Beyond Crisis Naveeda Khan, 2012-04-27 Through the essays in this volume we see how the failure of the state becomes a moment to ruminate on the artificiality of this most modern construct the failure of nationalism an opportunity to dream of alternative modes of association and the failure of sovereignty to consider the threats and possibilities of the realm of foreignness within the nation state as within the self The ambition of this volume is not only to complicate standing representations of Pakistan It is take Pakistan out of the status of exceptionalism that its multiple crises have endowed upon it By now many scholars have written of how exile migrancy refugeedom and other modes of displacement constitute modern subjectivities The arguments made in the book say that Pakistan is no stranger to this condition of human immigrancy and therefore can be pressed into service in helping us to understand our present condition

Why Do Uzbeks Have to be Muslims? Irene Hilgers, 2009 In this work the late Irene Hilgers analyses the revival of Islam in the public sphere in postsocialist Uzbekistan with particular reference to its role in the construction of a new national identity Data collected during fieldwork in 2003 2004 are contextualized with reference to the history of the Kokand Khanate and the suppression of religion during the Soviet era Hilgers analyses current state ideology and the official structures for controlling religion but also the continued significance of popular religion as expressed at shrines and in healing rituals and the tensions associated with Wahabi currents The tight association between Uzbek identity and Islam is also illustrated through the problems encountered by converts to Christianity Throughout the work Hilgers deploys her rich ethnographic materials to shed fresh light on major debates concerning secularization and the nature of Soviet and post Soviet modernity

Central Asia, 130 Years of Russian Dominance Edward Allworth, 1994 For centuries Central Asia has been a leading civilization an Islamic heartland and a geographical link between West and East After a long traditional history it is now in a state of change With the breakup of the Soviet Union in 1991 five newborn Central Asian states have emerged in place of the former Soviet Central Asia and Afghanistan Central Asia provides the most comprehensive survey of the history of the impact of Russian rule upon the political economic social intellectual and cultural life of this diverse region Together these essays convey a sense of the region s community as well as the divisive policies that have affected it for so long Now in its third edition it was first published in 1967 and revised in 1989 this new edition of Central Asia has been updated to include a new preface a revised and updated bibliography and a final chapter that brings the book up to 1994 in considering the crucial problems that stem from a deprivation of sovereign indigenous leadership over the past 130 years This volume provides a broad and essential background for understanding what has led up to the late twentieth century configuration of Central Asia

Central Asia Meets the Middle East David Menashri, 2013-11-05 The emergence of Muslim republics has been part of a larger transformation experienced by the Middle East in the 1990s The main purpose of this volume is to examine the impact of the transformation on the Middle East especially Turkey and Iran

Muslim Turkistan Bruce Privratsky, 2013-11-19 This ethnography of Muslim life among the Kazaks of Central Asia describes the sacralisation of land and ethnic identity local understanding of Islamic purity the Kazak ancestor cult and domestic spirituality and pilgrimage to the tombs of Sufi saints

Islam in the Soviet Union Yaacov Ro'i, 2000 Based largely on official Soviet archive material this study describes and analyses all aspects of Islam which relate to the Soviet domestic scene with the purpose of demonstrating how it survived in the face of Soviet repression and secularisation

Tajikistan Kirill Nourzhanov, Christian Bleuer, 2013-10-08 This book is a historical study of the Tajiks in Central Asia from the ancient times to the post Soviet period For millennia these descendants of the original Aryan settlers were part of many different empires set up by Greek Arab Turkic and Russian invaders as well as their own most notably during the Middle Ages The emergence of the modern state of Tajikistan began after 1917 under Soviet rule and culminated in the promulgation of independence from the moribund USSR in 1991 In the subsequent civil war that raged between 1992 and 1997 Tajikistan came close to becoming a failed state The legacy of that internal conflict remains critical to understanding politics in Tajikistan a generation later Exploring the patterns of ethnic identity and the exigencies of state formation the book argues that despite a strong sense of belonging underpinned by shared history mythology and cultural traits the Tajiks have not succeeded in forming a consolidated nation The politics of the Russian colonial administration the national territorial delimitation under Stalin and the Soviet strategy of socio economic modernisation contributed to the preservation and reification of sub ethnic cleavages and regional identities The book demonstrates the impact of region based elite clans on Tajikistan s political trajectory in the twilight years of the Soviet era and identifies objective and subjective factors that led to the civil war It concludes with a survey of the process of national reconciliation after 1997 and the formal and informal political actors including Islamist groups who compete for influence in Tajik society Tajikistan A Political and Social History is the best source of information on this important country in the English language Drs Nourzhanov and Bleuer present a comprehensive yet detailed account of the past and prospects of this emerging nation and have filled one of the major gaps in Central Asian scholarship This book must be read by those who wish to grasp the vagaries of Central Asia s evolving political and cultural landscapes Reuel Hanks Professor of Geography Oklahoma State University and Editor of the Journal of Central Asian Studies If Tajikistan is known outside its region it is often for the civil war that gravely damaged it This volume authoritatively provides the longer perspective to the unsettling events of the 1990s and skilfully explains them in terms of history social structure and sub state identities In addition to highlighting a wealth of local factors it is insightful on the ways in which antagonists can be transformed into broader ethnic and regional blocs Kirill Nourzhanov and Christian Bleuer are erudite guides to an understudied part of Central Asia while astutely instructing us about larger patterns of state society relations and their impact on the logic of conflict James Piscatori Professor of International Relations Durham University

