She Fulfilled The Impossible Dream:

She Fulfilled the Impossible Dream DeWitt S. Williams, 2016-01-18 Eva Beatrice Dykes Hearing her name she lifted her head and walked briskly to the center of the stage Polite applause could not hide the spontaneous murmur that spread throughout the all white audience Isn t that a colored girl Those in the back rows stretched their necks to see while those in the front stared in unbelief But all whispered the same question Isn t that a colored girl Undaunted she took the diploma and pumped the outstretched hand She was the first black American woman to have completed the requirements for the Ph D degree Soon she would begin a career of service to the black community and end up at Oakwood College in Huntsville Alabama One of the most beloved black Adventist teachers and musicians she contributed an inspiring life of selfless devotion and service and triumph over prejudice DeWitt S Williams was a former student under Dr Dykes and wrote this book out of admiration for her Christian character and service Dr Williams served as the associate director of health for the Health Temperance Department at the General Conference from 1983 until 1990 and then as director of health for the North American Division from 1990 until he retired in 2010 after forty six years of service to the Adventist Church He has lectured in more than 100 countries and served as a missionary to Africa This the third printing has an added illustrated epilogue for young people written by Laurie Lyon which first appeared in Guide magazine in August 2009 This easy to read section can act as a review for those who have read the story before or be a wonderful introduction to the inspiring story of Dr Eva B Dykes

Lewis C. Sheafe Douglas Morgan, 2010 Born Just as the Civil War Began Lewis Sheafe grew to manhood at a pivotal moment in American history But instead of racial equality the nation offered its freed slaves further oppression and injustice Sheafe strong willed dynamic and seemingly tireless had but two main objectives Uplift his people spiritually and socially and consistently adhere to biblical principle in all aspects of life His thirst for truth led him first to the Baptists where he became both an eloquent minister and a prominent leader of the Black community Then his poor health led him to Battle Creek Sanitarium where he encountered Seventh day Adventism Sheafe saw in the Adventist message the tenets of race relations he already championed and he embraced it wholeheartedly He was sent to lead the Black work in Washington D C in 1902 and his evangelistic campaigns drew standing room only crowds of both Black and White listeners But during his turbulent years of Adventist ministry he and church leaders could not agree on how to apply biblical principles of racial equality The conflict eventually proved fatal to his ties with the denomination In this gripping biography Douglas Morgan pieces together the life of this forgotten leader whose story sheds light on the reason that no lasting separate Black Adventist denomination ever formed Book jacket The Golden Land Di Morrissey, 2012-11-01 With millions of copies sold worldwide Di Morrissey is Australia's favourite storyteller with new novel The Night Tide out now Natalie is a young Gold Coast mother with a loving husband two small children and a happy lifestyle While helping her mother move house she finds a little box containing a Burmese artefact When Natalie learns its unique history through a letter left by her great great uncle it ignites an interest in its country of origin and her uncle's unfulfilled plans for this curio Her investigations collide with her own dramatically changing circumstances and create a catalyst for a moral dilemma that challenges the core of her marriage as she finds herself immersed in two very different golden lands
