Sacred Fragments:

Sacred Fragments Neil Gillman, 1990 The modern Jew living in a world of shattered beliefs and competing ideologies is often confronted with questions of faith Sacred Fragments is for those who still care enough to continue the struggle In forthright nontechnical language the author addresses the most difficult theological questions of our time and shows that there are still viable Jewish answers for even the greatest skeptics Respectful Atheism Thomas B. Sheridan, 2021-03-23 This is a study of God as a concept not from the perspective of any religious tradition but rather as belief in an all powerful all knowing and loving supernatural entity as has prevailed through the ages The book reviews arguments throughout history for and against the idea of such a God One unique perspective is to ask what can be modeled about God in denotative language of rationality much as modeling in science medicine and economics in contrast to connotative language e g myth metaphor art and music Since the early Greeks there have been skeptics concerning God with progressively more questioning since the Enlightenment Today s new atheists are seen as being even more assertive and as having little respect for religious and philosophical traditions and the natural longing for some kind of supreme being However as demographic trends continue to diminish the influence of the church there is opportunity for atheism to gain respect by respecting the beliefs of others The book ends with some considerations of what it means to respect others beliefs and cultural traditions without abandoning a sincere disbelief in a supernatural being Searching for God Joan Burstyn; Gershon Vincow, 2011-08-04 The authors of Searching for God Study Partners Explore Contemporary Jewish Texts introduce self directed hevruta a novel twist on the traditional Jewish path of in depth learning with a study partner Together they choose the most challenging topic of all searching for God and explore five contemporary Jewish texts that present several approaches mysticism rationalism nontraditional Judaism metaphors from science and character development These spiritual seekers are lay people Joan Burstyn is an historian and poet Gershon Vincow is a scientist and community leader They study discuss teach each other and draw conclusions The result of this study partnership is a transformative learning experience about Judaism and the search for God This touching and inspiring account of the commitment of two friends to study texts and share their insights with each other on behalf of their own and each other s connection to holiness could well be titled Thinking as a Spiritual Path Celebrating intellect as an instrument of prayer this book will serve as a template for seekers across religious traditions who long for a spiritual practice that satisfies their minds as it gladdens their hearts Sylvia Boorstein author of Happiness Is an Inside Job Practicing for a Joyful Life This book successfully probes the most basic questions anyone should ask What do I mean when I use the word God And how does the answer affect the way I live Edward D Zinbarg board member Jewish Theological Seminary Rabbinical School author of Faith Morals and Money What the World s Religions Tell Us about Ethics in the Marketplace Approaching the World's Religions, Volume 1 Robert Boyd, 2017-05-04 Philosophically Thinking about World Religions is different from other works in the discipline today It deviates from the typical approaches used for the study of world religions Its goal is to engage readers in thinking hard about world religions not about the data surrounding those traditions By focusing on philosophical questions each reader should be challenged to do their own investigations that may reveal the heart of these traditions Another stance that this project takes that distinguishes it from other texts in the discipline is that it advocates an inclusivist perspective regarding the world religions Pluralism which is the predominate assumption today ends either in contradiction or in the development of a metatheory that dismisses crucial distinctions between the various traditions or eliminates some ancient religions because they do not fit the metatheory By taking an open inclusivist approach all religious traditions may engage at the table of dialogue The final essay is about justice and social affairs While that discussion is couched within the context of a particular tradition each religious tradition must have the discussion But it must be more than an intrareligious dialogue it must become an interreligious dialogue

Kitawa Literary Fragments Giancarlo M. G. Scoditti, 2025-03-31 The Nowau oral texts collected in this volume were recorded by Scoditti during the several years of fieldwork on Kitawa Island Papua New Guinea devoted mainly to understanding the mental mechanisms followed by the image creators that are the makers of the kula ceremonial canoes the poets the magicians the female and male singers who perform a poetic text orally written by a poet to an oral score composed by a musician With these early works Scoditti identifies within Kitawa culture a clear distinction between the author and the performer interpreter of a given oral text be it a verbal and a non verbal one a distinction that has called into question the hypothesis that in a culture that does not know or use any form of phonetic writing a text is composed at the time of its performance so that composition and performance would coincide A first result of his interpretation is Kitawa A linguistic and aesthetic analysis of visual art in Melanesia 1990 De Gruyter Mouton then by Kitawa oral poetry An example from Melanesia 1996 ANU Press Notes on the cognitive texture of an oral mind Kitawa a Melanesian culture 2012 Sean Kingston Publishing and now Kitawa Literary Fragments How Storytelling Shapes Spacetime in a Melanesian Matrilineal Culture