The Receding Shadow of the Prophet Ray Takeyh,Nikolas K. Gvosdev,2004-06-30 The tragic events of September 11 2001 in the United States renewed fears of an Islamist wave destabilizing the countries of the Muslim world Yet the alarm raised over a previous wave of Islamism in the early 1990s which threatened to overwhelm Egypt and Algeria and spill into the Balkans and Central Asia proved to be unfounded Takeyh and Gvosdev assert that while Islamism has been successful as an oppositional ideology of wrath it has failed to provide Islamic societies with any feasible alternative to undertaking fundamental political and economic reforms By detailing the defeat of Islamist movements in the Middle East the Balkans and Central Asia over the last decade this book encourages us not to overestimate the Islamist threat in the current climate and the years to come Radical Islamists have been successful in mobilizing opposition to corrupt regimes yet they have failed to translate their utopian vision into reality Furthermore their emphasis on violence alienates and frightens the middle class and other potential allies Iran s revolution failed to create a model Islamic republic and its government is increasingly losing legitimacy to demands for genuine democracy Islamist governments in Afghanistan and Sudan relied upon violence to remain in power and ultimately collapsed Islamist movements proved unable to dislodge the existing regimes in Egypt and Algeria In the Balkans and Central Asia Islamism has had little attraction for Western oriented populations Indeed throughout the entire Islamic world former radicals are seeking a new accommodation between Islamic values and liberal democracy Takeyeh and Gvosdev succinctly and accessibly explore the rise of radical Islam as well as its ultimate demise in various nations Politicizing Islam in Central Asia Kathleen Collins,2023 A sweeping history of Islamism in Central Asia from the Russian Revolution to the present through Soviet era archival documents oral histories and a trove of interviews and focus groups Few observers anticipated a surge of Islamism in Central Asia after seventy years of forced communist atheism Muslims do not inevitably support Islamism a modern political ideology of Islam Yet Islamism became the dominant form of political opposition in post Soviet Uzbekistan and Tajikistan In Politicizing Islam in Central Asia Kathleen Collins explores the causes dynamics and variation in Islamist movements first within the USSR and then in the post Soviet states of Tajikistan Uzbekistan and Kyrgyzstan Drawing upon extensive ethnographic and historical research on Islamist mobilization she explains the strategies and relative success of each Central Asian Islamist movement Collins argues that in each case state repression of Islam by Soviet and post Soviet regimes together with the diffusion of religious ideologies motivated Islamist mobilization Sweeping in scope this book traces the dynamics of Central Asian Islamist movements from the Soviet era through the Tajik civil war the Afghan jihad against the US and the foreign fighter movement joining the Syrian jihad The American Bibliography of Slavic and East European Studies for 1994 Patt Leonard,Rebecca Routh,1997-05-31 This text provides a source of citations to North American scholarships relating specifically to the area of Eastern Europe and the former Soviet Union It indexes fields of scholarship such as the humanities arts technology and life sciences and all kinds of scholarship such as PhDs Challenging the Secular State Arskal Salim,2008-09-30 Challenging the Secular State examines Muslim efforts to incorporate shari a religious law into modern Indonesia s legal system from the time of independence in 1945 to the present The author argues that attempts to formally implement shari a in Indonesia the world s most populous Muslim state have always been marked by tensions between the political aspirations of proponents and opponents of shari a and by resistance from the national government As a result although pro shari a movements have made significant progress in recent years shari a remains tightly confined within Indonesia s secular legal system The author first places developments in Indonesia within a broad historical and geographic context offering a provocative analysis of the Ottoman empire s millet system and thoughtful comparisons of different approaches to pro shari a movements in other Muslim countries Saudi Arabia Iran Pakistan He then describes early aspirations for the formal implementation of shari a in Indonesia in the context of modern understandings of religious law as conflicting with the idea of the nation state Later chapters explore the efforts of Islamic parties in Indonesia to include shari'a in national law Salim offers a detailed analysis of debates over the constitution and possible amendments to it concerning the obligation of Indonesian Muslims to follow Islamic law A study of the Zakat Law illustrates the complicated relationship between the religious duties of Muslim citizens and the nonreligious character of the modern nation state Chapters look at how Islamization has deepened with the enactment of the Zakat Law and demonstrate the incongruities that have emerged from its implementation The efforts of local Muslims to apply shari'a in particular regions are also discussed Attempts at the Islamization of laws in Aceh are especially significant because it is the only province in Indonesia that has been allowed to move toward a shari'a based system The book concludes with a review of the profound conflicts and tensions found in the motivations behind Islamization

