Shaping With Data: Using Pharmacoepidemiology to Shape Pharmaceutical Policy and Clinical Decision-Making Mina Tadrous, Andrea Burden, 2022-11-15 Shaping the Landscape Stephanie Burridge, Julie Dyson, 2020-11-29 This the fourth book in the series Celebrating Dance in Asia and the Pacific explores the current dance scene in Australia from a wide perspective that mirrors the creative engagement of artists with Australian culture and the landscape It looks at Indigenous dance choreography beyond theatre youth and community dance Australian dancers versatility and risk taking The comprehensive essays recount immigrant influences the legacy of the Ballets Russes and Bodenwieser companies dance on stage and screen education and training and the story of Ausdance the unique nation wide voice and political advocacy organisation for dance Sydney Secrets Oliver Scott, AI, 2025-02-20 Sydney Secrets unveils the layers of Sydney revealing its Aboriginal heritage colonial past and modern evolution It explores the city beyond typical tourist destinations diving into the interconnected histories that have shaped its unique identity The book reveals intriguing facts such as how the gold rush era and the World Wars impacted Sydney's growth into a global city It also examines the enduring legacy of the Aboriginal peoples and the transformations brought about by European colonization The book progresses chronologically starting with pre colonial Aboriginal history and moving through the arrival of the First Fleet the gold rush and Sydney's emergence as a global hub Supported by historical documents archaeological research and anthropological studies Sydney Secrets offers a comprehensive and nuanced understanding prioritizing marginalized voices This approach provides valuable insights for history enthusiasts travelers and anyone interested in urban development and cultural identity emphasizing the complex tapestry that makes up Sydney's character Sydney's Food Landscapes Joshua Zeunert, Alys Daroy, 2025-06-20 The story of Sydney's metropolitan food landscapes is one of dramatic transformations of First Nations land amidst jostles for power and wealth This book unearths Sydney's lost commercial agriculture since colonisation in 1788 to assess its fragile food futures Richly illustrated 270 images are encapsulated within 110 figures including an array of original metropolitan scale mappings Discussion traverses the city's diverse cultural influences from Indigenous land management to British pastoralism Chinese cultivation of Sydney's backyard vegetable garden and southern European farming spawning billion dollar empires The region has further been shaped by a vast array of cultural and ideological factors and material practices with relevance to planning policy ethics geography heritage art design and technology This book is the first to bring Sydney's disparate post colonial food histories together in one volume to explore the dynamics and tensions between urban growth and food production The relevance of Sydney's food landscapes therefore extends far wider than the city itself with implications for countless regions worldwide in a time of increasing climate and resource precarity Sydney Beaches Caroline Ford, 2014-10-01 Shark attacks and sewage slicks lifesavers and surfers amusement parks and beach camps the beach is Sydney's most iconic landscape feature From Palm Beach in the north to Cronulla in the south Sydney's coastline teems with life People from around the city escape to the beaches to swim surf play and lie in the sun Sydney Beaches tells the story of how Sydneysiders developed their love of the beach from 19th century picnickers to the surfing and sun baking pioneers a century later But Sydney s beaches have another history one that is lesser known and more intriguing Our world famous beach culture only exists because the first beachgoers demanded important rights This book is also the story of these battles for the beach Accompanied by vibrant images of Sydney s surf sand and sun worship this expansive and delightful book is the story of how a city developed a relationship with its ocean coast and how a nation created a culture A Forger's Progress Alasdair McGregor,2014-11-01 A forger and convicted felon Francis Greenway was transported to Sydney in 1814 Only a decade later his dreams of a city superior in architectural beauty to London began to be realized as he designed Hyde Park Barracks St James Church the Supreme Court St Luke s Church in Liverpool and the Windsor courthouse In this first biography of Greenway since 1953 award winning author Alasdair McGregor scrutinizes the character and creative output of a man beset by contradictions and demons He profiles Greenway s landmark buildings his complex and fraught relationship with Governor Lachlan Macquarie and his thwarted ambitions and self destruction Architectural Conservation in Australia, New Zealand and the Pacific Islands John Stubbs,William Chapman,Julia Gatley,Ross King,2023-12-22 The fourth in a series that documents architectural conservation in different parts of the world Architectural Conservation in Australia New Zealand and the Pacific Islands National Experiences and Practice addresses cultural heritage protection in a region which comprises one third of the Earth s surface In response to local needs Australia New Zealand and the Pacific Islands have developed some of the most important and influential techniques legislation doctrine and theories in cultural heritage management in the world The evolution of the heritage protection ethos and contemporary architectural conservation practices in Australia and Oceania are discussed on a national and regional basis using ample illustrations and examples Accomplishments in architectural conservation are discussed in their national and international contexts with an emphasis on original developments solutions and contributions made to the overall field Enriched with essays contributed from fifty nine specialists and thought leaders in the field this book contains an extraordinary breadth and depth of research and synthesis on the why s and how s of cultural heritage conservation Its holistic approach provides an essential resource and reference for students academics researchers policy makers practitioners and all who are interested in conserving the built environment Museum Robyn Stacey,Ashley Hay,2007-10-24 When the first British visitors arrived on Australia s shores at the end of the eighteenth century it was not only the potential of its space that tantalised them but the extraordinary living things that they found there Every European collector worth his salt desired a kangaroo a parakeet a waratah and ship after ship sailed north loaded with Australia s remarkable natural history specimens In 1826 the most serious collector to make his own trip to the antipodes arrived his name was Alexander Macleay and over 70 years he and his family accumulated an unbelievably rich and diverse collection of specimens from Australia itself and beyond Museum throws open the doors of a historically rich and rare collection stunningly captured in the images of Robyn Stacey It reclaims the stories of those specimens and those obsessions revealing another chapter of Australia s own very particular passionate and unique history

Making Space Andrew MacLaran,2014-04-04 Making Space studies the built environment by examining the private sector forces responsible for its development and the urban planning systems put in place to influence guide and manipulate its outcomes The first part provides a theoretical context for understanding the functions of the property development sector and the state s interventions through the medium of urban planning It analyses the relationship between planning and development and focuses on the increasingly widespread adoption of more pro active entrepreneurial planning agendas as a response to a growing disenchantment with traditional regulatory approaches The second part comprises case studies drawn from Australia New Zealand the USA the United Kingdom and Ireland which investigate the ways in which urban planning in different socio political contexts has influenced the outcomes of the property development process as well as the manner in which such planning systems have changed in order to enhance their influence

How to Build a Global City Michele Acuto,2022-01-15 In How to Build a Global City Michele Acuto considers the rise of a new generation of so called global cities Singapore Sydney and Dubai and the power that this concept had in their ascent in order to analyze the general relationship between global city theory and its urban public policy practice The global city is often invoked in theory and practice as an ideal model of development and a logic of internationalization for cities the world over But the global city also creates deep social polarization and challenges how much local planning can achieve in a world economy Presenting a unique elite ethnography in Singapore Sydney and Dubai Acuto discusses the global urban discourses aspirations and strategies vital to the planning and management of such metropolitan growth The global city he shows is not one single idea but a complex of ways to imagine a place to be global and aspirations to make it so often deeply steeped in politics His resulting book is a call to reconcile proponents and critics of the global city toward a more explicit engagement with the politics of this global urban imagination
