress, the vast majority of Chinese writers remain largely unknown outside of China. This book introduces the lives and works of eighty contemporary Chinese writers and focuses on writers from the Rightist generation (Bai Hua, Gao Xiaosheng, Liu Shaotang), writers of the Red Guard generation (Li Rui, Wang Anyi), Post-Cultural Revolution Writers, as well as others. Unlike earlier works, it provides detailed, often first-hand biographical information on this wide range of writers, including their career trajectories, major themes, and artistic characteristics. In addition to this, each entry includes a critical presentation and evaluation of the writer's major works, a selected bibliography of publications that includes works in Chinese, works translated into English, and critical articles and books available in English. Offering a valuable contribution to the field of contemporary Chinese literature by making detailed information about Chinese writers more accessible, this book will be of interest to students and scholars of Chinese Literature, Contemporary Literature, and Chinese Studies.

The Cambridge Companion to the Modern Gothic Jerrold E. Hogle, 2014-12-04 This Companion explores the Gothic across literature, film, television, and cyberspace, revealing how it has proliferated since 1900 as an expression of modernity. Essays examine the role of Gothic in major struggles of modern life over sex and gender, the intermixing of different cultures, and the very nature of modernity.

Liu Zaifu: Selected Critical Essays Zaifu Liu, 2021-06-17 Liu Zaifu is a name that has already been ingrained within contemporary Chinese literary history. This landmark volume presents Anglophone readers with Liu's profound reflections on Chinese literature and culture at different times. The essays collected here demonstrate Liu's historical experience and trajectory as an exiled Chinese intellectual who persistently safeguards the individuality and the autonomy of literature refusing to succumb to political manipulation Liu's theory of literary subjectivity has opened ways for Chinese writers to thrive and innovate His panoramic view not only unravels the intricate interplay between literature and politics but also firmly regards the transcendental value of literature as a significant ground to subvert revolutionary dogmatism and criticize Chinese modernity Rather than drawing upon the existing paradigm he reinvents his own unique theoretical conceptions in order to exile the borrowed gods The Literature of China in the Twentieth Century Bonnie S. McDougall, Kam Louie, 1997 A historical survey of 20th century Chinese literature this book chronicles the writers who continuing in the Chinese tradition of using literature to exert moral social and political leadership debated the nature development and future of Chinese society Encyclopedia of Contemporary Chinese Culture Edward Lawrence Davis, 2005 First Published in 2009 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Reel Food Anne L. Bower, 2012-08-06 Reel Food is the first book devoted to food as a vibrant and evocative element of film featuring original essays by major food studies scholars among them Carole Counihan and Michael Ashkenazi This collection reads various films through their uses of food from major food films like Babette's Feast and Big Night to less obvious choices including The Godfather trilogy and The Matrix The contributors draw attention to the various ways in which food is employed to make meaning in film In some cases such as Soul Food and Tortilla Soup for example food is used to represent racial and ethnic identities In other cases such as Chocolat and Like Water for Chocolate food plays a role in gender and sexual politics And of course there is also discussion of the centrality of popcorn to the movie going experience This book is a feast for scholars foodies and cinema buffs It will be of major interest to anyone working in popular culture film studies and food studies at both the undergraduate and graduate level
