Spaces for the Sacred Philip Sheldrake, 2001-01-31 In Spaces for the Sacred Philip Sheldrake brilliantly reveals the connection between our rootedness in the places we inhabit and the construction of our personal and religious identities Based on the prestigious Hulsean Lectures he delivered at the University of Cambridge Sheldrake's book examines the sacred narratives which derive from both overtly religious sites such as cathedrals and secular ones like the Millennium Dome and it suggests how Christian theological and spiritual traditions may contribute creatively to current debates about place

The Politics of Sacred Places Nimrod Luz, 2023-09-07 The Politics of Sacred Places is a study of the socio political dimensions of sacred sites in Israel Palestine drawing on over 20 years of in depth ethnographic research which introduces cutting edge theories on secularization struggles for recognition and diversity issues This book focuses on contemporary sacred sites and their socio political meanings for minorities within a hegemonic and a secularizing state system It argues that sacred places provide a space that is less scrutinized by the state and where alternative visions of the socio political may be produced A plethora of sites and case studies are examined including the rural shrine of Maqam abu al Hijja in the lower Galilee the Mosque of Hassan Bek in the heart of Tel Aviv Jaffa and the most disputed sacred place in the region the Haram al Sharif in Jerusalem These sites are explored through mostly a phenomenological lens and in various contexts from the individual body to the global This book offers a critical analytical study of the socio political aspects of sacred sites in contemporary societies within the broader understanding of scale and the spatial turn in the study of religion

The Church Building as a Sacred Place Duncan Stroik, 2012 This collection of twenty three essays by Duncan Stroik shows the development and consistency of his architectural vision Packed with informative essays and over 170 photographs this collection clearly articulates the Church's architectural tradition      Sacred Space for the Missional Church William R. McAlpine, 2011-02-14 Sacred Space for the Missional Church examines the strong link between the theology and mission of the Church and the spaces in which and from which that theology and mission are lived out. The author demonstrates that the built environment is not incidental or even subservient to mission. Rather, it is a key player in the fulfillment and the communication of that mission. The book begins with a working definition of the missional church, underscoring the connection between God's mission (missio Dei) and the Church's mission. The reader is presented with historical and theological frameworks for sacred space and reminded of the pivotal role of the built environment in the fulfillment of the mission of the Church. The design and construction of sacred spaces are shown to be fundamentally a theological exercise and not solely a matter of function, pragmatics, and fiscal astuteness. The author questions the uncritical application of blanket statements such as "form must follow function" and challenges the conviction that it does not matter where worship occurs, only that it occurs. The book addresses genuine concerns such as legitimizing the cost of church buildings and concludes with practical suggestions and essential questions that must be considered in posturing the built environment within the missional praxis of the Church.

Sacred Sites of Minnesota John-Brian Paprock, Teresa Peneguy Paprock, 2004 For the traveler seeking to find the spirit, however he or she chooses to define that term, Minnesota is blessed with a large number of sacred sites, many of which are unique. This book profiles approximately 350 sites, including retreat centers, churches, temples, cemeteries, and effigy mounds. Learn about each site's history, uniqueness, aesthetic beauty, and awe. Specific location and contact information is also included.

Sacred Space: Shrine, City, Land Benjamin Z. Kedar, R.J. Zwi Werblowsky, 2016-07-27 Sacred Space: Shrine, City, Land is a collection of articles that deal with Holy Places from Antiquity to the present, from the lands of the Fertile Crescent to Europe, India, Japan, and Mexico, from mountains and seas to temples, cities, and countries. From the construction, perception, and functioning of sacred sites to the psychotic breakdowns they bring on some visitors.

The Dynamics of Pilgrimage Dee Dyas, 2020-10-08 This book offers a systematic chronological analysis of the role played by the human senses in experiencing pilgrimage and sacred places past and present. It thus addresses two major gaps in the existing literature by providing a broad historical narrative against which patterns of continuity and change can be more meaningfully discussed and focusing on the central but curiously neglected area of the core dynamics of pilgrim experience. Bringing together the still-developing fields of Pilgrimage Studies and Sensory Studies in a historically framed conversation, this interdisciplinary study traces the dynamics of pilgrimage and engagement with holy places from the beginnings of the Judeo-Christian tradition to the resurgence of interest evident in twenty-first-century England. Perspectives from a wide range of disciplines, from history to neuroscience, are used to examine themes including sacred sites in the Bible and Early Church, pilgrimage and holy places in early and later medieval England, the impact of the English Reformation, revival of pilgrimage and sacred places during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries, and the emergence of modern place-centred popular spirituality Addressing the resurgence of pilgrimage and its persistent link to the attachment of meaning to place this book will be a key reference for scholars of Pilgrimage Studies History of Religion Religious Studies Sensory Studies Medieval Studies and Early Modern Studies      Constructing Ethnic Identities Rachel Sharaby, 2022-05-20 This book deals with how starting in the 1960s immigrant groups in Israel constructed their ethnic identity by reviving their ethnic festivals and turning them into part of Israeli society For the immigrants these festivals serve as a collective definitional ceremony with an intersection of ethnicity culture and identity They also help them to develop cultural and religious syncretism The discussion of their social and political leaders ethnic activism provides important insights about the ways in which immigrant leaders employ their ethnic tradition as a resource for mobilizing cultural social and political capital that will facilitate their penetration of the cultural mainstream
