regime and the type of capitalism that were formulated during the Yeltsin and Putin presidencies and will continue to dominate Russia's trajectory in the near term Looking forward as well as back Shevtsova speculates about the upcoming elections as well as the self-perpetuating system in place the legacies of Yeltsin and Putin and how it will dictate the immediate political future She also explores several scenarios for Russia's future over the next decade Russian Politics Zoltan D. Barany, Robert G. Moser, 2001-08-27 What went wrong in Russia's decade-old post-communist transition A group of leading young scholars answer this question by offering assessments of five crucial political arenas during the Yeltsin era elections executive legislative relations interactions between the central state and the regions economic reforms and civil military relations All of the contributors recognize that adverse historical legacies have complicated Russian democratization They challenge structural explanations that emphasize constraints of the pre-existing system however and concentrate instead on the importance of elite decisions and institution building The authors agree that elites' failure to develop robust political institutions has been a central problem of Russia's post-communist transition The weakness of the state and its institutions has contributed to a number of serious problems threatening democratic consolidation These include the tensions between the executive and the legislature the frail infrastructure for successful market reform and the absence of proper civilian control over the armed forces Russia in Transition David Lane, 2014-09-25 An accessible book covering the momentous changes that have occurred and are still occurring since the fall of the USSR in 1989 Contributions from an impressive collection of authors are drawn from the most recent and original research available and address political and social issues which impact on all levels of Russian society The book consists of a selection of specially commissioned pieces which have evolved from the conference of the same name held at Cambridge University in December 1994 Regional Russia in Transition Jeffrey W.
