Shaman Or Sherlock The Native American Detective:

Shaman or Sherlock? Gina Macdonald, Andrew F. Macdonald, 2001-11-30 Fictional depictions of Native American concepts of justice crime and the investigation of crime are explored in this original work Shaman or Sherlock explores depictions created by Native American authors themselves as well as those created by outsiders with mainstream agendas The most successful of these writers fuse authentic Native American culture with standard genre conventions thus providing an appealing empathetic view of little understood or underappreciated groups as well as insight into issues of cross cultural communication Dealing with such significant concepts as acculturation regional diversity and assimilation this unique study evaluates over 200 detective stories Though the crime novel began in Europe as a manifestation of Enlightenment rationality and scientific methodology the Native American detective story moves into the realm of the spiritual and intuitive often incorporating depictions of non material phenomena Shaman or Sherlock explores how geographical and tribal differences degrees of assimilation and the evolution of age old cultural patterns shape the Native American detective story Shaman Or Sherlock? Gina Macdonald, Native American Mystery Writing Mary Stoecklein, 2019-04-04 Though mystery crime and detective fiction are some of the most popular genres in the world little scholarship currently exists regarding Native American writers and how they add new dimensions to this widely read literary form Rather the majority of scholarship examines the depiction of Native characters from the perspective of non Native authors Native American Mystery Writing Indigenous Investigations analyzes how Native authors use the genre to foreground centuries of settler colonial crimes and comment upon the ways in which these acts continue to impact Native individuals and communities today Considering fourteen novels and two made for TV films this book surveys a spectrum of settler colonial crimes the Osage oil murders sexual assault against Native women missing and murdered Indigenous women the California mission system suppression of spiritual beliefs theft of land children and cultural items and of course murder Examination of these texts shows how Native authors working with the mystery crime and detective fiction formats are able to entertain readers while also sending strong social cultural and political messages that argue for strengthened tribal sovereignty and illustrate the resilience of Indigenous peoples all in order to promote discussions about creating a more just system for Native Nations Robert van Gulik and His Chinese Sherlock Holmes Sabrina Yuan Hao, 2023-09-20 In the post war mid century Robert van Gulik produced a series of stories set in Imperial China and featuring a Chinese Judge Judge Dee This book examines the author s unprecedented effort in hybridising two heterogenous crime writing traditions traditional Chinese gong an court case fiction and its Anglo American counterpart bringing to light how his fiction draws elements from these two traditions for plots narrative features visual images and gender representation Relying on research on various sources and literary traditions it provides illumination of the historical contexts centring on the cultural interaction and connectedness that occurred during the multidirectional global flows of the Judge Dee texts in both western and Chinese markets This study contributes to current scholarship on crime fiction by questioning its predominantly Eurocentric focus and the divisive post colonial approach often adopted in accessing works concerning foreign peoples and cultures Crime Fiction and National Identities in the Global Age Julie H. Kim, 2020-05-25 To read a crime novel today largely simulates the exercise of reading newspapers or watching the news The speed and frequency with which today's bestselling works of crime fiction are produced allow them to mirror and dissect nearly contemporaneous socio political events and conflicts This collection examines this phenomenon and offers original critical essays on how national identity appears in international crime fiction in the age of populism and globalization These essays address topics such as the array of competing nationalisms in Europe Indian secularism versus Hindu communalism the populist rhetoric tinged with misogyny or homophobia in the United States racial religious or ethnic others who are sidelined in political appeals to dominant native voices and the increasing economic chasm between a rich and poor More broadly these essays inquire into themes such as how national identity and various conceptions of masculinity are woven together how dominant native cultures interact with migrant and colonized cultures to explore insider outsider paradigms and identity politics and how generic and cultural boundaries are repeatedly crossed in postcolonial detective fiction Native American Writers Harold Bloom, Sterling Professor of Humanities Harold Bloom, 2010 Presents a collection of critical essays analyzing modern Native American writers including Joy Harjo Louise Erdrich James Welch and more The Extraordinary Book of Native American Lists Arlene Hirschfelder, Paulette F. Molin, 2012-03-22 While Native Americans are perhaps the most studied people in our society they too often remain the least understood and visible Fictions and stereotypes predominate obscuring substantive and fascinating facts about Native societies The Extraordinary Book of Native American Lists works to remedy this problem by compiling fun unique and significant facts about Native groups into one volume complete with references to additional online and print resources In this volume readers can learn about Native figures from a diverse range of cultures and professions including award winning athletes authors filmmakers musicians and environmentalists Readers are introduced to Native U S senators Medal of Freedom winners Medal of Honor recipients Major League baseball players and U S Olympians as well as a U S vice president a NASA astronaut a National Book Award recipient and a Pulitzer Prize winner Other categories found in this book are History Stereotypes and Myths Tribal Government Federal Tribal Relations State Tribal Relations Native Lands and Environmental Issues Health Religion Economic Development Military Service and War Education Native Languages Science and Technology Food Visual Arts Literary and Performing Arts Film Music and Dance Print Radio and Television Sports and Games Exhibitions Pageants and Shows Alaska Natives Native Hawaiians Urban Indians Including further fascinating facts this wonderful resource will be a great addition not only to tribal libraries but to public and academic libraries individuals and scholars as well The Routledge History of Crime in America James Campbell, Vivien Miller, 2024-12-27 Covering a broad chronology from the colonial era to the present this volume's 28 chapters reflect the diverse approaches interests and findings of an international group of new and established scholars working on American crime histories today The book is organized around major themes in crime history including violence science and technology culture gender and organized crime and it addresses pressing contemporary concerns such as mass incarceration and the racial politics of crime in modern America It also engages with the history of crime literature film and popular culture from colonial execution sermons to true crime television in the twenty first century The volume is alert to continuities and diversity over time and place in the history of American crime notably in chapters on the South the West and the impact of urbanization on practices and ideas about crime and law enforcement in different periods of the American past The Routledge History of Crime in America is an indispensable interdisciplinary resource for students and researchers working in areas of crime crime policy punishment policing and incarceration
