James,2020-10-07 In this book first published in 1948 an attempt has been made to provide an intelligible introduction to a somewhat complex aspect of scientific inquiry And secondly to construct a background of primitive ritual and belief against which the more developed religions can be placed This book is a valuable early attempt at explaining the beginnings of religion from a modern scientific viewpoint

The Theology and Ecclesiology of the Prayer Book Crisis, 1906-1928 Dan D. Cruickshank,2019-09-12 This book considers the doctrinal and ecclesiological trends that were present during the construction of the revised Book of Common Prayer of 1927 Through the use of the records of both Convocations and of the National Church Assembly it examines the debates that led to the revised Book and the doctrinal shifts that were present in these debates It challenges the idea that the revision process stalled in the First World War by showing how the birth of the National Assembly that took place during the war was born out of the revision process Through the Assembly records it shows the integral role the laity played in the revision process It examines the attempts to get the revised Books through Parliament the difference between pro and anti revision speakers and the radical ecclesiological thinking that followed the rejections Scottish Presbyterian Worship Bryan D. Spinks,2020-09-30 This seminal work by one of the world s most distinguished liturgical scholars fills an important gap in the history of the Church of Scotland and of Scottish worship It offers an in depth narrative of a neglected liturgical legacy and a perceptive analysis of the Church s evolving patterns of worship from the middle of the 19th century to the present day Book Review Digest ,1928 Canadian Railway and Marine World ,1926 Newman and Faith Ian Turnbull Ker,Terrence Merrigan,2004 The life and work of John Henry Newman were dominated by questions concerning the nature of Christian faith and the way in which it comes to expression in history In this collection of essays eight leading scholars examine the theological philosophical historical literary and spiritual dimensions of Newman s understanding of faith and reflect on the way in which his thought relates to contemporary concerns and interests in their disciplines The themes discussed include the relationship between faith and reason Newman and postmodernity the rights and limitations of conscience the place of doctrine in Christian life the believer in the church and the autobiographical significance of Newman s treatment of faith in his novels Like its predecessor Newman and the Word this collection aims to provide a critical reflection on the relevance of Newman s thought for today The Lord's Supper in Methodism, 1791-1960 John C. Bowmer,1961 National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.),1971 First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965 70 Anglican Confirmation 1820-1945 Phillip Tovey,2024-06-03 This book focuses on Anglican Confirmation in theology liturgy and practice from 1820 to 1945 This was a period of great change in the ways Anglicans approached Confirmation The Tractarian movement transformed the Communion and its ideas were carried overseas with the missionary movement The study examines the development of a two stage theology and its reception It analyses the wave of liturgical revision expressed in England in the 1928 Prayer Book It explores the episcopal changes in practice from the eighteenth century paradigm to a new way of confirming The revolution of the time has left a legacy that still informs practice while doubts about theology and its liturgical application have left an existential crisis The author reflects on how the current situation in various provinces has its roots in this period and the diffusion of ideas in the Communion The book offers a fresh systematic examination of the neglected ecclesial practice of Confirmation providing a more holistic view and clarifying developments to help us better understand the present It will be of particular interest to scholars of Christian theology liturgy ecclesiology and church history
