

My love, ♥

See mine

This is not just talk. It truly comes from the heart. I am consumed by the desire to be with you, to talk to you, and to feel you near me. I want to hold you, laugh with you, cry with you. I want to play, walk, dance, and just be one with you. I think you could become my everything. I know I want to be everything to you.

When we are together, I see the love in your eyes. When you envision your future, do you see me in it, waiting with open arms? I love you truly, madly, deeply, and I anxiously await your response. Always,

Arwin ♥

Cinema as Therapy John Izod, Joanna Dovalis, 2014-12-17 Loss is an inescapable reality of life and individuals need to develop a capacity to grieve in order to mature and live life to the full Yet most western movie audiences live in cultures that do not value this necessary process and filmgoers finding themselves deeply moved by a particular film are often left wondering why In Cinema as Therapy John Izod and Joanna Dovalis set out to fill a gap in work on the conjunction of grief therapy and cinema Looking at films including Million Dollar Baby The Son's Room Birth and The Tree of Life Cinema as Therapy offers an understanding of how deeply emotional life can be stirred at the movies Izod and Dovalis note that cinema is a medium which engages people in a virtual dialogue with their own and their culture's unconscious more deeply than is commonly thought By analysing the meaning of each film and the root cause of the particular losses featured the authors demonstrate how our experiences in the movie theatre create an opportunity to prepare psychologically for the inevitable losses we must all eventually face In recognising that the movie theatre shares symbolic features with both the church and the therapy room the reader sees how it becomes a sacred space where people can encounter the archetypal and ease personal suffering through laughter or tears without inhibition or fear to reach a deeper understanding of themselves Cinema as Therapy will be essential reading for therapists students and academics working in film studies and looking to engage with psychological studies in depth as well as filmgoers who want to explore their relationship with the screen The book includes a glossary of Jungian and Freudian terms which enhances the clarity of the text and the understanding of the reader Jung & Film II Christopher Hauke, Luke Hockley, 2011 This book tackles the broader issues of film production and consumption the audience and the place of film culture in our lives The Independent, 1901 The Book of Touch Constance Classen, 2020-09-03 This book puts a finger on the nerve of culture by delving into the social life of touch our most elusive yet most vital sense From the tortures of the Inquisition to the corporeal comforts of modernity and from the tactile therapies of Asian medicine to the virtual tactility of cyberspace The Book of Touch offers excursions into a sensory territory both foreign and familiar How are masculine and feminine identities shaped by touch What are the tactile experiences of the blind or the autistic How is touch developed differently across cultures What are the boundaries of pain and pleasure Is there a politics of touch Bringing together classic writings and new work this is an essential guide for anyone interested in the body the senses and the experiential world Breaking the Fall Robert Detweiler, 1995-01-01 The power of his writing reminds us of the relative neglect of modern and post modern literature by most studies which are concerned with the relationship between literature and religion A Lover's Almanac Maureen Howard, 1999-01-01 One of the preeminent novelists of our time