Global Security Watch—Central Asia Reuel R. Hanks, 2010-10-21 This volume is the only current treatment of security issues in Central Asia for the nonspecialist as well as specialists and policy makers Global Security Watch Central Asia is the first authoritative examination of the security issues affecting and affected by the region where Russia South Asia China and the Middle East meet The author provides a comprehensive account of the strategic importance and challenges facing Central Asia written for policymakers students researchers and interested general readers alike Global Security Watch Central Asia goes behind the scenes to explore both the internal factors and global influences affecting the stability of region and the nations that comprise it Coverage includes the dynamics of each country's domestic politics the allure of the region's natural resources Central Asia's role in U S Russian relations and the renewed focus on the region in the aftermath of the attacks of September 11 2001

Islam and Colonialism Will Myer, 2003-08-27 Tracing the development of western thought about Central Asia this book argues that for historical and political reasons Central Asia was seen as being in a colonial relationship with Russia Consequently an anti colonial revolution in Asia was seen as the greatest threat to the USSR The book questions the suitability of the colonial model for understanding the region's recent political history and challenges many of the assumptions which underlay the adoption of such a model and examines how this one interpretation came to dominate western discourse to the virtual exclusion of all others

Political Islam in Central Asia Emmanuel Karagiannis, 2009-12-04 The terrorist attacks in the United States on 9 11 and the U S led military campaign against the Taliban regime in Afghanistan have intensified scrutiny of radical Islamic groups across Central Asia This book offers one of the first comprehensive studies of the activities of one of the most feared but least understood international Islamist organizations in post Soviet Central Asia Hizb ut Tahrir that is The Party of Islamic Liberation By utilizing social movement theory the book analyses political Islam in Central Asia in general and the phenomenon of Hizb ut Tahrir in particular It reveals the critical role of its ideology based on a selective interpretation of Islamic theology and history in the party's recruiting success Using primary sources including the group's publications and documents official reports alongside interviews with scholars security experts mullahs journalists diplomats government officials and group members it covers the rise of political Islam in the post Soviet Central Asia alongside the origins and current status of Hizb ut Tahrir its leadership ideology political methodology and party structure and its rise in the region from Kazakhstan to Russia and China Although the organization has received less international examination partly because it has advocated a non violent approach toward its goals this book sketches its prospective future relationship to violence in this key region

Between Europe and Islam Almut H[ilpert, Armando Salvatore, 2000 In the last two decades of the 20th century theorising on modernity has entered a new stage The former dichotomy between an active West exporting its successful model of modernity on a global scale and passive non Westerners gratefully implementing this model in their own societies has been challenged by critical anthropology and postcolonial studies and further elaborated upon within social theory This volume focuses on Europe and the Islamic world as two historically constructed geo civilisational domains and shows that modernity was not achieved in splendid isolation in Europe but in the tensions and conflicts within the transcultural space between Europe and Islam The impact of Islam as a complex civilising tradition on the making of Europe and vice versa impinged on the building of political religious and scientific institutions and discourses These sustained a continuous process of drawing adjusting and transgressing symbolic and geo political boundaries between the two civilisational realms from medieval rivalries to present day migration related conflicts This volume assembles seven contributions by historians and sociologists covering the whole of the modern era and focusing on the notion of a transcultural space and the discussion of revised concepts concerning the genesis and shape of modernity In so doing they try to escape both the apories of cultural relativism and the militancy of the clash of civilizations
