Sacred Earth:

This Sacred Earth Roger S. Gottlieb, 2003-11-07 Updated with nearly forty new selections to reflect the tremendous growth and transformation of scholarly theological and activist religious environmentalism the second edition of This Sacred Earth is an unparalleled resource for the study of religion s complex relationship to the environment Refuge in Crestone Aaron Thomas Raverty, 2014-06-18 As globalization proceeds at an ever increasing and more unrelenting pace relations among the world s religions are taking on both a new visibility and a new urgency Christian theologians and others intent on innovative formulations in the theology of religions are making interreligious dialogue with non Christians a priority One way to promote creative scholarship in this quest is to tap into interdisciplinary resources and the author of this volume is uniquely qualified to do so since he holds graduate degrees in both theology and cultural anthropology Aaron Thomas Raverty s Refuge in Crestone A Sanctuary for Interreligious Dialogue elucidates how the praxis of interreligious dialogue as outlined in key Vatican documents in the Catholic Church could be better served by attending to the qualitative ethnographic methods of sociocultural anthropology Because the material behavioral and cognitive aspects of dialogue as revealed in daily life common social and political action religious experience and theological exchange are embedded in culture they are amenable to ethnographic analysis Using the unique multi religious Colorado site of Crestone and its environs as a fieldwork laboratory and self described Refuge for World Truths the ethnographic data gleaned from this project exemplify the creative interdisciplinary contributions of anthropology to theologizing It seeks to demonstrate using an empirical multi religious community as its focus how anthropology can support interreligious dialogue The results of such dialogue could not only assist the scholarly community by helping theologians arrive at new formulations in the burgeoning area of the theology of religions but might also serve the more practical goal of promoting peace as an alternative to violence in today s complex and sorely troubled world The Sacred Earth Brian Molyneaux, 1995 Sacred Earth, Sacred Soul John Philip Newell, 2021-07-06 A leading spiritual teacher reveals how Celtic spirituality listening to the sacred around us and inside of us can help us heal the earth overcome our conflicts and reconnect with ourselves John Philip Newell shares the long hidden tradition of Celtic Christianity explaining how this earth based spirituality can help us rediscover the natural rhythms of life and deepen our spiritual connection with God with each other and with the earth Newell introduces some of Celtic Christianity s leading practitioners both saints and pioneers of faith whose timeless wisdom is more necessary than ever including Pelagius who shows us how to look beyond sin to affirm our sacredness as part of all God s creation and courageously stand up for our principles in the face of oppression Brigid of Kildare who illuminates the interrelationship of all things and reminds us of the power of the sacred feminine to overcome those seeking to control us John Muir who encourages us to see the holiness and beauty of wilderness and what we must do to protect these gifts Teilhard de Chardin who inspires us to see how science faith and our future tell one universal story that begins with sacredness By embracing the wisdom of Celtic Christianity we can learn how to listen to the sacred and see the divine in all of creation and within each of us Human beings are inherently spiritual creatures who intuitively see the sacred in nature and within one another but our cultures and at times even our faiths have made us forget what each of us already know deep in our souls but have learned to suppress Sacred Earth Sacred Soul offers a new spiritual foundation for our lives once centered on encouragement guidance and hope for creating a better world Spirituality of Flowers Brid Kennedy,2024-10-24 As a child Br d Kennedy was fascinated with the beautiful scents colors and shapes of flowers They stirred something deep within that she could not name The mystery and beauty of flowers sparked her curiosity to develop her research question Is flower appreciation a participation in a Divine human transformation process and if so how is it being expressed Through a practice of authentic interiority striving towards beauty intelligibility truth goodness and love the author now realizes how interdependent humans are with all creation Flowers are an essential part of creation bringing in wisdom and healing Appreciating them is a participation in a Divine human transformation process expressed through our acknowledgement of the scent color shape and any changes in these through deeply knowing that something sacred is within them Taking precious moments to stand and smell flowers enriches the soul as it reminds people of who they are as humans and to care for Mother Earth Drawing on science spirituality studies psycho spiritual perspectives and historical and cultural literature awakened Kennedy s appreciation of beauty within Flowers are evidence of the purpose in the universe Consider and contemplate them in depth as this book invites and initiates The well being of one s body is not possible without the well being of the planet

Extinction and Religion Jeremy H. Kidwell,Stefan Skrimshire,2024-01-02 Human caused extinctions have never been so prominent in our political and cultural landscape Extinction and Religion is a collection of wide ranging chapters that explore the implications for religious faith and experience as it relates to a sixth mass extinction in Earth s history Further it seeks to answer the question as to how religious and spiritual practices are shaping responses to the crisis Edited by Jeremy H Kidwell and Stefan Skrimshire this collection aims to set a new postsecular agenda articulating the questions challenges and ways forward for thinking about religion in an age of mass extinction rather than provide responses from world religions in isolation It covers subjects such as the multitude of challenges posed by mass extinction to beliefs about the future of humanity death and the afterlife the integrity of creation and the relationship between human and nonhuman life Wide ranging and incisive Extinction and Religion amply demonstrates the many ways in which the threat of extinction profoundly affects our faith and religious life worlds Sacred Ceremony for a Sacred Earth Aniwa Council of Elders,2025-05-06
