The Sheikh's Convenient Bride Leslie North, In a desperate attempt to get out from her father's control Nora Williams agrees to marry a man she doesn't love But she's shocked when her old friend Sheikh Rashid whom she hasn't seen in years begs her not to go through with it Even more surprising Rashid has a proposal Literally Nora should marry him instead She had a secret crush on Rashid when they were younger so the offer is awfully enticing But Rashid is the crown prince of Omirabad how could she possibly fit in with his royal family And will she be able to follow her calling for midwifery the way she wants needs to Worse Rashid's proposal feels more like a business contract than a marriage proposal Until they kiss that is Rashid never had any illusion that his marriage would be one of passion As a member of the royal family he's expected to marry before thirty and doesn't have time to find a woman he actually loves Until he hears of Nora's predicament He'd wanted to be more than friends when they were younger but they'd never done more than exchange looks across a study table Unfortunately even with his proposal he's still only a friend to her Their marriage of convenience though lasts about two hours before unraveling into a state of wedded bliss at least for Rashid What he doesn't realize is how much Nora misses her midwifery work or how very unhappy she's become trapped in the palace But the wife of a sheikh has no business working with his country's poor or being reckless about her safety As the two slowly grow closer they must reconcile Nora's calling with Rashid's responsibilities to his country And discover if this marriage of theirs is real or just a terrible mistake
