Sheaves Of Silence:

The Rainbow (Unabridged) D. H. Lawrence, 2019-06-15 The Rainbow is a novel by British author D H Lawrence It follows three generations of the Brangwen family living in Nottinghamshire particularly focusing on the individual s struggle to growth and fulfilment within the confining strictures of English social life The Rainbow tells the story of three generations of the Brangwen family a farm labouring dynasty who live in the East Midlands of England near Nottingham The book spans a period of roughly 65 years from the 1840s to 1905 and shows how the love relationships of the Brangwens change against the backdrop of the increasing industrialisation of Britain The first central character Tom Brangwen is a farmer whose experience of the world does not stretch beyond Nottinghamshire while the last Ursula his granddaughter studies at University and becomes a teacher in the progressively urbanised capitalist and industrial world that would become our modern experience The book starts with a description of the Brangwen dynasty then deals with how Tom Brangwen one of several brothers fell in love with a Polish refugee Lydia The next part of the book deals with Lydia s daughter by her first husband Anna and her destructive battle riven relationship with her husband Will the son of one of Tom s brothers The last and most extended part of the book and also probably the most famous then deals with Will and Anna s daughter Ursula and her struggle to find fulfilment for her passionate spiritual and sensual nature against the confines of the increasingly materialist and conformist society around her She experiences a lesbian relationship with a teacher and a passionate but ultimately doomed love affair with Anton Skrebensky a British soldier of Polish ancestry At the end of the book having failed to find her fulfilment in Skrebensky she has a vision of a rainbow towering over the Earth promising a new dawn for humanity She saw in the rainbow the earth s new architecture the old brittle corruption of houses and factories swept away the world built up in a living fabric of Truth fitting to the over arching heaven The Rainbow David Herbert

Lawrence, 2022-07-20 David Herbert Lawrence s The Rainbow is a pioneering exploration of human sexuality and the intricacies of relationships set against the backdrop of early 20th century England Written in Lawrence s signature modernist style the novel intertwines lyrical prose with rich symbolism revealing the emotional and spiritual depths of its characters Through the lives of three generations of the Brangwen family the narrative delves into themes of individuality love and the clash between tradition and modernity ultimately portraying the tension between personal desires and societal expectations The seamless flow of the narrative invites readers into the vivid tapestry of rural life challenging conventional moralities of the time David Herbert Lawrence was an influential figure of the early 20th century known for his candid examinations of human psychology and sexuality Born in 1885 in the industrial Midlands of England Lawrence s own experiences shaped his views on relationships and social structures His observation of the rapidly changing world around him coupled with his interest in psychosexual dynamics provided fertile ground for the themes explored in The Rainbow which was initially met with controversy due to its frank portrayal of sexual relationships Highly recommended for readers interested in modernist literature The Rainbow offers profound insights into the complexities of love and identity making it a timeless study of human experience Lawrence s novel challenges readers to reflect on their own lives and relationships making it an essential read for those curious about the intersection of art sexuality and societal norms The Rainbow D. H. Lawrence,2013-04-15 The Brangwen family has lived in Nottinghamshire for generations The Rainbow tells the story of the three generations of Brangwens who live at Marsh Farm from 1840 to the early 1900 s In this book D H Lawrence explored the impact of sexuality upon human relationships with such frankness that shortly after its publication in 1915 it was brought to trial for obscenity

The Solipsism of Modern Fiction Harold Kaplan, 2017-07-05 In The Solipsism of Modern Fiction Harold Kaplan deals with the problem of action and its adequate motive in the modern novel In the nineteenth and twentieth centuries modern scientific knowledge abandoned the human centred view of the universe and thus the fictional modes that had been rooted in religion or myth The result for fiction was a radical skepticism on the part of the protagonist who now appeared as a reflective self critical passive figure lacking the dynamism of the epic hero or religious seeker One response to the scientific worldview was the naturalism of Zola and his followers in which the action of characters is determined by social or biological forces Kaplan however focuses his study on such novelists as Flaubert Joyce Conrad Faulkner Lawrence and Hemingway who dramatised the isolated individual consciousness in contention with the world and with the ambiguity of their own motivations The Solipsism of Modern Fiction deals with several related topics that grow from one source the crisis of knowledge in modern intellectual history The effects of solipsism and of moral passivity the split consciousness that divides action and understanding the perspectives of primitive naturalism and stoic naturalism the variations of the comic mood and the example of tragedy are all themes that are dramatised in Kaplan s readings of Madame Bovary Light in August Ulysses Lord Jim and other exemplary modern novels that associate themselves with the problem of self criticism knowing and acting Written by one of the outstanding literary scholars of our time this book will inspire new generations of readers and writers
