Sacred Remains Myth History And Polity In Belau:

The Sacred Remains Richard J. Parmentier, 1987-11-05 At one level this book is a compilation of political traditions of Belau in Micronesia from the divine foundation of political systems to the present day It offers an analysis of the structures and dynamics of Belauan history identifying several forms of order and some of their potentials for change Also the author develops a critique of standard approaches to history in small scale societies He argues for a semiotic approach that recognizes the historical consciousness of actors in the society under study Rebuilding Shattered Worlds Andrea L. Smith, Anna Eisenstein, 2016-10-01 An ethnography of the ways displaced residents remember the ethnic diversity of their neighborhood in a small city in eastern Pennsylvania destroyed in the name of urban renewal where memories linguistic patterns and material artifacts continue to animate people s everyday lives Ancestral Encounters in Highland

Madagascar Zoë Crossland, 2014-02-17 Nineteenth century highland Madagascar was a place inhabited by the dead as much as the living Ghosts ancestors and the possessed were important historical actors alongside local kings and queens soldiers traders and missionaries This book considers the challenges that such actors pose for historical accounts of the past and for thinking about questions of presence and representation How were the dead made present and how were they recognized or not In attending to these multifarious encounters of the nineteenth century how might we reflect on the ways in which our own history writing makes the dead present To tackle these questions Zo Crossland tells an anthropological history of highland Madagascar from a perspective rooted in archaeology and Peircean semiotics as well as in landscape study oral history and textual sources Colonial 'reformation' in the Highlands of Central Sulawesi, Indonesia, 1892-1995 Albert contemporary Pacific Islander mobilities and identities everywhere Pacific Island Heritage Jolie Liston, Geoffrey Richard Clark, Dwight Alexander, 2011-11-01 This volume emerges from a ground breaking conference held in the Republic of Palau on cultural heritage in the Pacific It includes bold investigations of the role of cultural heritage in identity making and the ways in which community engagement informs heritage management practices This is the first broad and detailed investigation of the unique and irreplaceable cultural heritage of the Pacific from a heritage management perspective It identifies new trends in research and assesses relationships between archaeologists heritage managers and local communities The methods which emerge from these relationships will be critical to the effective management of heritage sites in the 21st century A wonderful book which emerges from an extraordinary conference Essential reading for cultural heritage managers archaeologists and others with an interest in caring for the unique cultural heritage of the Pacific Islands

Reckoning with Change in Yucatán Jason Ramsey, 2023-11-30 Reckoning with Change in Yucatán engages with how best to look upon and respond to change arguing that this debate is an important arena for negotiating local belonging and a force of transformation in its own right For residents of Chunchucmil a historic rural community in Yucatán Mexico history is anything but straightforward Living in what is both a defunct 19th century hacienda estate and a vibrant Catholic pilgrimage site Chunchucmil os reckon past present and future in radically different ways For example while some use the aging estate buildings to weave a history of economic decline and push for revitalization by hotel developers others highlight the growing fame of the Virgin of the Rosary in the attached church and vow to defend the site from developer interference By exploring how past and future are channeled through changing built environments landscapes sacred relics and legal documents this ethnographic study details how the politics of change provide Chunchucmil with a common language for debating commitments to place and each another in the present Against Western notions of History as a relatively coherent account of change the book suggests we reframe it as an ongoing performance that is always fractured democratic and morally tinged
