Sacred Biography In The Buddhist Traditions Of South And Southeast Asia:

Sacred Biography in the Buddhist Traditions of South and Southeast Asia Juliane Schober, 2002 This interdisciplinary collection of essays explores the biographical genre of the Buddhist traditions of South and Southeast Asia. Scholars in the history of religions, anthropology, literature, and art history present a broad range of explorations into sacred biography as an interpretive genre. Each essay makes unique contributions and the collection as a whole engages methodological and interpretive approaches that are central to scholars of Buddhism and those specializing in the study of South and Southeast Asia.

Family in Buddhism Liz Wilson, 2013-08-01 A wide-ranging exploration of Buddhism and family in Asia, from biological families to families created in monasteries. The Buddha left his home and family and enjoined his followers to go forth and become homeless. With a traditionally celibate clergy, Asian Buddhism is often regarded as a world-renouncing religion inimical to family life. This edited volume counters this view, showing how Asian Buddhists in a wide range of historical and geographical circumstances relate as kin to their biological families and to the religious families they join. Using contemporary and historical case studies as well as textual examples, contributors explore how Asian Buddhists invoke family ties in the intentional communities they create and use them to establish religious authority and guard religious privilege. The language of family and lineage emerges as central to a variety of South and East Asian Buddhist contexts. With an interdisciplinary Pan-Asian approach, Family in Buddhism challenges received wisdom in religious studies and offers new ways to think about family and society.

The Social Life of Tibetan Biography Amy Holmes-Tagchungdarpa, 2014-07-30 The Social Life of Tibetan Biography explores the creation of Tibetan religious authority in Tibetan cultural areas throughout East Inner and South Asia through engaging with the relationship between textual biography and social community in the case of the Eastern Tibetan yogi Tokden Shakya Shri (1853-1919). It explores the different mechanisms used by Shakya Shri's community in the creation of his biographical portrait to develop his lineage, including the use of biographical tropes, details of interpersonal connections, educational and patronage networks, and representations of sacred site creation and maintenance. In doing so, this study decenters Tibetan and Himalayan religious history through recognizing that peripheries could act as alternative centers of authority for diverse Tibetan Buddhist communities.

The Buddha Vanessa R. Sasson, Kristin Scheible, 2023 Retellings of the Buddha's life story have animated and sustained Buddhist thought and practice through some 2,500 years of history. To this day, Buddhist holidays and rituals are pinned to the arc of his biography, celebrating his birth, awakening, teaching, and final nirvana. His story is the model that exemplary Buddhists follow. Often there is a moment of insight akin to the Buddha's experience with the Four Sights, followed by a great departure from home and a period of searching that it is hoped will lead to final awakening. The Buddha's story is not just the Buddha's story; it is the story of Buddhism. In this book, twelve leading scholars of South Asian texts and traditions articulate the Buddha life blueprint, the underlying and foundational pattern that holds the life story of a Buddha together.

They retell the episodes of Buddha Gautama's extended life story while keeping in mind the cosmic paradigmatic arc of his narrative. The contributors have dedicated their careers to exploring hagiographical materials each applying their own methodological and theoretical interests to shed new light on the enduring story of Buddhism. Using multiple perspectives, voices and sources, this volume underscores the multivalent centrality of this story. The book will be an invaluable resource to practicing Buddhists and students of Buddhist Studies to help them engage in the most foundational story of the tradition.