The Eclipse of Humanity Lawrence Perlman, 2016-01-29 It has been widely assumed that Heschel's writings are poetic inspirations devoid of philosophical analysis and unresponsive to the evil of the Holocaust Who Is Man 1965 contains a detailed phenomenological analysis of man and being which is directed at the main work of Martin Heidegger found primarily in Being and Time 1927 and Letter on Humanism 1946 When the analysis of Who Is Man is unpacked in the light of these associations it is clear that Heschel rejected poetry and metaphor as a means of theological elucidation that he offered a profound examination of the Holocaust and that the major thrust of his thinking eschews Heideggerian deconstruction and the postmodernism that ensued in its phenomenological wake Who Is Man contains direct and indirect criticisms of Heidegger's notions of Dasein thrownness facticity and submission to name a few essential Heideggerian concepts In using his ontological connective method in opposition to Heidegger's ontological difference Heschel makes the argument that the biblical notion of Adam as a being open to transcendence stands in opposition to the philosophical tradition from Parmenides to Heidegger and is the only basis for a redemptive view of humanity Bangkok Barry Bell, 2003 Using direct observations of the surrounding landscape and the tangible artifacts of the city its topography streets temples and other stunning architectural monuments Barry Bell carries out a progressive investigation into Bangkok's urban sensibility and its central mythologies the more mysterious perceptual realms of allusion and illusion arguably the real Bangkok implicitly present within its deceptive exterior In spite of the knowledge that for many people order seems alien to the city the author searches for conceptual coherence He strives to link the city's hectic urban sensibility to its more elusive and hidden character the dream of Bangkok that is prompted by angelic allusions P 2 of cover Cultures of the Fragment Heather Bamford, 2018-06-26 The majority of medieval and sixteenth century Iberian manuscripts whether in Latin Hebrew Arabic Spanish or Aljamiado Spanish written in Arabic script contain fragments or are fragments The term fragment is used to describe not only isolated bits of manuscript material with a damaged appearance but also any piece of a larger text that was intended to be a fragment Investigating the vital role these fragments played in medieval and early modern Iberian manuscript culture Heather Bamford's Cultures of the Fragment is focused on fragments from five major Iberian literary traditions including Hispano Arabic and Hispano Hebrew poetry Latin and Castilian epics chivalric romances and the literature of early modern crypto Muslims The author argues that while some manuscript fragments came about by accident many were actually created on purpose and used in a number of ways from binding materials to anthology excerpts and some fragments were even incorporated into sacred objects as messages of good luck Examining four main motifs of fragmentation including intention physical appearance metonymy and performance this work reveals the centrality of the fragment to manuscript studies highlighting the significance of the fragment to Iberia's multicultural and multilingual manuscript culture

Djanggawul Ronald M. Berndt, 2013-10-11 The Djanggawul religious cult is the focus for this study because it is more important to the Aborigines themselves than other religious cults in the north eastern region of Arnhem land The book includes chapters on the following Significance of the Djanggawul The Djanggawul Myth and Content of the Myth The Djanggawul Songs The Djanggawul Song Cycle Parts 1 The book includes an extensive glossary and index First published in 1952 The Collected Works Philip Schaff, 2022-11-13 Philip Schaff's The Collected Works stands as a monumental contribution to the field of Christian theology and ecclesiastical history This compendium comprises a thorough examination of the development of Christian doctrine drawing on a myriad of historical sources biblical texts and theological discussions Schaff's literary style is characterized by its scholarly rigor lucidity and a deep commitment to historical continuity offering readers an engaging narrative interspersed with critical analysis and contextual elaboration that is crucial for understanding the evolution of Christian thought The work reflects the late 19th century context in which it was produced a period marked by both the consolidation of Protestant scholarship and burgeoning ecumenical movements Philip Schaff 1819-1893 a Swiss born theologian arrived in America as part of the wave of European intellectuals seeking new opportunities in the wake of religious and political upheavals His extensive academic career including founding institutions and engaging in theological debates has provided him with profound insights into the interactions between faith and culture Schaff's profound passion for unifying the Christian Church and his extensive scholarly background in history and language shaped the vision for this comprehensive collection The Collected Works is an essential read for scholars theologians and laypersons alike who seek to delve into early Christian history and doctrine Schaff's meticulous scholarship invites readers to engage with the complexities of faith across centuries making it not merely a work of historical documentation but also a compelling narrative that inspires contemporary discourse on Christianity's relevance today
