Department of Printed Books, 1969 Landscapes of Realism Svend Erik Larsen, Steen Bille Jørgensen, Margaret R. Higonnet, 2022-03-15 Few literary phenomena are as elusive and yet as persistent as realism While it responds to the perennial impulse to use literature to reflect on experience it also designates a specific set of literary and artistic practices that emerged in response to Western modernity Landscapes of Realism is a two volume collaborative interdisciplinary investigation of this vast territory bringing together leading edge new criticism on the realist paradigms that were first articulated in nineteenth century Europe but have since gone on globally to transform the literary landscape Tracing the manifold ways in which these paradigms are developed discussed and contested across time space cultures and media this second volume shows in its four core essays and twenty four case studies four major pathways through the landscapes of realism The psychological pathways focusing on emotion and memory the referential pathways highlighting the role of materiality the formal pathways demonstrating the dynamics of formal experiments and the geographical pathways exploring the worlding of realism through the encounters between European and non European languages from the nineteenth century to the present This volume is part of a book set which can be ordered at a special discount The Palgrave Handbook of Literature and the City Jeremy Tambling, 2017-02-17 This book is about the impact of literature upon cities world wide and cities upon literature It examines why the city matters so much to contemporary critical theory and why it has inspired so many forms of writing which have attempted to deal with its challenges to think about it and to represent it Gathering together 40 contributors who look at different modes of writing and film making in throughout the world this handbook asks how the modern city has engendered so much theoretical consideration and looks at cities and their literature from China to Peru from New York to Paris from London to Kinshasa It looks at some of the ways in which modern cities whether capitals shanty towns industrial or rust belt have forced themselves on people s ways of thinking and writing La Tribuna: Translated with Commentary Emilia Pardo Bazán (condesa de), 2017 Emilia Pardo Bazán was born in the Galician town of A Coruña into a noble family who nurtured her lifelong thirst for knowledge She is undoubtedly the most controversial influential and prolific Spanish female writer of the nineteenth century publishing a vast number of essays social commentaries articles reviews poems plays novels novellas and short stories Her third novel La Tribuna heralds a new age in Spanish literature a naturalist work of fiction that examines the situation of contemporary women workers The author s preparation for the novel involved reading and consulting contemporary pamphlets and newspapers as well as spending two months in a Galician tobacco factory observing and listening to conversations This method common in English writers like Dickens and frequently adopted in France by the masters of Realism was almost unprecedented in Spain Set against a background of turmoil and civil unrest La Tribuna reflects the author s interest in the position of women in Spanish society

The working class heroine Amparo develops from a shapeless apolitical street urchin into a masterpiece of femininity a charismatic orator who becomes a tribune of the people At the same time however she allows herself to be seduced by a prosperous middle class youth whose promises prove to be just as empty as the revolutionary slogans in which she believes so fervently
