The First World War and Its Aftermath T. G Fraser, T.G. Fraser, 2015-09-15 Think of a map of World War I and chances are that map will be of Europe but the First World War had just as heavy an impact on the Middle East shaping the region into what we know it as today This book gathers together leading scholars in the field to examine this impact which is crucial to understanding the region's current problems and the rise of groups like the Islamic State In addition to recounting the crucial international politics that drew fierce lines in the sands of the Middle East a story of intrigue between the British Russians Ottomans North Africans Americans and others the contributors engage topics ranging from the war's effects on women the experience of the Kurds sectarianism the evolution of Islamism and the importance of prominent intellectuals like Ziya G kalp and Michel Aflaq They examine the dissolution of the Ottoman empire the exploitation of notions of Islamic unity and pan Arabism the influences of Woodrow Wilson and American ideals on Middle East leaders and likewise the influence of Vladimir Lenin's vision of a communist utopia Altogether they tell a story of promises made and promises broken of the struggle between self determination and international recognition of centuries old empires laying in ruin and of the political poker of the twentieth century that carved up the region separating communities into the artificial states we know today

Passion for Islam Caryle Murphy, 2002-10-22 Islam's revival is reshaping Egypt and other Arab countries in ways beyond violent politics The yearning for personal solace a just political system indigenous lifestyles and relevant theology all await satisfaction Just as the Nile runs through Egypt for almost eight hundred miles giving it life so also the Straight Way the way of Allah runs through it beckoning its people The search by Egypt's Muslims for a modern understanding of the Straight Way is the essence of today's passion for Islam from Chapter 1 First Verses Written by a Pulitzer Prize winning journalist this authoritative and enthralling primer on the modern face of Islam provides one of the most comprehensive accountings for the roots of religious terrorism and Middle Eastern strife Over decades a myriad of social political and religious factors has made today s Middle East a combustible region and has contributed to Islam s new power and turmoil Passion for Islam uses one particular country Egypt as a lens through which to show how these forces play out across the area allowing terrorism to gain a foothold Through the personal experiences and observations of individual Egyptians encountered during her five years as the Washington Post s Cairo bureau chief veteran journalist Caryle Murphy explores how Islam s contemporary revival is unfolding on four different levels Pious Islam highlights the groundswell of grassroots piety that has created more Islamic societies Political Islam examines how Islamists using both violent and peaceful means are reshaping the region s authoritarian secular political order and redefining Islam s role in the public arena Cultural Islam looks at Egyptian efforts to resist a ubiquitous Western culture by asserting an Islamic identity Thinking Islam reveals how intellectuals are reexamining their theological heritage with the aim of modernizing Islam Representing years of exhaustive research Passion for Islam also looks at how the tortured Israeli Palestinian conflict has contributed to the region s religious ferment and political tumult By revealing the day to day ramifications of all these issues through the eyes of Egyptian intellectuals holy men revolutionaries and ordinary citizens Passion for Islam brings an unparalleled vitality and depth to Western perceptions of Middle Eastern conflict

What Virgins? Ibn Warraq, 2010-04-27 In this wide ranging collection of insightful controversial and often witty essays the renowned author of Why I Am Not a Muslim has created a representative selection of his best work on the Koran and various problems posed by the interaction of Islam with the West The title of the collection comes from an article that originally appeared in the London Guardian on recent textual studies of the Koran This research suggests that contrary to a longstanding Muslim belief about the afterlife a harem of beautiful virgins may not be waiting for the faithful male departed in heaven For the many readers of his books who have wondered about his background the author begins with a charming personal sketch about his upbringing in England and his unabashed Anglophilia A section on Koranic criticism includes excerpts from two of his books What the Koran Really Says and Which Koran No stranger to controversy and polemics the author devotes two sections to articles that consider the totalitarian nature of contemporary political Islam and explore the potential for an Islamic Reformation comparable to the Protestant Reformation in the West The concluding section is composed of Ibn Warraq s journalism including a critique of reputed Muslim reformer Tariq Ramadan a defense of Western culture Why the West Is Best an article about the Danish cartoons that provoked widespread Muslim outrage and even a commentary on heavy metal music in a Muslim setting This thoughtful engaging collection on diverse topics will interest both longtime readers of Ibn Warraq and those new to his work Finding Antiquity, Making the Modern Middle East Guillemette Crouzet, Eva Miller, 2025-06-12 This volume presents innovative studies of how the emerging disciplines of archaeology and ancient history shaped the modern Middle East and how they were in turn shaped by competing visions and agendas of empires and new nations The Middle East was a region constructed through its putatively unique relationship to the whole world's past and its special relevance for the destiny of empires and nations Over the course of the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries European empires fought for influence and control over this cradle of civilization empire and monuments and local powers and people in the Middle East worked with and against these historical and heritage frameworks in their own quests for self determination In this volume contributors from the fields of history archaeology and heritage explore how historical consciousness about the Middle East was contested in the nineteenth and early twentieth century through excavation and interpretation of the past Chapters span West Asia and North Africa covering Turkey Iraq Iran Syria Lebanon Israel Palestine Egypt and Tunisia and the imperial history of Britain France Germany and the Ottoman Empire The result is an original contribution to our understanding of the origins and influence of Middle Eastern archaeology which resonates today in contemporary discussions on heritage discourses and practices
