Bold, Brilliant and Bad Marian Broderick, 2018-09-10 From every county in Ireland Bold

Brilliant Bad draws together the stories of over 120 amazing Irish women Marian Broderick is back to explore the histories of remarkable Irish Women in history From creative craftswomen to singing sensations poets to sporting champions From Lilian Bland to Maeve Binchy and from Anne O'Brien to Professor Sheila Tinney these women paved the way for the future and made massive changes in their various fields Meet the women from history who went against the grain and challenged the expectations of the world There were and are a force to be reckoned with Chaos Thornton Bell, Lionel Fanthorpe, Patricia Fanthorpe, 2015-02-27 Psychic investigators have long been intrigued by the question of the existence of Elemental Spirits Is it possible that Beings of incredible age wander unseen through the wild lonely deserts and drift above the peaks of barren desolate mountains Is there any connection between such speculation and the legends of ancient mythology Could it be that the djinn and devas of India are only other interpretations of the same inexplicable phenomena Man feels that he has progressed beyond magic and even the most rational of civilised religions are undergoing periods of theological revolution and fundamental re appraisal in the mid 60s But what if an Elemental Spirit invaded the safety and comfort of everyday life What if something over and above mankind burst like a tornado into the security of ordered human society Could the logic and science of the Twentieth Century defeat the terrifying power of a thing which was alive yet not alive dead yet undying

Improving Your Multiple Staff Ministry Anne Marie Nuechterlein, 2000-07-13 This book offers an exploration as to why church ministry staffs succeed or fail With an emphasis in using faith in Christ as the foundation for analysis the author draws from research and experience to reveal how a knowledge of interpersonal dynamics and individual differences can aid in finding ways to more effectively work together Captured Futures Maarten A. Hajer, Jeroen Oomen, 2025-05-14 Environmental politics as we know it cannot deliver Despite all efforts politics is unable to bend the ecological trends Maarten A Hajer and Jeroen Oomen argue that this is because environmental politics is captured This capture doesn't just express itself in lobbying or a lack of political will but in a capture of the imagination we seem unable to imagine futures that are meaningfully different from the present Examining environmental politics as drama reveals how all actors play their particular roles in this capture scientists funnel narrow policy futures through their models activists adopt politically expedient language and policymakers look for safe technologically sound win win solutions All are captured in a regime of ecological modernization that entertains too narrow a solution space For Hajer and Oomen this is cause for concern we have entered a radical age in which persistent policy failure leads to increased suggestions to engage with speculative geoengineering technologies in a desperate attempt to safeguard the future On the other hand they point at the growing societal backlash against environmental policies Yet in the third part of the book discourse and dramaturgical analysis appear as a reason for hope sketching an alternative perspective on environmental politics It suggests that a new more cultural approach to environmental politics could have more leverage on the societal imagination Combining this with the formulation of new discourses and using alternative dramaturgies of change Captured Futures highlights how to find more effective and more inspiring ideas about how to approach the future and ultimately liberate environmental politics
