Linda Fairstein: A Martha's Vineyard institution since 1931, the Home Port is the place to go locally for traditional New England style fresh off the boat seafood. In this book, former chef-owner Will Holtham shares stories and culinary secrets from his forty years at the helm. Among the more than 100 recipes are featured menu items such as the award-winning Quahog Chowder, Broiled Swordfish, Baked Stuffed Lobster, and Key Lime Pie, along with seafood cooking techniques and tips on buying and preparing fish. Full-color food photos are complemented by restaurant ephemera from Will's private collection as well as charming watercolor illustrations by artist Susan Tobey White. Will Holtham has been a chef and restaurateur for more than forty years. He also owned the Square Rigger restaurant and legendary Bite Clam Shack, both on Martha's Vineyard. He divides his time between Maine and South Carolina.

Doris Longacre, 2003-09-26: This is a new edition of Herald Press's all-time best-selling cookbook, helping thousands of families establish a climate of joy and concern for others at mealtime. The late author's introductory chapters have been edited and revised for today's cooks. Statistics and nutritional information have been updated to reflect current American and Canadian eating habits, health issues, and diet guidelines. The new U.S. food chart, My Plate, was slipped in at the last minute and placed alongside Canada's Food Guide. But the message has changed little from the one that Doris Janzen Longacre promoted in 1976 when the first edition of this cookbook was released. In many ways, she was ahead of her time in advocating for people to eat more whole grains and more vegetables and fruits with less meat, saturated fat, and sugars. This book is part of the World Community Cookbook series, which is published in cooperation with the Mennonite Central Committee, a worldwide ministry of relief, development, and peace. Mennonites are widely recognized as good cooks. But Mennonites are also a people who care about the world's hungry.
