Russian Resurrection:

Russian Baptists and Spiritual Revolution, 1905-1929 Heather J. Coleman, 2005-04-20 a fascinating read for everyone interested in Russia religion and modernity Nadieszda Kizenko In the early 20th century Baptists were the fastest growing non Orthodox religious group among Russians and Ukrainians Heather J Coleman traces the development of Baptist evangelical communities through a period of rapid industrialization war and revolution when Russians found themselves asking new questions about religion and its place in modern life Baptists faith helped them navigate the problems of dissent of order and disorder of modernization and westernization and of national and social identity in their changing society Making use of newly available archival material this important book reveals the ways in which the Baptists own experiences and the widespread discussions that they generated illuminate the emergence of new social and personal identities in late Imperial and early Soviet Russia the creation of a public sphere and a civic culture and the role of religious ideas in the modernization process The New Russian Documentary Anastasia Kostina, Masha Shpolberg, 2025 Investigates the recent expansion in Russian documentary film and its relationship to politics the media industries and the public sphere

Russian Baptists and Orthodoxy, 1960-1990 Constantine Prokhorov, 2014-01-14 Russian Baptists and the Orthodox Church have had a difficult and at times dramatic relationship over the past century and a half However the purpose of this thesis is to examine certain internal connections between these two Christian bodies Despite the evident dissimilarity in theology church practice and traditions there is common ground which has been largely unexplored A number of features inevitably brought them together such as living in the same country over a long period of time sharing a history and national roots responding to the same civic concerns and finally until recently using the same Russian Synodal translation of the Bible This thesis explores first of all the roots of the issue of Orthodox Baptist similarities and dissimilarities in the nineteenth century The remainder of the thesis focuses on 1960 to 1990 There is a chapter analyzing the way in which in significant areas Russian Baptist theology resembled Orthodox thinking This is followed by a study of church and sacraments which again shows that Russian Baptist approaches had echoes of Orthodoxy The thesis then explores Baptist liturgy showing the Orthodox elements that were present The same connections are then explored in the area of Russian Baptist communal spiritual traditions The examination of the Bible beliefs and behaviour also indicates the extent to which Russian Baptists mirrored Orthodoxy Finally there is an analysis of the popular piety of the Russian Baptists and the way in which they constructed an alternative culture The basic views of Russian Baptists between the 1960s and 1990 have been drawn from periodicals of the Russian Baptist communities and from interviews with pastors presbyters and church members who were part of these communities This often yields insights into primary theology which in relation to many issues differs from official Baptist declarations that tend to stress the more Protestant aspects of Russian Baptist life The aim of the thesis is to show that in a period in the history of the USSR when the division between the Western world and the Soviet bloc was marked there was a strong Eastern orientation among Russian Baptists This changed when the USSR came to an end Over a number of years there was mass emigration of Russian Baptists and in addition pro Western thinking gained considerable ground within the Russian Baptist community During the period examined here however it is possible to uncover a great deal of evidence of Russian Baptists participating in Orthodox theology spiritual mentality and culture ‘For those who’ve come across the seas...’ Andrew Jakubowicz, Christina Ho, 2014-02-15 Chugach National Forest (N.F.), Kenai Winter Access, 2007 The Ways of Russian Theology - Part II Georges Florovsky, Wealth without work Pleasure without conscience Science without humanity Knowledge without character Politics without principle Commerce without morality Worship without sacrifice <https://vidjambov.blogspot.com/2023/01/book-inventory-vladimir-djambov-talmach.html> How to bring the life and activities of theological students to the Church They should arouse religious and theological independence in them Now let the guardians of the church instead of scolding the academy its professors and students instead of intensely searching for heresies in their writings and misconduct in their behavior indicate ways to introduce this condition But life is not studied in a theological school On the contrary young people already separated from their estates by life are even more clogged from it by seminary pedagogy Naturally it is not life’s fighters zealots of truth but dry theorists artificially raised resonators who will leave the school should they be given the message of life heal the brokenhearted release the tormented to freedom Rev Anthony Khrapovitsky True these words were spoken a little later in 1896 but they could have been spoken earlier Here pastoral jealousy is sharply confronted and diverges from official and official unbelief Since the mid 80s this pastoral awakening the renewal of the pastoral ideal has already been very noticeable This was most evident in the St Petersburg Academy when Yanyshchev was replaced as rector by Arseniy Bryantsev vposl Archbishop of Kharkov The Academy Inspector was transferred from Kazan then still Archimandrite Anthony Vadkovsky 1846 1912 afterwards Metropolitan of St Petersburg He was a man of great cordial sympathy and benevolence Around him there is a circle of zealots of a monastic feat the so called Squad After a twenty year hiatus tonsure again begins in the student community The ascetic ideal at the same time internally merges with the pastoral vocation this was a new feature

Russian Resurrection Michael Rowe, 1994 Explodity Nancy Perloff, 2017-01-21 The artists books made in Russia between 1910 and 1915 are like no others Unique in their fusion of the verbal visual and sonic these books are meant to be read looked at and listened to Painters and poets including Natalia Goncharova Velimir Khlebnikov Mikhail Larionov Kazimir Malevich and Vladimir Mayakovsky collaborated to fabricate hand lithographed books for which they invented a new language called zaum a neologism meaning beyond the mind which was distinctive in its emphasis on sound as such and its rejection of definite logical meaning At the heart of this volume are close analyses of two of the most significant and experimental futurist books Mirskontsa Worldbackwards and Vzorval Explodity In addition Nancy Perloff examines the profound differences between the Russian avant garde and Western art movements including futurism and she uncovers a wide ranging legacy in the midcentury global movement of sound and concrete poetry the Brazilian Noigandres group Ian Hamilton Finlay and Henri Chopin contemporary Western conceptual art and the artist s book Sound recordings of zaum poems featured in the book are available at www.getty.edu Hans Urs von Balthasar and the Critical Appropriation of Russian Religious Thought Jennifer Newsome Martin,2015-09-15 In Hans Urs von Balthasar and the Critical Appropriation of Russian Religious Thought Jennifer Newsome Martin offers the first systematic treatment and evaluation of the Swiss Catholic theologian s complex relation to modern speculative Russian religious philosophy Her constructive analysis proceeds through Balthasar s critical reception of Vladimir Soloviev Nicholai Berdyaev and Sergei Bulgakov with respect to theological aesthetics myth eschatology and Trinitarian discourse and examines how Balthasar adjudicates both the possibilities and the limits of theological appropriation especially considering the degree to which these Russian thinkers have been influenced by German Idealism and Romanticism Martin argues that Balthasar s creative reception and modulation of the thought of these Russian philosophers is indicative of a broad speculative tendency in his work that deserves further attention In this respect Martin consciously challenges the prevailing view of Balthasar as a fundamentally conservative or nostalgic thinker In her discussion of the relation between tradition and theological speculation Martin also draws upon the understudied relation between Balthasar and F W J Schelling especially as Schelling s form of Idealism was passed down through the Russian thinkers In doing so she persuasively recasts Balthasar as an ecumenical creatively anti nostalgic theologian hospitable to the richness of contributions from extra magisterial and non Catholic sources
