comprehensive overview of Russian intellectual history Russian Intellectual Antisemitism in the Post-Communist Era Vadim Joseph Rossman, 2002-01-01 Antisemitism has had a long and complex history in Russian intellectual life and has revived in the post Communist era In their concept of the identity of the Jewish people many academics and other thinkers in Russia continue to cast Jews in a negative or ambivalent role An inherent rivalry exists between Russia and the Jews because Russians have often viewed themselves whether through the lens of atheistic communism or that of the most conservative elements of the Orthodox Church as a chosen people whose destiny is to lead the way to world salvation In this book Vadim Rossman presents the foundations and present influence of intellectual antisemitism in Russia He examines the antisemitic roots of some major trends in Russian intellectual thought that emerged in earlier decades of the twentieth century and are still significant in the post Communist era neo Eurasianism Eurasian historiography National Bolshevism neo Slavophilism National Orthodoxy and various forms of racism Such extreme right wing ideology continues to appeal to a certain segment of the Russian population and seems unlikely to disappear soon Rossman confronts and challenges a range of disturbing sometimes contradictory but often quite sophisticated antisemitic ideas posed by Russian sociologists historians philosophers theologians political analysts anthropologists and literary critics Rethinking Modern European Intellectual History Darrin M. McMahon, Samuel Moyn, 2014-01-14 Modern European intellectual history is thriving as never before It has recovered from an era in which other trends like social and cultural history threatened to marginalize it But in spite of enjoying a contemporary renaissance the field has lost touch with the tradition of debating why and how to study ideas and thus lacks both a well articulated set of purposes and a range of arguments for exactly what it means to pursue those purposes This volume revives that tradition Recalling past attempts to showcase the diversity and differentiation of modern European intellectual history this volume also documents how much has changed in recent decades Some authors are much readier to defend a history of ideas practiced over the long term once the defining sin of the field Others go so far as to insist on how ideas are always open to reappropriation and reevaluation beyond their original contexts suggesting that it is an error to reduce the ideas to those contexts Others still argue that under threat from trends like social history intellectual historians have forsaken any attempt to resolve for themselves how ideas are socially embodied The volume also registers old and new trends in history that have affected the study of ideas including the history of science the history of academic disciplines the history of psychology and self international and global history and women s and gender history The French Revolution in Russian Intellectual Life, 2009 Russian intellectual discourse on the French Revolution as a representation of the West rather than a symbol of revolution European Intellectual History from Rousseau to Nietzsche Frank M. Turner, 2015-02-12 One of the most distinguished cultural and intellectual historians of our time Frank Turner taught a landmark Yale University lecture course on European intellectual history that drew scores of students over many years His lectures lucid accessible beautifully written and delivered with a notable lack of jargon distilled modern European history from the Enlightenment to the dawn of the twentieth century and conveyed the turbulence of a rapidly changing era in European history through its ideas and leading figures Richard A Lofthouse one of Turner s former students has now edited the lectures into a single volume that outlines the thoughts of a great historian on the forging of modern European ideas Moreover it offers a fine example of how intellectual history should be taught rooted firmly in historical and biographical evidence Checklist of Documents ,2006
