Logic and Contemporary Rhetoric Nancy Cavender,Howard Kahane,2012

Modern Rhetoric in Culture, Arts, and Media Joachim Knape,2012-12-19 The goal of this book is to formulate a modern theoretical approach for rhetorical studies in a variety of disciplines in the humanities media research and other cultural studies The discipline of rhetoric originally concerned itself with linguistic forms of communication and its basic theory was developed with such cases in mind With respect to this ancient tradition there are numerous books that provide a historical overview of the field There is also a wide array of introductory works and research contributions that deal with the practice of political rhetoric On the other hand only a few 20th century academics have attempted to theoretically rehabilitate rhetoric after its decline as an academic discipline in Europe in the 18th and 19th centuries and to give rhetorical theory a modern new and further reaching perspective Two notable examples have been Kenneth Burke and Brian Vickers The book begins with the assumption that rhetoric is not merely limited to linguistic action but rather is present everywhere in the communicative world Against this background this work develops a modern theory of rhetoric and demonstrates in twelve chapters how methodical rhetorical analysis can be done in selected practical fields of application Literature Music Images and Film

Film in Contemporary Southeast Asia David C. L. Lim, Hiroyuki Yamamoto, 2012-03-12 This book discusses contemporary film in all the main countries of Southeast Asia and the social practices and ideologies which films either represent or oppose It shows how film acquires signification through cultural interpretation and how film also serves as a site of contestations between social and political agents seeking to promote challenge or erase certain meanings messages or ideas from public circulation A unique feature of the book is that it focuses as much on films as it does on the societies from which these films emerge it considers the reasons for film makers taking the positions they take the positions and counter positions taken the response of different communities and the extent to which these interventions are connected to global flows of culture and capital The wide range of subjects covered include documentaries as political interventions in Singapore political film makers collectives in the Philippines and films about prostitution in Cambodia and patriotism in Malaysia and the Chinese in Indonesia The book analyses films from Burma Laos Cambodia Vietnam Thailand Malaysia Singapore Indonesia and the Philippines across a broad range of productions such as mainstream and independent features across genres for example comedy patriotic political historical genres alongside documentary classic and diasporic films Noon at Five O'Clock Arthur Yap, 2014-04-21 This volume marks the recovery and first combined publication of the stories of Arthur Yap one of Singapore s most accomplished and important writers A hitherto neglected facet of Yap s opus his eight short stories are deceptive in their simplicity housing within their sparse prose a complex engagement with Singapore society from which he wrote With his signature minimalistic style Yap simultaneously perplexes readers with stories of seemingly plotless ambiguity yet draws them in with familiar characters playing out situations that still resonate in twenty first century Singapore today Angus Whitehead s introduction highlights literary nuances in the stories and frames the stories within the wider backdrop of social change of Singapore at the time of Yap s writing The meticulous critical apparatus make this book of interest to not only the general reader but also students of Singapore and Southeast Asian literature in English

Knowledge, Control and Critical Thinking in Singapore Leonel Lim,2015-09-07 This book examines how critical thinking is regulated in Singapore through the process of what the influential sociologist of education Basil Bernstein termed pedagogic recontextualization The ability of critical thinking to speak to alternative possibilities and individual autonomy as well as its assumptions of a liberal arrangement of society is problematized in Singapore s socio political climate By examining how such curricular discourses are taken up and enacted in the classrooms of two schools that cater to very different groups in society the book foregrounds the role of traditional high status knowledge in the elaboration of class formation and develops a critical understanding of post developmental state initiatives linked to the parable of modernization in Singapore Knowledge Control and Critical Thinking in Singapore offers chapters on Critical Thinking and the Singapore State Meritocracy Illiberalism and Neoliberalism Sacred Knowledge and Elite Dispositions Recontextualizing Critical Thinking in an Elite School Power Knowledge and Symbolic Control Official Pedagogic Identities and the Politics of Recontextualization This book will appeal to scholars in comparative education studies curriculum studies and education reform It will also interest scholars engaged in Asian studies who are struggling to understand issues of education policy formation and implementation particularly in the areas of critical thinking and other knowledge skills

Fieldwork in Humanities Education in Singapore Teddy Y.H. Sim,Hwee Hwang Sim,2021-02-20 This book addresses the topic of humanities education fieldwork using the Singapore context as its primary focus It explores how the thought processes behind and techniques of various humanities and social sciences subjects can be applied to fieldwork in a variety of school and training settings In addition it discusses how humanities students and educators could stand to benefit from utilizing fieldwork techniques and skills used in archaeology and anthropology beyond undergraduates majoring in that discipline Finally the adoption of multidisciplinary approaches in fieldwork incorporating history geography literature and social studies demonstrate how these subjects can collaborate together in actual case studies to facilitate participants learning in the field

Asianism and the Politics of Regional Consciousness in Singapore Leong Yew,2013-11-20 Over the last two decades Singapore has undergone a substantial degree of Asianization Apart from participating in the Asian values debate of the 1990s re visioning itself as New Asia and a global Asian hub and establishing Asian identities for the commodities it consumes and produces Singapore has also repurposed its modernity cultures and ethos along similar regionalist precepts However even in recent times Singapore continues to vacillate ambivalently between identifying with and differentiating itself from Asia Responding to the challenges Singapore faces in coming to terms with its Asian identity this book examines the complex cultural social and political underpinnings that have shaped Singapore s mainstream discourse on Asia Indeed it argues that its legacy as a colonial port city the exigencies of managing the post independence nation state and the larger forces of imperialism and capitalism all contribute to its politics of Asianism Taking a thoroughly interdisciplinary approach that spans history cultural studies postcolonialism and cultural geography Leong Yew reveals how Asia has been used to narrate Singapore s beginnings revalidate Singaporean ethnic culture and to consolidate its practices of consumption and commodification This book will be welcomed by students and scholars working across a range of fields including Asian culture and society Asian politics cultural theory and postcolonial studies
