was clear that Ryan's Hope would be unlike every daytime soap that had come before. Indeed from 1975 to 1989 the Emmy award winning ABC TV serial drew viewers into the world of Maeve and Johnny Ryan, their children, friends and extended family. This page-turning chronicle gathers memories and exclusive interviews to reveal the show's fascinating origin story and explore why it's missed to this day. Ryan's Hope was set in a real city within recognizable communities. The working-class Irish Catholic immigrant Ryans were the core of a show that credibly tackled such topics as infidelity, addiction, religious faith and women's rights. There was melodrama to be sure, but also heart, depth, grit provided by co-creators and head writers Claire Labine and Paul Avila. Mayer Labine and Mayer were also the executive producers in the early years, which gave them full control over their creation, from character backstories to lighting and costume. But there were also some missteps along the way, from the constant recasting of fan-favorite characters to ABC's ill-judged attempts to infuse the homey, family-oriented show with intrigue and adventure. Featuring the words of stars including Helen Gallagher, Malcolm Groome, Ron Hale, Ilene Kristen, Michael Levin, Ana Alicia, Roscoe Born, Catherine Hicks, Geoff Pierson, Andrew Robinson and Gordon Thomson, along with writers, producers, production crew and family members, plus never-before-seen photos and plot synopses, soap opera fans will find this insider account as captivating as the beloved show itself.

A Murder on the Guadalupe Gerald W. Goble, PhD, 2008-11-24. The community Bunko Club on an herb-collecting outing finds the body of a cheerleader near the Guadalupe River. Under the watchful eye of a Texas Ranger with potential impropriety of the football coach and a range of suspects with motives, the county sheriff leads a team investigating the death. After sorting through the suspects without definitive leads, the sheriff turns to the Bunko Club ladies to help him corner the suspect. Under the guise of a Bunko Party, the suspects appear or are cleared in between trips to the food and snack table.
