Bryan Turner, Oscar Salemink

Sacred Revolutions Durkheim And The College De Sociologie:

Sacred Revolutions Michèle H. Richman, 2002 Sacred Revolutions Michèle H. Richman, 2002 It seems improbable but the most radical cultural iconoclasts of the interwar years OCo Georges Bataille Roger Caillois and Michel Leiris OCo responded to the rise of fascism by taking refuge in a sacred sociology Michèle H. Richman examines this seemingly paradoxical development in this book which traces the overall implications for French social thought of the ethnographic detour that began with Durkheim OCo his interest in Australian aboriginal religion OCo implications that reach back to the Revolution of 1789 and forward to the student protests of May 1968 The Columbia History of Twentieth-century French Thought Lawrence D. Kritzman, Brian J. Reilly, M. B. DeBevoise, 2006 This valuable reference is an authoritative guide to 20th century French thought It considers the intellectual figures movements and publications that helped define fields as diverse as history psychoanalysis film philosophy and economics Sacred Surrealism, Dissidence and International Avant-Garde Prose Vivienne Brough-Evans, 2016-05-05 Vivienne Brough Evans proposes a compelling new way of reevaluating aspects of international surrealism by means of the category of divin fou and consequently deploys theories of sacred ecstasy as developed by the Collège de Sociologie 1937-39 as a critical tool in shedding new light on the literary oeuvre of non-French writers who worked both within and against a surrealist framework The minor surrealist genre of prose literature is considered herein rather than surrealism's mainstay poetry with the intention of fracturing preconceptions regarding the medium of surrealist expression The aim is to explore whether International surrealism can begin to be more fully explained by an occluded strain of dissident surrealist thought that searches outside the self through the affects of ekstasis Bretonian surrealism is widely discussed in the field of surrealist studies and there is a need to consider what is left out of surrealist practice when analysed through this Bretonian lens The Collège de Sociologie and Georges Bataille's theories provide a model of such elements of dissident surrealism which is used to analyse surrealist or surrealist-influenced prose by Alejo Carpentier Leonora Carrington and Gellu Naum respectively representing postcolonial feminist and Balkan locutions The Collège and Bataille's dissident surrealism diverges significantly from the concerns and approach towards the subject explored by surrealism Using the concept of ekstasis to organise Bataille's theoretical ideas of excess and inner experience and the Collège's thoughts on the sacred it is possible to propose a new way of reading types of International surrealist literature many of which do not come to the forefront of the surrealist literary oeuvre The New Blackwell Companion to the Sociology of Religion Bryan S. Turner, 2016-10-03 THE NEW BLACKWELL COMPANION TO THE Sociology of Religion I enjoyed reading this book for its in-depth examination of the complexities of the social forces that are shaping and are being shaped by religious groups around the world I certainly see this being of theoretical value for researchers engaging the new religious realities of our world Sociology of Religion: A Quarterly Review The new companion is a timely and valuable work validly updating the original companion and a good addition to the reference shelves of any academic or specialist library Reference Reviews Reflecting recent developments in the field this companion provides a comprehensive introduction to the sociology of religion with a clear emphasis on comparative and historical approaches Covering all the areas relevant to undergraduate courses in this area the Companion begins by laying down the anthropological and sociological foundations of the study of religion and their contemporary developments It continues with an analysis of both traditional and contemporary forms of organization such as church sect typologies as well as megachurches and modern forms of spirituality The secularization and post secular society debates are considered in depth along with the globalization process fundamentalism charismatic movements and revivalism It also discusses the sociology of Buddhism Christianity Hinduism Islam Judaism and religions of China as well as the areas of American exceptionalism from de Tocqueville onwards religious nationalism women and piety movements and the spirituality of Native American communities Considering new developments in social theory and religion the collection concludes with a discussion of recent work that attempts to understand the future of religion blending the sociology of modern societies anthropological ethnography and philosophical inquiry Critical Mass Steven Ungar, 2018-08-21 Thirty five years of nonfiction films offer a unique lens on twentieth century French social issues Critical Mass is the first sustained study to trace the origins of social documentary filmmaking in France back to the late 1920s Steven Ungar argues that socially engaged nonfiction cinema produced in France between 1945 and 1963 can be seen as a delayed response to what filmmaker Jean Vigo referred to in 1930 as a social cinema whose documented point of view would open the eyes of spectators to provocative subjects of the moment Ungar identifies Vigo s manifesto his 1930 short propos de Nice and late silent era films by Georges Lacombe Boris Kaufman Andr Sauvage and Marcel Carn as antecedents of postwar documentaries by Eli Lotar Ren Vautier Alain Resnais Chris Marker and Jean Rouch associated with critiques of colonialism and modernization in Fourth and early Fifth Republic France Close readings of individual films alternate with transitions to address transnational practices as well as state and industry wide reforms between 1935 and 1960 Critical Mass is an indispensable complement to studies of nonfiction film in France from Georges Lacombe s La Zone 1928 to Chris Marker s Le Joli Mai 1963 Georges Bataille Mark Hewson, Marcus Coelen, 2015-12-14 Georges Bataille 1897 1962 was a philosopher writer and literary critic whose work has had a significant impact across disciplines as diverse as philosophy sociology economics art history and literary criticism as well as influencing key figures in post modernist and post structuralist philosophy such as Jacques Derrida and Michel Foucault In recent years the number of works published on Georges Bataille as well as the variety of contexts in which his work is invoked has markedly increased In Georges Bataille Key Concepts an international team of contributors provide an accessible introduction to and survey of Bataille s thought The editors introduction provides an overview of Bataille s work while the chapters in the first section cover the social political artistic and philosophical contexts that shaped his thought In the second part each chapter engages with a key theme in Bataille s philosophy including art eroticism evil inner experience heterology religion sacrifice and sovereignty The final chapter addresses Bataille's literary writings Georges Bataille Key Concepts is an invaluable guide for students from across the Humanities and Social Sciences coming to Bataille's work for the first time Contributors Giulia Agostini Elisabeth Arnould Bloomfield Tiina Arppe Marcus Coelen Simonetta Falasca Zamponi Patrick French Marina Galletti Nadine Hartmann Mark Hewson Andrew Hussey Stuart Kendall Claire Nioche Gerhard Poppenberg and Michelle Richman

