Dialogue and the New Cosmopolitanism Fred Dallmayr, 2022-11-28 Dialogue and the New Cosmopolitanism Conversations with Edward Demenchonok stands in opposition to the doctrine that might makes right and that the purpose of politics is to establish domination over others rather than justice and the good life for all In the pursuit of the latter goal the book stresses the importance of dialogue with participants who take seriously the views and interests of others and who seek to reach a fair solution In this sense the book supports the idea of cosmopolitanism which by contrast to empire involves multi lateral cooperation and thus the quest for a just cosmopolis The international contributors to this volume with their varied perspectives are all committed to this same quest Edited by Fred Dallmayr the chapters take the form of conversations with Edward Demenchonok a well known practitioner of international and cross cultural philosophy The conversations are structured in parts that stress the philosophical anthropological cultural and ethical dimensions of global dialogue In our conflicted world it is inspiring to find so many authors from different places agreeing on a shared vision
