VOLUME 7 Play It On My Radio Giselle Renarde, 1991 Join award winning queer Canadian author Giselle Renarde for a year's worth of music and memories As we listen to songs from a variety of genres Giselle shares anecdotes about growing up in the 80s being a teen of the 90s and listening to the radio on those long and lonely nights in her first apartment Accompany Giselle on a musical journey as she revisits the days of her youth through song From the introduction to Play It On My Radio My name is Giselle and I'm your new best friend Well maybe not best friend A best friend usually listens in addition to talking but that's not me What I will do is be here every day to share whichever song pops into my head Why What's the point Well here's the thing I'm a writer It's a pretty lonely job Over the years I've become increasingly socially isolated and you know what It sucks It sucks bad The truth of the matter is that a lot of us are socially isolated these days And not just older people younger ones too There are friendly visitor programs for seniors but those of us under 65 are kind of lost at sea I speak from experience If you need a no pressure visit every day let me be your friendly visitor I'll bring a song whichever song pops into my head gets stuck in my head or seems relevant to something that day As a person with chronic depression music has helped me more than anything It's magic I swear I hope my little musical visits will give you something to look forward to every day because they'll certainly do that for me