Weird Mysticism Brad Baumgartner, 2020-11-17 Weird Mysticism identifies and evaluates a new category of theoretical inquiry by showing the influence of speculative writing on three intersecting critical categories horror fiction apophatic mysticism and philosophical pessimism Exploring the work of Thomas Ligotti Georges Bataille and E M Cioran Baumgartner argues that these weird mystics employ an innovative mode of negative writing that seeks to merge new conceptions of reality While exploring perennial questions about the absolute the Outside and other philosophical concepts these authors push the limits of representation experimenting with literary form genre bending and aphoristic discourse As their works reveal the category of weird mysticism both conjoins and obscures the link between traditional mysticism and philosophical horror fiction with weirdness itself being the central magnet that draws the seemingly disparate realms of horror fiction philosophy and mysticism together Highlighting the theoretical stakes of the horror genre Baumgartner's study reveals how the mystical potentially recuperates the limits of philosophical thinking enabling reflection on and possibly challenging the limits of human understanding

Suffering and Evil W. S. F. Pickering, Massimo Rosati, 2012 Until recently the subject of suffering and evil was neglected in the sociological world and was almost absent in Durkheimian studies as well This book aims to fill the gap with particular reference to the Durkheimian tradition by exploring the different meanings that the concepts of evil and suffering have in Durkheim's works together with the general role they play in his sociology It also examines the meanings and roles of these concepts in relation to suffering and evil in the work of other authors within the group of the Ann e sociologique up until the beginning of World War II Finally the Durkheimian legacy in its wider aspects is assessed with particular reference to the importance of the Durkheimian categories in understanding and conceptualizing contemporary forms of evil and suffering
