Sacred Night:

The Sacred Night Tahar Ben Jelloun, 2000-08 The haunting continuation of The Sand Child Ben Jelloun concludes Ahmed's now Zahra's journey Winner of the 1987 Prix Goncourt The Sacred Night continues the remarkable story Tahar Ben Jelloun began in The Sand Child Mohammed Ahmed a Moroccan girl raised as a boy in order to circumvent Islamic inheritance laws regarding female children remains deeply conflicted about her identity In a narrative that shifts in and out of reality moving between a mysterious present and a painful past Ben Jelloun relates the events of Ahmed's adult life Now calling herself Zahra she renounces her role as only son and heir after her father's death and journeys through a dreamlike Moroccan landscape A searing allegorical portrait of North African society The Sacred Night uses Arabic fairy tales and surrealist elements to craft a stunning and disturbing vision of protest and rebellion against the strictures of hidebound traditions governing gender roles and sexuality Maghrebian Mosaic Mildred P. Mortimer, 2001 When Albert Memmi published the first anthology of francophone Maghrebian literature he expressed his unhappy belief that francophone writing would quickly be eclipsed by Arabic To the contrary this volume demonstrates that the francophone writing of North Africa remains vibrant and prolific

Egyptian Religious Festivals and Rituals Omar Khalil, Religious festivals in ancient Egypt were not just moments of worship but essential aspects of social political and spiritual life These celebrations brought communities together reaffirmed the divine authority of the pharaoh and ensured the continued favor of the gods Through elaborate ceremonies processions and offerings Egyptians demonstrated their devotion while reinforcing the cosmic order known as Ma at Religion was deeply woven into the fabric of daily life and festivals provided opportunities for the people to express their reverence for the gods beyond routine temple rituals Many celebrations coincided with agricultural cycles aligning the will of the gods with the prosperity of the land The inundation of the Nile for example was both a natural and a divine event prompting rituals to honor deities like Hapi the god of the flood The timing of major festivals was often determined by celestial events linking human activities with the movement of the stars and planets The pharaoh played a crucial role in these religious festivities acting as both a political leader and a divine intermediary He was believed to be the earthly representative of the gods ensuring the stability of Egypt by maintaining a strong connection with the divine realm Many ceremonies included the pharaoh making offerings to the gods participating in processions or performing symbolic acts to renew his legitimacy and strength One of the most significant of these was the Sed Festival a grand event that reaffirmed the ruler's divine right to govern Through public participation in such festivals the people reaffirmed their trust in the pharaoh's ability to maintain cosmic balance

Dancing in the Wild Spaces of Love James H. Olthuis, 2022-06-08 In the twenty first century amid globalized violence rising demagogues and the climate emergency contemporary philosophers and theologians have begun to debate a fundamental question Is our reality the result of the overflowing ever present creativity of Love or the symptom of a traumatic rupture at the heart of all things Drawing on decades of research in postmodern philosophy and experience as a psychotherapist James H Olthuis wades into this discussion to propose a radical ontology of Love without metaphysics In dialogue with philosophers like John D Caputo Slavoj i ek Luce Irigaray and others Olthuis explores issues from divine sovereignty and the problem of evil to trauma and social ethics Experience in therapeutic work informs these investigations rooting them in journeys with individuals on the path to healing Olthuis makes the bold claim that while trauma pain and suffering are significant parts of our human lives nevertheless Love is with us to the very end Creation is a gift that comes with a call to make something of it ourselves a risky task we must take on with the promise that Love will win We are all dancing in the wild spaces of Love ex amore cum amore ad amorem