Encyclopedia of Monasticism William M. Johnston, 2013-12-04 The two volume Encyclopedia of Monasticism describes the monastic traditions of both Christianity and Buddhism with more than 600 entries on important monastic figures of all periods and places, surveys of countries and localities and topical essays covering a wide range of issues e.g. art, behavior, economics, liturgy, politics, theology and scholarship. Coverage encompasses not only geography and history worldwide but also the contemporary dilemmas of monastic life. Recent upheavals in certain countries are highlighted: Korea, Russia, Sri Lanka etc. Topical essays subtitled Christian Perspectives and Buddhist Perspectives explore in imaginative fashion comparisons and contrasts between Christian and Buddhist monasticism. Encyclopedia of Monasticism also includes more than 500 color and black and white illustrations covering all aspects of monastic life, art and architecture. Becoming the Buddha Donald K. Swearer, 2020-07-21 Becoming the Buddha is the first book-length study of a key ritual of Buddhist practice in Asia: the consecration of a Buddha image or new Buddha, a ceremony by which the Buddha becomes present or alive. Through a richly detailed, accessible exploration of this ritual in northern Thailand, an exploration that stands apart from standard text-based or anthropological approaches, Donald Swearer makes a major contribution to our understanding of the Buddha image, its role in Buddhist devotional life and its relationship to the veneration of Buddha relics. Blending ethnography, analysis and Buddhist texts related to this mimetic reenactment of the night of the Buddha's enlightenment, he demonstrates that the image becomes the Buddha's surrogate by being invested with the Buddha's story and charged with the extraordinary power of Buddhahood. The process by which this transformation occurs through chant, sermon, meditation and the presence of charismatic monks is at the heart of this book. Known as opening the eyes of the Buddha image, consecration traditions throughout Buddhist Asia share much in common. Within the cultural context of northern Thailand, Becoming the Buddha illuminates scriptural accounts of the making of the first Buddha image, looks at debates over the ritual's historical origin, at Buddhological insights achieved and at the hermeneutics of absence and presence, and provides a thematic comparison of several Buddhist traditions. Historical Dictionary of Burma (Myanmar) Donald M. Seekins, 2017-03-27 Burma/Myanmar is a Southeast Asian country that is emerging from crisis after more than a half century of hard-line military rule and cultural, diplomatic and economic isolation. With the dissolution of its military regime, the State Peace and Development Council, in 2011, a formally civilian but military-dominated constitutional government was inaugurated. By 2012, Burma's president, retired General Thein Sein, had established a working relationship with Daw Aung

San Suu Kyi the leader of the country's pro democracy movement since 1988 and after a 2012 by election she and members of her opposition party the National League for Democracy NLD entered the new Union Parliament as legislators However even with the election victory of Daw Suu Kyi and the NLD in the General Election of November 2015 Burma faces daunting challenges it is still one of the poorest countries in Southeast fissured by longstanding ethnic conflicts that have made a nationwide peace agreement elusive and its people's security and the environment are threatened by foreign economic exploitation Religious discord is also widely evident as Buddhist militants instigate violence against the country's religious minorities especially Muslims Today Burma's prospects are the most hopeful they have been for over half a century as the country takes steps along the road to a more open society and economy This edition of the Historical Dictionary of Burma Myanmar encompasses not only current developments but also Burma's over 1 500 years old recorded history and the most important features of its cultures ethnicity religions society and economy This is done through a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 700 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture

The Selfless Ego Lucia Galli, Franz Xaver Erhard, 2021-05-13 The essays collected in The Selfless Ego propose an innovative approach to one of the most fascinating aspects of Tibetan literature life writing Departing from past schemes of interpretation this book addresses issues of literary theory and identity construction eluding the strictures imposed by the adoption of the hagiographical master narrative as synonymous with the genre The book is divided into two parts Ideally conceived as an introduction to traditional forms of life writing as expressed in Buddhist milieus Part I Memory and Imagination in Tibetan Hagiographical Writing centres on the inner tensions between literary convention and self expression that permeate indigenous hagiographies mystical songs records of teachings and autobiographies Part II Conjuring Tibetan Lives explores the most unconventional traits of the genre sifting through the narrative configuration of Tibetan biographical writings as liberation stories to unearth those fragments of life that compose an individual's multifaceted existence This volume is the first to approach Tibetan life writing from a literary and narratological perspective encompassing a wide range of disciplines themes media and historical periods and thus opening new and vibrant areas of research to future scholarship across the Humanities The chapters in this book were originally published as two special issues of Life Writing

The Social Life of Achievement Nicholas J. Long, Henrietta L. Moore, 2013-11-01 What happens when people achieve Why do reactions to achievement vary so profoundly And how might an anthropological study of achievement and its consequences allow us to develop a more nuanced model of the motivated agency that operates in the social world These questions lie at the heart of this volume Drawing on research from Southeast Asia Europe the United States and Latin America this collection develops an innovative framework for explaining achievement's multiple effects one which brings together cutting edge theoretical insights into politics psychology ethics materiality auralty embodiment affect and narrative In doing so the volume advances a new agenda for the study of achievement within anthropology emphasizing the significance of achievement as a moment of cultural invention and the complexity of the achiever as a subject position Encyclopedia of Life Writing Margaretta Jolly, 2013-12-04 First published in 2001 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company
