Pathways and Consequences of Legal Irregularity Erik R. Vickstrom, 2019-04-10 This open access book provides a unique study of the complexities and consequences of irregular legal status of Senegalese migrants in Europe It employs sophisticated quantitative methods to analyze unique life history data to produce policy relevant conclusions Using the MAFE dataset as empirical evidence the book focuses on the legal paths of Senegalese migrants in three different European countries It shows how multiple contexts of reception produce pathways into irregular legal status and how the resulting complex configurations of irregular status shape migrants economic integration into their host societies as well as their ongoing participation in the development of their sending societies The book thereby increases our understanding of the functioning of African migration systems and the corresponding inclusion patterns in Europe As such this book will be of interest to scholars working in migration studies policy makers and legal professionals

Alan Rogers France 2007 - Quality Camping & Caravanning Sites ,2007 Bradshaw's illustrated travellers' hand book in [afterw.] to France George Bradshaw, 1855

We are no longer in France Allison Drew, 2014-11-01 This book recovers the lost history of colonial Algeria's communist movement Meticulously researched and the only English language book on the Parti Communiste Algérien it explores communism's complex relationship with Algerian nationalism During international crises such as the Popular Front and Second World War years the PCA remained close to its French counterpart but as the national liberation struggle intensified the PCA's concern with political and social justice attracted growing numbers of Muslims When the Front de Libération Nationale launched armed struggle in November

1954 the PCA maintained its organisational autonomy despite FLN pressure. They participated fully in the national liberation war, facing the French state's wrath. Independence saw two conflicting socialist visions: with the PCA's incorporated political pluralism and class struggle on the one hand, and the FLN demand for a one-party socialist state on the other. The PCA's pluralist vision was shattered when it was banned by the one-party state in November 1962. This book is of particular interest to students and scholars of Algerian history, French colonial history, and communist history.
